BIG BAD BAT BAGGED

This bat, captured on the outside ledge of an apartment on Novato's Fourth Street yesterday, appears to be saying "cheese" or maybe something worse as County Humane Officer Robert Miller poses it for a photograph. The bat, with a wing spread of seven inches, was captured after it disturbed apartment residents by hanging from window ledges. The Marin County Humane Society killed it after a check with residents showed it had not come in contact with humans and there was no need for a rabies test. (Independent-Journal photo by Jim Kean)

Ballot Fuss Emerges In Almonte Area

Candidate Held 'Dumping' Two In Sanitary Race

By BRUCE COLEMAN

Herbert E. Davis and Frank Shirado, two would-be candidates in Tuesday's election for Almonte Sanitary District board, today alleged they were "dumped from the race" by another candidate, incumbent, Frances M. Gelardi.

Davis said he felt it was too late to go into court to ask for an injunction permitting them to run. "We have a good case," he contended.

County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney told the county board of supervisors last night that it could do nothing about the dispute.

HEARS LETTER

The board heard a letter from the two men reporting they had been ruled off the ballot and asking for an investigation.

Supervisor Peter H. Behr, whose district includes Almonte, said he felt removal of the names from the ballot due to a technicality in their nomination petitions was undemocratic.

"Every time something like this happens somewhere, I intend to scream about it," said Behr.

QUICK ACTION

Maloney said the two men could go into court and seek an injunction, but they had better act quickly. Davis said today he did not think he nor Shirado would take this action.

Davis, a counsellor at San Francisco City College, and Shirado, a cabinet maker, were ruled off the ballot by the Almonte Sanitary District board on the basis that their petitions were defective.

Gelardi, board secretary, said Davis had printed instead of written his name, and that blank spaces were left in the places of nominee and circulator signatures on Shirado's petition.

CLOSING DATE

Davis claimed he took his petition to Gelardi on July 30, closing date for filing, and that Gelardi looked it over and gave him a signed form saying he accepted it.

"If anything had been wrong," said Davis, "Gelardi had time to inform us . . . Gelardi was fishing for minor technicalities to throw our petitions out." He said he also spoke for Shirado.

Transit Issue Is Going On November Ballot

Despite Fear Of Defeat

Marin voters will have their chance to vote on formation of a county-wide transit district in November.

The Marin County Board of Supervisors last night unanimously voted to place the measure on the Nov. 3 ballot, in spite of fears by the Marin Council for Civic Affairs that there was not enough time to educate the public to assure passage.

Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker joined council president Margaret Azevedo in asking a delay, but went along with the rest of the board when time came for the vote.

SHORT END

"I'm not going to be on the short end of a 4-1 vote in favor of transit," Leydecker said. "I will be happy to defer to those who have proved their political wisdom as I have not."

Mrs. Azevedo, is asking for the delay , said the council found itself in a "peculiar position," since it has been supporting the transit proposal. She said that the many other important issues on the November ballot had hurt chances of organizing a campaign for transit.

LITTLE LOST

Supervisor William D. Fusselman disagreed. He said he felt the measure would pass easily, but that even if it did not, little would be lost.

County Administrator Alan Bruce said he had an unusual opportunity to say he agreed fully with Fusselman. "I see nothing that would be lost except time if we lost in November," said Bruce.

Supervisor Peter H. Behr predicted that the four cities in his district would support the measure wholeheartedly, and said transit was one issue where commuters could give organized support.

As to the crowded ballot, Behr said, "in this county other things are always going on."

The proposed district would be expected to undertake a study of the county's transit needs and their solution, and then, either by establishing its own system or by subsidizing Greyhound Bus Lines, make major improvements in the commute transportation system.

Thomas D. Hardcastle of Novato, a director of the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District, noted the bridge district is ready to put up $30,000 toward

Quick-Moving Grass, Brush Fire Burns Near Homes In Oak Manor

A quick-moving fire that threatened several homes burned 27 acres of grass, brush and trees in Oak Manor, north of Fairfax, yesterday afternoon.

County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom said there was no structural damage but the fire came within yards of several homes.

The fire started at the east end of Gregory Drive and swept uphill toward Steven Court and Oak Manor Drive, aided by low humidity and a moderate southeast wind.

Thirty firemen and 12 units from Marin County, Fairfax and San Anselmo fire departments stopped the blaze before it topped the hill and headed toward Terra Linda.

The cause of the fire was still under investigation today, but the chief said he believes it was accidental.

A survey crew from the Carlos Gonzales engineering firm working near Gregory Drive reported hearing a "loud explosion." Then fire started about 20 feet away from them.

Chief Bloom said the sound might have come from an exploding bottle.

Residents of the area were out watering their roofs for protection as ashes from the fire spread as far as Woodacre.

As smoke billowed up, the county fire department was flooded with calls from the San Geronimo Valley, Sleepy Hollow and Terra Linda.

The first fire call came at 12:42 p.m., and the blaze was brought under control at 2:05 p.m. after burning 25 acres. Then a hot spot flared up and burned another two acres before it was finally controlled at 2:45 p.m., Chief Bloom said.

Chief Bloom said there were 10 firemen and seven units from the county fire department, 11 men and two units from Fairfax, and three units and nine men from San Anselmo who fought the fire.

Parked Auto Causes Fire Truck Crash

A Tiburon fire truck smashed into a corner of the firehouse last night as it raced to answer an emergency call and the driver tried to avoid hitting a car parked in the firehouse driveway.

The truck was behind the firehouse, being used in a practice drill, when the call to an auto accident was received. It roared through the driveway between the firehouse and a do-it-yourself laundry, which is posted "no parking." A car belonging to Edward J. Delaney, 66 Summit Avenue, Mill Valley, was parked in the edge of the driveway.

The fire truck driver swerved to miss the car and the truck hit the edge of the firehouse, unseating the roof, cracking the walls of the room where fire commissioners were meeting, and smashing three ladders on the side of the truck. Chief Frank J. Buscher estimated total damage at $1,000.

Firemen continued on to give first aid to Ronald E. Boyle, 22, a Treasure Island sailor whose car had hit a utility pole anchor line off Paradise Drive near Mar West Street. Boyle was treated for cuts at Marin General Hospital.

Sheriff's deputies cited Delaney for parking too close to the fire station driveway.

Jensen Scheduled In Muni Court

San Rafael City Councilman Fred E. Jensen is scheduled to appear in Marin Municipal Court Tuesday on two misdemeanor charges following his arrest for allegedly pointing a loaded revolver at two San Rafael police officers.

The 64-year-old councilman was reported in satisfactory condition today at San Rafael General Hospital, where he is under the care of a psychiatrist, Dr. Samuel T. D. Anderson.

Jensen, who entered the hospital yesterday after his arrest, reportedly spent a "restful night."

He faces charges of brandishing a weapon in a threatening manner and of malicious mischief—the latter for damaging a door at the home of his ex-wife, Mrs. Juliet Bobo, at 211 California Street, San Rafael.

Jensen was arrested at Mrs. Bobo's home about 1 a.m. yesterday after he leveled a .38-caliber revolver at Officers John Riordan and Kenneth Homen, San Rafael police reported.

Jensen was disarmed and booked at county jail on suspicion of attempted murder, assault with a deadly weapon, burglary and battery and released under $2,200 bail. After receiving the report of the incident, the district attorney's office filed the two misdemeanor charges, eliminating the initial counts.

Police said Jensen was carrying two loaded revolvers, one in hand and one in his rear pocket, without a permit, but did not intend to press charges on that count.

While Jensen was being booked, jailers confiscated a small bottle of seconal tablets, about half full, that Jensen said he had been taking to help him sleep.

The sheriff's office checked the possibility that he might be charged with illegal possession of dangerous drugs, but San Rafael police said today they would not press that charge.

Jensen is scheduled to appear in court at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Viet Troops Score Victory; Government Still Confused

COMBINED AP & UPI

SAIGON — Government troops northeast of Saigon have inflicted the heaviest defeat on Communist guerrillas in weeks, it was reported today.

Three American military advisers accompanied South Vietnamese troops in the large-scale military operation near Quang Ngai, 330 miles northeast of Saigon. Government troops routed 400 to 500 guerrillas who were attacking three strategic hamlets.

The Reds began their attack before dawn yesterday and started to withdraw three hours later after vastly outnumbered defenders held them off. The defenders also delayed the Communist retreat long enough to permit regular troops to arrive.

In the ensuing battle the government regulars and local "popular" forces killed 79 guerrillas and captured two. The government said eight of its men were killed and 26 wounded.

Meanwhile, Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh announced today he has received and accepted the resignations of all cabinet ministers and secretaries of state who are army officers, including his own.

Vacation Used In Theft Scheme

San Rafael police today reported theft of a radio and guitar, valued at $225, by a clever scheme worked on a vacationing victim.

While Yvonne L. Vattuone of 9 Blossom Drive, San Rafael, was on vacation Aug. 1 through 8, someone using her name called Montgomery Ward and Co. in Corte Madera Aug. 3 and ordered the radio and guitar, police said.

The merchandise was delivered to the Vattuone home Aug. 6 and left on the porch because there was no one home. The unknown caller apparently picked them up there.

Mrs. Vattuone told police she knew nothing about it until she got the bill from the store.

Labor Day Patrolling Is Planned

The Marin County Office of the California Highway Patrol will have all available personnel, plus four officers from the San Francisco office, patroling county roads and highways over the Labor Day weekend.

The 44 officers will be seeking to lower the rising traffic accident and death rate in Marin County.

On coast roads there will be six highway patrolmen on motorcycles. Other officers will circulate throughout the county.

The highway patrol warned local drivers today that the majority of accidents occur within a six-mile radius of the motorist's home.

Thirty-one persons have been killed in traffic accidents in Marin County this year, eight more than at this time last year, which was a record year. There have been 1,387 accidents investigated by the highway patrol this year, compared to 1,319 last year.

Leader Of Cuba Trip, Investigators Clash

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A leader of a group of U.S. students who made a prohibited trip to Cuba this summer engaged today in a bristling verbal battle with members of the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

There were no physical clashes as the committee began its second day of hearings on the trip. But the morning session was punctuated by angry gavel pounding by the committee chairman Rep. Richard Ichord (D-Mo.) and acrimonious exchanges between the investigators and Edward Lemansky of New York City.

American Nazi Party chief George Lincoln Rockwell and two of his followers were admitted as spectators under heavy police guard.

Authorities changed signals and permitted the three Nazis to enter the hearing room. Two uniformed policemen flanked each one.

In order to avoid a repeat of yesterday, when a Nazi Party member attacked a witness in the room, police officials originally had planned to bar any Nazis today. But they changed tactics, apparently to avoid a run-in with Rockwell at the outset of the session. (See story, photo page 2.)

Lemansky, a 24-year-old Antioch College graduate, challenged the legality of the investigation and the right of the House group to question him. The New Yorker is an admitted member of a Communist-front group and led the group of 84 students to Cuba.

He freely acknowledged going to Cuba—"to find out the truth for myself"—but invoked constitutional grounds, including the Fifth Amendment protection against self-incrimination on two occasions.

Lemansky refused to say whether he was selected as leader of the trip by the Progressive Labor Movement, an organization which he belongs to and de-

Top Business Group Lines Up For LBJ

Major Political Coup Is Scored By President

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Lyndon B. Johnson, scoring a major political coup, has won a public endorsement from 45 top businessmen, most of them longtime supporters of the Republican party.

Meeting with Johnson at the White House last night, 26 representatives of the group organized a "National Independent Committee" to support the campaign of Johnson and Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, his vice presidential running mate.

INITIAL SPONSORS

Among the initial sponsors of the committee were such nationally known executives as industrialists Henry Ford II and Edgar F. Kaiser, retailer Ralph Lazarus, and financiers Thomas S. Lamont, Robert Lehman and Sidney J. Weinberg.

The list of organizers also included Robert B. Anderson who served in the Cabinet of Republican President Dwight D. Eisenhower as secretary of health, education and welfare.

The committee said in a press release that it would "attempt to acquaint the general republic with the confidence that prominent national leaders in all walks of life have in President Johnson and will urge that he be given four years of opportunity to serve all the people."

NO FAULT FOUND

Johnson surely found no fault with that sentiment, and addressing the group in the Cabinet room, said: "I commend all of you not only on the choice you have made for your country —but on your courage in now assuming the responsibility of your convictions."

John T. Connor, co-chairman of the committee and president of Merck and Co., told newsmen that about 75 per cent of the business and financial leaders joining in the endorsement of Johnson were registered Republicans or had generally supported GOP candidates in presidential elections.

Connor described himself as an independent Democrat. The other co-chairman, John L. Loeb, senior partner of the Wall Street brokerage firm of Carl M. Loeb, Rhoads and Co., said he was a registered Republican.

Sgt. York's Body Going Back Home

PALL MALL, Tenn. (AP)—Flags fly at half staff throughout this Cumberland Mountain hamlet today to honor Sgt. Alvin C. York, but the flag over the doughboy-hero's front porch flutters at the top of its staff.

Nazi Breaks Up Cuba Visit Hearing

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Nazi sympathizer's attack on a witness brought to a violent and abrupt end the opening session of the House Committee on Un-American Activities' inquiry into student travel to Cuba.

But the committee was to resume its hearings today with the same witness, Morton B. Salter, 21, of New York on the stand and police ready, as they were yesterday, for any eventuality.

Slater, one of 84 students who visited Cuba this summer, was starting to testify yesterday when a man later identified by police as Lon L. Dunaway, 28, of Arlington, Va., leaped upon the witness stand and tried to hit Slater.

Police brought down Dunaway, who was wearing the armband of the American Nazi Party. The presiding congressman, Rep. Richard Ichord (D-Mo.), gaveled the session to a close and rescheduled Salter's appearance for today.

Until that moment, the day had been calm, a far cry from the sessions a year ago when student travelers, dressed in blue jeans, sandals and beards, hooted and jeered and soon found themselves dragged out of the House caucus room and tossed onto the sidewalk outside the House office building.

This time, the student travelers showed up in quiet, conservative dress, no different from any other witness or audience on Capitol Hill. And they came armed with an instruction sheet urging them to behave in an orderly way, keep their comments to themselves and obey whatever an officer tells them to do. They followed the instructions.

Odds Seem Against Health Care Passage This Year

WASHINGTON (AP) — The odds appeared today to be against enactment of a Social Security health-care plan this year despite the 60-28 Senate passage of a bill which would set up such a system.

The health-care provisions were written into the bill by a 49-44 vote Wednesday. The House had included no such plan in the bill it passed. A Senate-House conference committee will prepare the final version.

The Senate named conferees who had voted 5-2 against the health benefits for the aged, although they would normally support the Senate plan in conference.

The House delegation is expected to be headed by Rep. Wilbur D. Mills (D-Ark.), longtime fore of a Social Security-financed health program. He is likely to have a majority on the group who will side with him.

Nevertheless, Democratic leaders in both branches of Congress said they were determined to push as hard as possible for inclusion of some form of health benefits in the final version of the bill.

The bill as it passed the Senate yesterday includes not only the health-care program but also increased cash payments for all those now on the Social Security rolls.

A House showdown on the health issue is not expected until the week after next.

Batiste said the driver stopped, walked back, found him alive, got back in his car, drove over him a second time, then drove off.

Five In Race For Sanitary Board

Voters in the large Ross Valley Sanitary District will select two directors from a list of five candidates on the ballot in Tuesday's election.

Two of the candidates are the two incumbents whose four-year terms are expiring. They are Harold E. Payton of 4 Glen Road, San Anselmo, and Peter A. Ribar of 106 Diablo Drive, Kentfield.

PAYTON, former deputy county assessor, has served on the sanitary board 16 years. Since his retirement from county employment in 1958, he has been in the insurance business. A native of San Francisco, he has lived in Marin 56 years.

RIBAR, an attorney, has served on the sanitary district board six years. He has served as president and as secretary. A native of Pueblo, Colo., he has lived in Marin County 14 years.

Seeking to unseat the incumbents are:

WILLIAM MAIER, 36, of 100 Sycamore Avenue, San Anselmo, owner of William Maier Realty. His father served 20 years on the district board. Maier said he is seeking the post for experience, explaining that he hopes eventually to play a greater role in local politics. Born in Fairfield, Maier has lived in Marin 34 years.

DAN G. LEBAKOS, 39, of 17 Fay Drive, Kentfield, an insurance man and real estate broker, declares that the 15 cents per $100 assessed value tax rate the district now charges, though not high, probably could be lower. He is also in favor of the proposed flood control project on Corte Madera Creek as a means of curing winter sewerage problems. Lebakos is a native of San Anselmo.

CECIL W. BOSWELL, 43, of 75 Corte Cayuga, Greenbrae, is a manufacturers' representative for Robbins and Myers, Inc., makers of motors and pumps, and Weil Pump Co. He is a native of Dallas. Boswell says that his work with mechanical engineers makes him well qualified for service on the district. He said he is running because he sees it as his civic duty.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Polling places are at the Kentfield firehouse; at the district office, 11 Library Place in San Anselmo, and at the Fairfax branch library at 55 Broadway, Fairfax.

Trial Bus Service Is Already In Trouble

Trial bus service between downtown San Rafael and Canal Street is in financial difficulties already due to lack of passengers, it was learned today.

Operated part-time since Aug. 17 by the San Rafael-Richmond Bridge Bus Lines, it was estimated by owner Cecil J. Allen that $8 a day in fares would be needed to maintain the line.

Less than $30 in total fares has been taken in, according to Mrs. Anne Malacrida of 199 Canal Street, representative of the apartment dwellers. She said it is hoped traffic will increase when school starts.

The jitney bus will leave Canal Street at 8:30 a.m. and drop students off at Third Street and Grand Avenue. It will pick them up at 3:30 p.m. at Third Street and Tamalpais Avenue, said Mrs. Malcrida.

The bus also makes runs from Canal Street to downtown at 10:15 and 11:15 a.m. and from downtown to Canal Street at 1:15 and 4:15 p.m. A group of apartment residents will meet Wednesday at the offices of Helman and Helman, public accountants, 523 Fourth Street, to consider the bus line's future, said Mrs. Malcrida.

Chile Election Shows Country Veering To Left

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—Chileans were to vote today for a president. No matter who wins the country will be veering to the left.

Last night, only hours before the voters went to bed, the Communist Party already was talking as if its candidate, Socialist Sen. Salvador Allende, had won.

Communist Party chief Luis Corvalan told a news conference he hoped a "mutual understanding" could be reached for a government takeover of the giant U.S. companies that produce 90 per cent of Chile's copper.

Allende, 56, is opposed by another senator, Eduardo Frei, 53, who is a member of the Christian Democratic Party and a moderate leftist. He favors more state control over foreign owned companies, but also says he wants to encourge more U.S. investments.

Political experts figured Frei might win by a narrow margin.

Two Meetings Scheduled To Air Hamilton Disputes

Two meetings were scheduled today at Hamilton Air Force Base to air complaints of Air Force personnal about civilian authorities and of Novatans about the Air Force.

The first meeting will be next Tuesday noon at the Officers Club on the air base, announced Col. Ralph M. Wanderer Jr., base commander. He said Novato, Marin County and state law enforcement officials will be invited to hear complaints of Raphael Village residents about traffic through their area.

The second meeting will be held one week later, the time and place not yet designated. Novato civic leaders and residents will be invited, said the colonel. It will be to hear Novatans' complaints about annoyance from planes because of a new flight pattern adopted by the base last year.

Raphael Village is a Wherry Housing Act development which belongs to the Air Force but is part of Novato. Unlike the base itself, it is under civilian authority—specifically, that of the city.

On Aug. 23, a group of Raphael Village residents drew up a list of complaints about traffic problems — particularly speeding — and began circulating petitions to be presented to the air base commander.

The complaints result in large part from alleged increase in speeding since completion by the State Division of Highways of the Ignacio Boulevard-Highway 101 overpass. The new route sends cars into Raphael Village at higher speeds — as residents were warned it would by a story in the Scramble, the airbase newspaper.

Residents ask (1) reduction in the speed limit from 25 to 15 miles per hour, (2) marking of pedestrian crosswalks, and (3) closer police patrol.

Their complaints will be presented to county and state authorities since part of the route generating the traffic trouble is outside the city and is patrolled by the California Highway Patrol.

The Novatans' complaint, to be aired at the second meeting, is that the change in the "bad weather approach" to the air base adopted last year sends planes at low elevation over Novato homes.

The approach to which the Novatans object is that which brings planes over Little Mountain, a 600-foot hill west of Novato, and over a residential area.

Until last year, a "bad weather approach" from the northwest was used. The Air Force made the change, according to Hamilton sources, because the old approach took aircraft dangerously close to Mount Burdell, which rises 1,600 feet.

Mrs. John Machado of 1424 Dawes Street, Novato, who is spearheading a fight to have the former flight pattern restored, contends that no one objected to it until after building started in Bel Marin Keys — directly under the northwest approach.

Most of the time, Hamilton planes used a southerly approach, but in recent weeks they have been using the "bad weather" pattern.

president and president, respectively of the Almonte Improvement Club.

Elimination of the two leaves five persons running for three positions on the board. Three are incumbents, Robert A. Alexander, chairman, Gelardi, and Richard J. Dawe. Also running are David J. Beasley of 152 Almonte Boulevard, a member of the Marin County Building Inspection Department, and Rober Raudso of 180 Stanford Avenue, electrical engineering consultant and builder.

Both Gelardi and Raudso have gone on record in opposition to directors receiving pay for their jobs. Directors now receive $25 per meeting.

Gelardi says there is not enough work that board members should be compensated and Raudso said $5 a meeting might be all right but $25 is "absolutely excessive."

Weekend Starts With Tragic Death Of Family

MERCED (UPI) — A vacation trip ended in tragedy early today when a station wagon with nine persons in it plunged off a freeway and hurtled 265 feet into a railroad embankment, killing eight of its occupants.

The ninth occupant, a 6-year-old boy, wasn't expected to live.

It was the worst accident in the nation at the start of the Labor Day weekend.

The victims were identified as Mrs. Doris Traxler, 38, of North Highland, the wife of an Air Force staff sergeant who is stationed in Thailand, six of their seven children, Wayne Jr., Charmaine, about 10, Dwight, Caroline, Gelda and Stacey, and Mrs. Traxler's brother, Gilbert Gallegos, 33, of Santa Ana.

Mrs. Traxler's other child, Duane, 6, was hospitalized in extremely critical condition and authorities said his chances of survival were poor.

A barber apprenticeship course, sponsored by the College of Marin, will begin Sept. 17 at Novato High School.

a $90,000 study on transit. He recommended a November vote.

After voting to put the measure on the ballot, the board named Behr to write the ballot argument in favor of the measure.

County Clerk George H. Gnoss said that Sept. 20 would be the last day to accept ballot arguments on the other side, but supervisor Fusselman convinced him to push the date back to Sept. 25.

Leydecker, in asking for delay, said he felt the opposition to formation of a transit district was largely "political." He recounted the history of the legislation allowing formation of a Marin Transit District.

Then he said, "A person in this county took it upon himself to potshot this bill."

He never mentioned his opponent in the coming election, John F. McInnis, by name, but said he was worried about support from one city, San Rafael, of which McInnis is mayor.

Pistols Stolen At Strawberry

Three old pistols, including two 1865 model cap-and-ball weapons, were reported stolen early today in a burglary of the garage of the home of James K. Garner, 106 Strawberry Drive, Strawberry.

Garner told Marin County sheriff's officers he heard a noise about 4:30 a.m. but the intruder apparently fled as he approached his garage to check. He said a back door window pane had been broken.

Three other pistols and a box of ammunition were found—apparently dropped by the burglar—on the pation outside.

The commission also decided to join in a study on the district's alert system for volunteers.

Miss Cryer told police a friend, Pam Finke, saw the boys removing the bolts at 9:50 p.m. yesterday. The boys drove away. Miss Cryer and Miss Finke pursued the boys in a car, getting their license number, which was turned over to police. The 17-year-old was traced throught he auto license.

Man Arrested In Fishing Rod Theft

Willey Tillis, 30, of Richmond was arrested by Belvedere police yesterday on a petty theft charge that he took a fishing rod from a Belvedere home.

Low Bidder On Office Job Named

Crown Development of San Rafael, at $94,500, was low of four bidders yesterday for remodeling the North Marin County Water District offices, according to Jerome B. Gilbert, District manager.

Other bidders were Sabraw Brothers of San Rafael, $95,300; Page Construction Co. of Novato, $103,800, and Shanley Construction Co. of Santa Clara, $107,600.

The bids will be considered at the Sept. 15 meeting of the board.

The remodeling will be considered at the Sept. 15 meeting of the board.

The remodeling consists of adding 1,500 square feet of new office space to the building, turning 2,000 square feet of garage into finished office space, and major remodeling of the existing office.

But he said all will stay on for the time being.

In other words, the rule of South Vietnam was as confused as at any point in its history.

For the time being, Khanh said, the three-general triumvirate will continue to run the show under a new name-steering committee.

Asked about the announcement earlier in the day that one of the triumvirate members, Lt. Gen. Tran Thien Khiem, had resigned, Khanh said:

"General Khiem is still a member of the three-man steering committee, but he has resigned from his government post."

Khiem was defense minister and chief of the armed forces under Khanh. He is the only Roman Catholic on the renamed triumvirate.

Khiem had been quoted as saying he had "had enough of the Buddhists running the country."

Khanh said he will lead the nation for the next two critical months, but is prepared to step down once democracy is established.

Computing Service For Bills Studied

Marin County Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell yesterday explained how the county's electronic computing service could be used to handle bill paying for the San Rafael Sanitary District.

Dog Ordinance To Be Enforced

The city of Sausalito will begin immediately to enforce new controls against dog nuisances in downtown commercial zones, City Mgr. Charles A. Brown said today.

All dogs at large, downtown, whether licensed or not, will be picked up in cooperation with the Marin County Humane Society, he said.

New controls were adopted last November, said Brown, but enforcement could not commence until a new agreement between the board of supervisors and the Humane Society effective in July.

"Sausalito dogs," said Brown, "have not only created sidewalk nuisances but have obstructed traffic and caused extensive damage to the city's downtown park plaza and other landscaped areas."

Ziggy The Chimp Strikes Out

Ziggy, the chimpanzee at the Louise A. Boyd Natural Science Museum in San Rafael, might be just the batter the San Francisco Giants need in their pennant drive, but he struck out yesterday.

Ziggy was sitting in his cage when three boys came along and slipped a baseball bat inside to see what he would do.

Ziggy did what any red-blooded chimp would do. He picked up the bat and took a few swings, hitting nothing.

After his third strike, the animal keeper, took the bat away from Ziggy and sent him back to the bench.

Ziggy also is known as an avid baseball fan, watching games at Albert Field from his cage and cheering wildly.

Hugh Dougherty, president, said he will appoint a committee to determine the best plan and petitions will probably be circulated soon and a decision made as to what agency should administer the lighting service. Le Roy Hines and George N. Brockhurst conducted the survey.

College Registration Is Expected To Climb

Registration of fulltime College of Marin students for the fall semester is expected to be greater than the 2,200 enrollment forecast, Irwin P. Diamond, dean of students, reported last night.

He told the college's trustees that 1,019 were continuing at the Kentfield campus with 1,040 new students already registered and approximately 200 expected to register today.

Registration figures for the college's adult program including summer school and extended day classes, have also shown an increase, Ellsworth R. Briggs, dean of adult education, reported.

Growth in the adult education program during the past four years was 50 per cent; 75 per cent in summer school programs for adults; 263 per cent in adults taking classes for credit, and 630 per cent in extended day registrations, he said.

The College of Marin Board also:

1. Approved purchase agreements for acquisition of property adjacent to the campus on the east side of Laurel Avenue. The parcels, owned by Alice Teresa Bacigalupi, the Northwestern Pacific Railroad Co. and Margaret M. Yost, Eugenia A. Marsh and David Bacigalupi Jr., will be purchased by the college for a total of $23,500. Negotiations are still underway for purchase of a parcel owned by Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Alander at 29 Laurel Avenue.

2. Received a report from Charles F. Herndon, college counselor and coordinator of cooperative training, on placement of students who have had electronic data processing training at the college. He urged that the trainees get a general education at college rather than training for a specific job or use of a specific machine which the employers would prefer to provide.

3. Set the next board meeting at 8 p.m. Sept. 17 in room 24, Harlan Hall, on the Kentfield campus.

Inverness Meeting

Directors of the Inverness Improvement Assn. will meet at 8:30 p.m. today at the Inverness firehouse.

Novato Girl Leaves For Peace Corps

Novato's second youth to join the Peace Corps left Sunday for Hilo, Hawaii, to take up training for the work.

She is Sara (Sally) Googins, who was graduated in June from University of California in Berkeley with a major in psychology.

Miss Googins, 22, who was born in Dunsmuir, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Googins of 1027 Simmons Lane, Novato. Her grandfather was Arnold Dolcini, long-time Hicks Valley rancher.

She will be given special training in Hilo until Nov. 7, and then, if she qualifies, will be assigned to some place in the Philippines. She has been studying Tagalog, principal native language of the Philippines.

Miss Googins told her mother that she joined the Peace Corps because "she wanted to serve her fellow man."

Jeff Mareck of 100 Chamberlain Lane, Novato, is serving in the Peace Corps in Sierra Leone.

Card Playing In Cafeteria To Be Limited At College

Card-playing College of Marin students who have been using the cafeteria for bridge sessions during the school day lost a game last night to the board of trustees.

Lloyd Stasiowski, president of the Associated Students, presented a resolution from the student executive council, asking the board to limit card playing to five tables in a corner of the crowded cafeteria.

The administration, however, recommended that cards and other table games be allowed in the cafeteria only from 2 to 5 p.m. when the eating area is closed.

"It's a matter of using the area for the benefit of a majority of the students," Irwin P. Diamond, dean of students, said.

Another student leader, Paul Molinari, said that it would be easier to enforce the limitation if games were allowed at any time during the day but only in the specified area.

"The cafeteria is always crowded, whether the students are playing cards or not," Stasiowski said.

The trustees followed the recommendation of Diamond and Stephen E. Epler, college president, to limit table games in the cafeteria to a specified area and time.

"The increased enrollment and the heavier load on the cafeteria and the need for providing space for eating and uses more important than games is the reason for our recommendation," Epler said

Man, 23, Jailed For Burglaries

Rodney H. Beck, 23, of San Francisco was in Marin County Jail today, charged with burglaries of three Belvedere and three Corte Madera area homes.

Beck was arrested yesterday by San Francisco police as he attempted to pawn a television set allegedly stolen from 1015 Meadowsweet Drive, Corte Madera, about two weeks ago. The car he was driving allegedly was stolen in Oakland.

Belvedere police charged Beck with burglary of the Lewis Vogler home, 124 Bay View Avenue, the night of Aug. 28. The home was entered through an unlocked side door and a stereo record player was stolen.

Beck is charged also with taking a television set from the home of Mrs. Edith Allessio, 210 Belvista Avenue, on the night of Aug. 31, entering through an unlocked sliding glass door. He is charged with taking a suit coat, three shirts, small change and an electric razor from the home of Dr. John M. Graves, 120 Madrone Avenue on Sept. 2, entering through a bedroom window.

He also is charged with the burglary of the television set in Corte Madera and with taking a transistor radio from an apartment at 1441 Casa Buena Drive, in the unincorporated Corte Madera area, about two weeks ago.

He allegedly took an electric razor, jacket and cuff links from the J. William Bastian home, 1449 Casa Buena Drive in the unincorporated area, about two weeks ago.

Bail was set at $3,850.

Museum Group Backing Arts Auditorium Plan

Directors of the Marin Museum Assn. yesterday voted to endorse Architect Aaron Green's suggestion that the performing arts auditorium for the new fairgrounds at the Civic Center have a partly sloping floor.

Directors also urged that the building have facilities for display of visual arts, association president Mrs. Edward Hayden reported today. Guests at yesterday's meeting included representatives of the new Stinson-Beach Arts Foundation and the Sausalito Arts Foundation.

Areas of cooperative effort in cultural services for the county were discussed, Mrs. Hayden said.

Speakers at the next meeting, Sept. 17, will be County Administrator Alan Bruce and Rudy Turk, director of the Richmond Civic Art Center. The meeting will be held at the Civic Center.

San Jose Board Rejects Bids On New School Room

San Jose School District trustees last night rejected all three bids received for construction of the Loma Verde School multi-use room, and decided to combine the project with a similar room at San Jose Intermediate School in calling for new bids.

There was a $100,000 error in the low bid of Clifford D. Francis of Santa Rosa, who submitted a figure of $19,875 when the total should have been $119,987—just $987 over the architect's estimate, reported Supt. Ralph Giovanniello. Other bids were $136,900 by Fostmeier Construction Co. of Petaluma and $146,500 by M. Royce Hall of Napa, both too far above the estimate.

The trustees authorized starting a new school at Hamilton Air Force Base, in the education center near the Noncommissioned Officers Academy. This seven-room school will have two first grades, two second grades, one third grade and two fourth grades for children living on the base.

The district will use four rooms rent-free, Giovanniello said. The board will open bids next Wednesday on three portable classrooms.

Neill Whitman, resource teacher at Pacheco School, was named principal of the new school, which will be called Hamilton School.

Charles Lavaroni, assistant superintendent in charge of educational services, presented a plan for outdoor education in the district. Robert Long, Pacheco School teacher, was named to coordinate the program.

The board meeting of Sept. 21 was designated a "get acquainted" meeting for the 10 new teachers in the district.

Retail Clerks Union Pickets Own Members

Because of a contract dispute in Stockton, members of the Retail Clerks Union are picketing their own members in San Rafael.

This oddity has been going on for two weeks at Mac Department Store, 555 Francisco Boulevard. The store here has a contract with Local 1119 and there is no labor trouble with management, according to a union spokesman.

The pickets were put up as a customer boycott after contract negotiations between Retail Clerks Union Local 197 and Mac Disco Mart in Stockton failed. The pickets in San Rafael, normally just two, have been handing out statements prepared by Local 197 claiming that the union represents most of the employees but Stockton management has refused to recognize it.

Mrs. Dorothy Simon, office manager for Local 1119 in San Rafael, who explained the situation here today, said there has been no recent report from Stockton on the dispute.

Power Cut For Homes In Novato

Some residents of Novato may have been late for work this morning as electric power to 125 homes was out for approximately two hours during the night after a tree limb broke a 12,000-volt line at 1744 Novato Boulevard.

Novato police reported the limb fell across the line at 2:20 a.m. Power was cut to 125 homes, said Lee Wise, Novato manager of Pacific Gas and Electric Co. It was restored to all but 30 homes by shortly after 4 a.m., and to the last 30 by 8:30 a.m., he said.

At 9:24 p.m. yesterday the Novato Fire Department was called to 1748 Novato Boulevard—next door to where the later break occurred—after a tree limb fell and short-circuted electric wires there. It did not interrupt service, Wise said.

The City of Novato has hired Davy Tree Service of San Francisco to trim the big pine trees on Novato Boulevard.

Lawrence A. Coleman, city director of public works, said the limb which cut the power appeared sound but was rotten inside.

Rabid Skunks Appear To Be On The Rise

Rabid skunks were practically coming in pairs today.

Tests completed by the Marin County Health departed showed today a skunk killed in San Anselmo last week was rabid. Meanwhile tests were to begin on a skunk killed in Tiburon yesterday after it behaved in the crazed manner characteristic of rabies.

A week ago yesterday, Ted F. Lala of 38 Holstein Road, San Anselmo, killed a skunk at his home after the family dog charged the animal and it made no effort to escape or defend itself.

County Health Officer Carolyn B. Albrecht said the dog had been vaccinated against rabies, but it will be held under observation for two weeks as a precautionary measure.

The Tiburon skunk was reported by Mrs. William B. Newman of 841 Tiburon Boulevard, who saw the animal totter into her front yard and then lie flat on the lawn. A neighbor, Beatrice L. Breese, 835 Tiburon Boulevard, shot the skunk with a rifle.

Findings on the test of the Tiburon skunk will be announced next Wednesday. If it is rabid, it will be the 17th rabid skunk reported in Marin this year. That is well over the record for rabid skunks.

Dr. Albrecht reported that tests on a skunk shot by a San Rafael policeman Sunday at the George A. Alexander home at 312 Riviera Drive, San Rafael, proved negative today.

Art Sale Set For Johnson

An "art sale for President Johnson" will be set up this weekend in Sausalito during the Sausalito Art Festival.

Hugh T. McCann Jr., co-chairman of the special events committee for the Johnson campaign, announced the art booth will be located in an open lot adjacent to the Station antique shop at Bee Street and Bridgeway.

Michael Bry, Sausalito photographer, and Mrs. Anne Bardwell, Sausalito area co-chairman, set up the booth.

Revolution Is Seen For Reading, Writing

The teaching of reading and writing for primary school students is about to undergo a revolution similar to that which created "New Math," about 200 Marin County teachers were told today.

The magic word is "structure," which is going to receive new emphasis in the classroom, according to Thorsten R. Carlson, professcr of education at Sonoma State College.

He said researchers have discovered that pre-school children can talk in very complex and interesting sentences, when they are interested in the subject matter. Then they go to the first grade and are handed the "Run, Dick, Run" type of first reader. After awhile they are writing the same kind of sentences they find in the readers, rather than those they use in everyday speech.

Carlson, who is co-author of the state spelling textbook, said good writers are interested in the form and organization of their paragraphs and sentences. Poor writers are more interested in mechanics. The same may be true for teachers, he declared.

Carlson said the main problem in teaching spelling may be that there is little motivation to learn good spelling.

The need for discipline and drill has not been overcome by new methods and textbooks, he contended.

In general, the new emphasis, for which the first textbooks are being written, will be on the use of sentences with a new dexterity, he said.

His talk was the principal one at a Marin County Teachers' Institute at the Civic Center, mainly for teachers from rural school districts.

Stolen Watch Traced To Man In Custody

Theft of a $275 watch from the home of Dr. Sherman O. Wirt of 79 Walnut Avenue, Corte Madera, has been traced to a San Rafael man in custody in San Francisco on a narcotics charge.

Corte Madera Police Inspector Harold N. Hockett said today that William Newton Thater, 38, of 79 Woodland Avenue was taken into custody by San Francisco police two days ago after attempting to sell narcotics to undercover officers.

A police check revealed that Thater pawned the watch belonging to Mrs. Helen Calani, who lives at the same address as Wirt, on June 9 in San Francisco.

The watch was stolen May 29 shortly after Mrs. Calani and Wirt were taken into custody on charges of murdering a Virginia City, Nev., contractor.

County To Save On Roof Repair

Marin County will save some money after all on repair of the county Civic Center roof, the board of supervisors learned last night.

Architect Aaron Green of the Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation said his firm will pick up part of the tab, and one of the original sub-contractors on the building will also share the cost.

A bid for only part of the job this week was $12,985, far above the $10,000 estimate for that phase of the work.

That part, Green said, should be the county's cost, since it was for an additional covering of the roof which had not been called for originally.

The other problems concerned the leaky skylight and leaks where the expansion joints in the building met the skylight. The architects and the sub-contractor for the skylight will share costs for repairs there, Green said.

Attending Course

Navy Capt. Griswold L. Moeller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis N. Moeller of 348 North Almenar Drive, Greenbrae, is attending a 10-month course at the Industrial College of the Armed Forces, Washington, D.C., the nation's highest joint military educational institution teaching the management of logistic resources.

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

Good German Cooking Found In Downtown San Rafael

Good German cooking in a downtown San Rafael location is the specialty attraction of Bob and Meta Kringe at the new Black Forest Inn at 1315 Fourth Street. This place was formerly Coppa's Cafe and still has that sign on it. But some remodeling and a lot of repainting have been done. The counter is new and everything is neat and clean the way you'd like it to be in a German-type restaurant—or any other type, for that matter.

It's open every day except Sunday for breakfast, lunch and dinner—except, too, for Saturday when it closes about 5 p.m.

Lunches are already doing very well here, though it's been only about two weeks since the Kringes opened. Not much German fare on the lunch. That's the dinner specialty.

Sauerbraten, wiener, schnitzel, kasseler rippchen, pig knuckles, Schweizer bratwurst—these are some of the entrees. There are cold cuts, potato pancakes—and if you're lucky you may come along when there is something like apple fritters for dessert.

Now don't go and take a big crowd here—there just isn't that much room. Counter, stools and a few booths are its capacity. Poke your nose inside the door and if there's an empty table—grab it quick! Otherwise come back later and try again until you find one.

AT DOMINIC'S these days, manager Mario Brenta has what I guess you might call "food insurance" in the kitchen. Besides Lars Eric Benson, who is new day chef here, Karl Sheverman still heads the night staff de cuisine—and he now has with him as his assistant Earl Hummel, formerly of Tomahawk Lodge.

It's not surprising therefore to see that Dominic's continues to be filled with customers in spite of recently developed competition. I was especially struck by the number of young couples. And it's a good place to bring the youngsters, giving them that experience of eating out at a nice dinery and sharpening their manners.

Food is wholesome and well prepared. Prices of many dinners are in the medium bracket.

Weekends are well attended by out of town customers—who arrive by auto as well as by boat.

Banquet holders this fall will find the upstairs Gourmet Room, now under construction, viewsome and just about right for the average size party — from 50 to 120 persons.

The Musee d'Art International downstairs will continue to be used for larger gatherings. Just the right capacity, for instance, for College of Marin alumni who will gather there for a dinner dance a week from tomorrow night. About 200 to 250 are expected. Incidentally, all former College of Marin students are invited to participate in this ($12 per couple). Send checks to College of Marin Alumni Assn., Kentfield.

NOT TO BE OUTDONE by her husband, Armand, who is manager at Bob's of Marin, Mrs. Nancy T. Allegra has opened her own enterprise — Skipper's Coffee Shop, at 1696 Tiburon Boulevard, Tiburon.

It seats about 25, has a soda fountain and specializes in home made sausages and Italian-type meat sandwiches. Open Tuesdays through Sundays from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Closed on Mondays.

HENRY, ubiquitous black bantam rooster at Franchini's Chateau, may not be so easily spotted guarding the doorway these days. If you have to look harder to find him, it's likely he'll be with his bride—a small, black and white Plymouth Rock of undeniable "poulchritude" and known to the Franchini staff as Hilda. They claim this is close as they can get to the sound of Henry's favorite term of endearment in addressing her.

Franchini's, by the way, will be closed Monday—Labor Day.

MAN OF TWO HATS is Jerry Boccignone at the new Redwood Club in the Kaehler - Farrar Building, San Rafael. At 7 a.m. he's in the kitchen wearing a chef's hat and setting up the food department for the day. Just when there's a shift of chapeaux, I'm not sure, but by evening he's the suave maitre d', greeting the customers.

Marin Dining And Wining

PIERRE GRIGAUT of La Petite Auberge, who returned a couple of weeks ago with his family from a vacation trip to France, is disillusioned.

After 20 years absence, and in spite of his accent, apparently a few changes have taken place in Pierre — or maybe it's France that has changed. Either way, it seems he wasn't looked upon as a native Frenchman—but as an American tourist. Ask him to tell you about it.

DOES OUTSIDE CATERING. Christine Bolton of Cloud 5, Novato tells me this place is well equipped to handle large outside serving jobs. The liquor license is also adaptable to serving groups off premises.

MR. K. in downtown San Rafael has started serving dinners —roast sirloin of beef, veal cutlets, chicken fried steak, seafoods and other items. Prices run $1.35 to $1.85 and there's a child's plate. Service starts at 4 p.m. and lasts until 9 p.m. There are a few booths here now.

NOW OPEN TUESDAYS. Gregory's Restaurant on Paradise Drive, Corte Madera, has added another day to its serving schedule for lunches and dinners. Still closed on Mondays.

SOME NEW PICTURES are being shown at Sabella's—right inside the doorway between dining room and foyer. Several Spanish artists are represented.

LE CHALET BASQUE in Santa Venetia isn't able to accept reservations by telephone for Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights—except for large groups of around eight people. In such cases Raymond Coscarat likes to know in advance the time of arrival so he can work out table arrangements for seating as quickly as possible. Smaller groups should not have to wait too long.

FRANK GALLI has a new slogan (with apologies to Teacher's Scotch): "No water improves the flavor of Scotch like Ignacio water."

Hearing Set On Open Burning For Farmers

Bay Area Air Pollution Control District will hold a public hearing Oct. 7 at 11 a.m. at its office at 1480 Market Street, San Francisco on extension of an agricultural exception to its regulation limiting open burning.

Marin County Farm Bureau directors will meet Monday night to decide whether to send a representative to the meeting.

The exception, which allows farmers to burn large areas for control of brush area or trash disposal, expires Nov. 1, said Thomas F. Brennan, enforcement division senior engineer.

Loss of the exception would force farmers to haul trash to a dumping area, said Brennan. He said the district staff will recommend the exception be continued for two years.

Prisoner Acquitted In Stabbing

Leonard G. Golledge, 24-year-old San Quentin Prison inmate who twice won mistrials on a charge of stabbing a fellow prisoner, yesterday was acquitted by a third Marin Superior Court jury.

The panel returned at 2:10 p.m. after three hours deliberation.

Golledge was accused of stabbing Paul F. Weeks, 31, with a 12-inch metal rod last Sept. 24. Weeks, serving time for lewd and lascivious conduct from Los Angeles County, testified he was in the prison gymnasium, with a weight barbell held high over his head, when he was first stabbed in the neck.

He said he lowered the weight quickly but was struck again, twice in the back, once in the chest, and another time in the left arm.

Both previous trials for Golledge, serving six months to 15 years on a burglary conviction, ended in hung juries, and mistrials were declared.

Peter Allen Smith, public defender, represented Golledge in the latest trial. W. L. Mackey, deputy district attorney, prosecuted.

Mill Valley Chamber Is Presented Plaque

A plaque was presented to the Mill Valley Chamber of Commerce by the Mill Valley Teachers Assn. yesterday at the seventh annual welcome to Mill Valley teachers held at Sabella's Restaurant.

The plaque, which reads, "In appreciation for their support and loyalty through the years in our common goal for better schools," was presented to Edward C. Saunders, chamber president, by Andrew Gillespie, president of the association. The event is sponsored by the chamber.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

Public Foots Cost Of Featherbedding

The make-work union contract provisions fastened onto our nation's railroads have been scandalous for a generation or more.

A government regulated public utility like a railroad seems an especially fertile field for the nurturing of make-work practices.

Railroad freight rates and passenger fares are fixed by regulatory bodies. They are based in large part on costs.

When make-work practices are instituted and expanded, costs go up. Freight rates and fares must be raised.

And the public foots the bill. You may not pay a freight bill directly, or buy a railroad ticket very often. But when you buy a refrigerator, or an automobile, or almost anything else not manufactured right here in Marin, the price you pay includes the freight cost. Even if you buy an automobile assembled in Alameda County 'cross the bay, the price you pay includes the cost of shipping the materials out from the East.

There is no escape. The public pays for make-work practices on the railroads.

Why doesn't railroad management demand an end to featherbedding?

Because railroads are a public utility, there is great pressure to settle their collective bargaining disputes without strikes. This leads to arbitration by politicians.

The unions have the votes; the management has few votes. Arbitration by politicians results in the unions getting all the best of it—with featherbedding thrown in for good measure.

But the public has become aroused. Arbiters have to face a third force, the public.

So arbitration in the past several years has gone against many featherbedding practices.

The results of this enlightened arbitration is being denied to us here in California. We are still cursed by an obsolete "full crew" law.

This is what Prop. 17 on the November ballot is all about. A YES vote on Prop. 17 would amend the ancient and obsolete "full crew" law and clear the way for application of the enlightened arbitration results to California railroad operation.

Would there be serious layoffs?

It is hard to see where there would be with railroad job opportunities what they are. The Northwestern Pacific, for instance, has hired 13 brakemen, clerks and telegraphers since Jan. 1. These hirings would more than offset layoffs, if any.

Is safety involved? The arbiters could find no detriment to safety. The railroads, being government-regulated, still would be required to provide every reasonable safety precaution.

It's time we all stood up for count on the question of featherbedding.

If you are against featherbedding, vote YES on Prop. 17.

The Back To School Blues

With the first tang of autumn in the Marin air and all the stores featuring back-to-school sales, a bitter-sweet melancholy stirs the spirit.

For most of us, vacation is over. The loveliness of our fall season is still ahead of us, but beyond appear the chill, wet days of winter and the end of outdoor living.

Most children are ambivalent about returning to school. Inwardly, they cannot make up their minds whether they like the return to discipline of the classroom. But all children enjoy the feeling of accomplishment that goes with learning.

But their days of freedom are over after Labor Day and all America buckles down to work a little bit harder.

MARIN POLITICAL VIEWS

Registration Deadline Nears; Barry Is 'Seen' In San Rafael

By WAT TAKESHITA

HERE'S ANOTHER reminder. If you aren't registered as a voter for the Nov. 3 elections, your last chance is on Sept. 10.

You saw Barry Goldwater walking in and out of the Melvin Marlowe Realty office in San Rafael? Well, no need to get excited.

TAKESHITA

There's a fellow working there by the name of Dal Bon who looks like the GOP presidential nominee.

SPEAKING OF resemblances, don't you think Hugh Haegelin of the county clerk's office looks something like Gov. George Romney of Michigan. And there's a striking resemblance between Carroll Snyker of the Marin Development Foundation and French Foreign Minister Couve de Murville, who was featured on a national magazine recently.

After all this fuss about the "500 new residents" at the Synanon Foundation property at Marconi, they probably won't get here in time to vote in the West Marin election of Nov. 3. Shucks!

IS THERE any truth to the rumor that Mrs. Don Bradley of Ross is not going to participate in Marin politics hereafter?

Let's hope she at least takes part in some of these political fashion shows. The last time we saw her, she was one of the star performers.

Some of the officials at the Terra Linda headquarters of Citizens for Goldwater-Miller appeared privately peeved, when the office formally opened last week. Not one member of the Republican Central Committee showed up to give them an official sendoff.

THEY'RE SUGGESTING a new slogan to go with, "All the way with LBJ." It goes something like: "Let's all stump for Hubert Humpf."

Everybody is getting into the act of trying to get a more lucid definition of extremism and moderation.

The latest one, making the courthouse rounds, seems more loose than lucid. But it goes like this:

"In the pursuit of virtue, extremism is moderate. But in the pursuit of sin, even moderation is too extreme."

Latest report out of West Marin is that James Dougan of Bolinas is actively campaigning in the Bolinas-Stinson area for the re-election of Supervisor George Ludy.

Panelist Charges Distorted Reporting

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The August 27, issue of the Independent - Journal contains an article describing some of the discussion aired that morning on the KTIM "Marin Sounding Board" in which the possibility of interdistrict transfer of students between Marin City and Mill Valley was considered.

Statements were attributed to me and inferences drawn, the inaccuracy of which should be noted and corrected. It was stated that, "Trustee Wolfe took the opportunity to express 'disappointment at the board's approach to the problem', and blasted two of his colleagues elected to the board two years ago, 'who reflected', he said, 'community opinion'."

I have carefully listened to the Sunday, August 30, rebroadcast of that program and have reassured myself that your reporter, by use of the word "blasted", completely distorted and reversed the intent of my remarks. Although I did express disappointment in the board majority's attitudes towards racial imbalance in the Sausalito district, nothing in my words or manner could be contrued as "blasting" my colleagues. I carefully indicated that the school election two years ago had as its principal issue the question of continuing "status quo" neighborhood school policies and the two candidates who supported neighborhood schools won overwhelmingly. My reply to the loaded question "How much longer is the Sausalito Board of Trustees going to stall?", was intended to show that certain board members were not stalling but rather proceding along lines they considered reflected the desires of their constituents.

I assume your purpose in publishing that and similar articles is to accurately inform and educate your readers about important local issue; therefore, I respectfully request that you print this letter along with your confirmation of my version of the statements at issue.

Column Statement Termed 'Misleading'

Editor, Independent-Journal:

In regard to Phil Fradkin's column on Synanon House in your August 27 issue, I quote a rather misleading statement:

"Whites, Negroes, Jews, gentiles and men and women — — — — —."

Miracle Mile 'Poet' Speaks Out Again

Editor, Independent-Journal:

On the date 8/12/64 the Independent Journal surpassed its own excellency. It will go on the file of the writer.

It deals with teenagers, anti-rat drives, unions that cut their own throat, the pig that went to market, etc, etc.

In future issue, with great anticipation we are looking for an explanation of what became of Mary's little lamb, please Mr. Editor let us know!

It has been said that teenagers could be our greatest asset to prevent our world going to the dogs, (the dogs that have no use for it).

The Editor mentions that the child has (sic) become a little demon.

Napoleon's mother could spank her little pigheaded son till he was 17. Maybe his daddy, if he held the difficult office of being the head of the house, could do likewise till the great budding Napoleon would be 19.

After that ? ? ?

We now have some wonderful supermarkets the doors of which fly open even before we say "Open Sesame!" But we never were able to meet the little pig then, how disappointing!

However now (Eureka) our Editor in afore - mentioned number has a picture of him. He has grown quite big and is able to pull a little car with kids to the market.

Is it not wonderful ! ! !

IN THE BRONX, a budding young authoress triumphantly brought home a signed contract covering publication of her first novel by a major outfit. She also brought a bottle of champagne for a family celebration. She had barely popped the cork when her mother ran to the telephone and summoned the doctor. "You had better come quick," ordered mama. "Sadie's got us drinking shampoo."

IN THE DAYS when streetcars were the principal means of transportation in the nation's capitol, a distinguished senator got a bit mixed up when heading for the Senate underground parking section and drove instead into the streetcar tunnel under the capitol. Suddenly he saw a streetcar heading straight for him. He jumped out of his car, shook his fist angrily at the motorman, and bellowed, "Suh, how dare you drive that trolley car into the U. S. Senate garage?"

QUOTABLE: "No one can have lived in the world without observing that most people, when in prosperity, are so overbrimming with wisdom that they take every offer of advice as a personal insult, whereas in adversity they know not where to turn, but beg and pray for counsel from every passer-by.—Spinoza.

Politicians Trying To Undo Court Ruling On Districts

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court, which has moved into vacuums Congress would not fill, is getting its own particular kind of backlash from politicians.

In a struggle now over curbing the court's powers, members of Congress have themselves so boxed in they may be here another month although they could use the time in election campaigning.

An attempt is being made to undo the court's ruling last June that voters in the states are entitled to far more equal representation in their state legislatures than they are getting now.

THE COURT said representation in both houses of state legislatures must be apportioned on a population basis of "one person, one vote," and federal courts have the job to see it's done.

The politicians and political machines which hold power in state legislatures where representation is not on an equal population basis naturally do not want any changes that would cost them jobs or power.

Some people, not directly involved, may feel the court overreached itself. But the Republicans at their convention this year responded to the opposition to the court ruling by putting into their platform a promise in support of: "A constitutional amendment, as well as legislation, enabling states having bi-cameral two-house legislatures to apportion one house on bases of their own choosing, including factors other than population."

THIS WOULD take away the court's power to order reapportionment of both houses on a population basis.

A week after the Republican convention in July, Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, Republican leader of the Senate, attempted to carry out the platform promise by introducing a proposed constitutional amendment in Congress.

But there wouldn't be time to act on it this year, since Congress is coming to an end. It would have to wait till next year. So as an interim move Dirksen made this proposal in the form of a bill to be passed this year: Delay any court orders on reapportionment for about two years.

He didn't offer it as a bill by itself — he said he didn't think it had a chance that way —but as an amendment on the 3.5-billion-dollar foreign aid authorization bill.

President Lyndon B. Johnson is anxious to get the foreign aid money. If he vetoed the bill because of the attached Dirksen amendment, the whole thing would have to go back to Congress. He very probably wouldn't veto it. That's Dirksen's strategy.

FOR SOME strange reason, although the value of people's votes are involved in all this, Johnson has said nothing, taken no stand. The Democrats in their platform played mousey by leaving out all mention of reapportionment.

Mike Mansfield of Montana, Democratic leader in the Senate, worked out a compromise bill with Dirksen, just a little milder, and with the help of the Johnson administration's Justice Department.

But some members of the Senate — particularly liberals led by Sen. Paul Douglas, a Democrat and, like Dirksen, from Illinois — wouldn't buy any part of it and are determined to fight until they kill it.

The two-year delaying action in the Dirksen bill would give Congress time to approve the kind of constitutional amendment he has in mind and then perhaps time for the states to approve.

A CONSTITUTIONAL amendment must be approved by two-thirds of House and Senate and by three-fourths of the state legislatures—38 out of 50 —or conventions called by the states. It is up to Congress to decide which method is to be used.

Only once in American history—this was the 21st Amendment ending prohibition in 1933 —has an amendment submitted to the states by Congress been approved by state conventions.

If Dirksen's amendment went to state legislatures it's not hard to imagine the politicians who stood to lose jobs or power by reapportionment would jump at the chance to approve the amendment.

U.S. Downgrading Vietnam Military

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — President Lyndon B. Johnson and his chief foreign policy advisers are launching the most alarming and questionable venture in South Vietnam since the U. S. covertly supported the ouster of the late President Diem.

And this Johnson policy could easily turn out to be even more disastrous to U. S. prestige.

Under a "package" plan designed to clear the way for a "political settlement" of the bloody guerrilla war, Ambassador Maxwell G. Taylor and U. Alexis Johnson, his deputy, are supporting the downgrading of the Vietnamese military's role in the Saigon government.

THESE DIPLOMATS are backing acting Premier Nguyen Xuan Oanh's replacement of Vietnamese military officers in key political posts with civilians, including socialists and persons favoring neutralization of that strife - torn country.

According to a private warning sent congressional leaders by a high-level U. S. military adviser in Saigon, the ouster of these military officers will result in the destruction of the South Vietnam army's influence in government in the same way that the Saigon special security force was made ineffective after the ouster and assassination of Diem.

After the toppling of the Diem regime, his special police force, which kept law and order in Saigon, was disbanded with the State Department's blessing and its officers either dismissed or transferred to army units outside of the capital.

THE LACK OF AN effective internal police force in Saigon last week paved the way for Communist-instigated mobs to create near anarchy in that city until the army was permitted to use its crack paratroopers to end the rioting.

If Oanh is permitted to eliminate the military's overwhelming influence in the Saigon government, the U. S. military adviser charges, the way will be open for neutralists and socialists to form a coalition government to seek "unity" with Communist-ruled North Vietnam. Should that happen, the Communists would take over South Vietnam in a matter of weeks.

The destruction of a country's internal security force and the neutralization of its military forces are the first objectives in a Communist takeover of a nation. Already, one of these has occurred in South Vietnam.

THE PROPOSAL to have Oanh, a Harvard-trained economist, set up a civilian government in Saigon was drafted in the State Department by Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Deputy Secretary Averell Harriman, Assistant Secretary Llewellyn Thompson and Assistant Secretary William Bundy.

They ordered the installing of "progressive" civilian politicians in key government positions held by military officers that are known to oppose a political settlement of the war in South Vietnam. All officers advocating an extension of the war into North Vietnam are to be shifted immediately.

Since the U. S. can cut off its aid, as the Kennedy administration did to Diem, the Vietnamese military leaders, despite their alarm over the new policy, have told their U. S. military advisers that they have no choice but to go along. They are hoping that once the Johnson plan becomes public Congress will act before it is too late or the policy will be changed by the election of a new administration in Washington.

Marinites Will Learn About Override Taxes The Hard Way

THE STATE LEGISLATURE went ape this spring on the questions of override school taxes, and the taxpayer in certain parts of Marin County will soon learn about them the hard way.

At this time last year there were 16 ways a school district could add to taxes above the maximum rate. Now there are 28 ways. In the vast majority of cases, there is no limit to the override taxes.

A school district has a maximum tax rate set by law, but the rate may go higher if the voters in the district approve a higher maximum tax rate. But in certain cases it may go higher even if the voters refuse to allow the higher maximum rate.

THESE LITTLE EXTRAS, called overrides, are used by all districts in the county to some extent, although some of the possible overrides are not used by any district.

Among the old overrides, which have been in effect for some time, are provisions for payment of Social Security and retirement benefits of teachers, used by almost all districts, and payment for community services, a special override with a five-cent limit.

There is an override to allow installation of fire sprinklers and another to help support child care centers.

Among the new ones are provisions for a levy of up to 10 cents per $100 assessed valuation for adult education, a special levy for employee health and welfare benefits and an unlimited levy for extra costs of teaching seventh and eighth graders.

THE SPECIAL SEVENTH and eighth grade levy has drawn the most fire and only two districts this year have decided to use it. Larkspur is levying about 20 cents and the Reed Union School District is taxing about 51 cents, according to the county schools office.

These two districts had the biggest tax increases, over all, this year, and now have the highest tax rates of any elementary districts. The highest tax bills in the county are being sent to homes in these two school districts, largely because of the school taxes.

This tax is allowed after the district can prove that operation of classes in these two years costs more than the lower grades. County schools office business manager George L. S. Emmons and Asst. County Auditor-Controller George Donaldson checked the figures from the two districts and could find nothing legally wrong with the levies approved by the school boards.

OTHER DISTRICTS also undoubtedly spend more money each year on their seventh and eighth grades, but have chosen, so far, to use the general tax funds to meet the bills.

The new override for health and welfare benefits seems to be a sleeper, although Reed is using that one also. Under this provision, the district may levy any tax the trustees can get away with for the fringe benefits of district employees, both teachers and non-teachers.

This levy is in addition to special overrides for retirement and Social Security. It is aimed at aid for health and other insurance benefits.

The obvious use of such a special tax would be in a district where voters have turned down a general tax increase but the district board wants to increase salaries.

By putting the fringe benefits on the override, the salaries can be raised, since more general tax money will be available. The fringe benefits might even by increased at the same time.

Vietnam Policy Changes Faster Than You Can Say Cabot Lodge

WASHINGTON — Probably the man who has the toughest job in the world at the moment is Henry Cabot Lodge, who has been traveling around the world at the request of President Lyndon B. Johnson, explaining our Vietnam policies to heads of state. It's a lonely job and a perilous one.

Although we haven't attended any of the briefings, we can just imagine what is going on as Ambassador Lodge is presenting his case, let us say, to the King of Denmark.

"NOW, SIR, let me say at the outset that the United States has the situation in Vietnam well in hand. Under the firm leadership of Gen. Nguyen Khanh many new reforms have been instituted."

As Ambassador Lodge is speaking, a courier from the American Embassy rushes in and gives him a telegram. The Ambassador reads it.

"Well, as I was saying, General Khanh has been dividing the country, and the United States feels he can no longer control the various factions. It is our belief that the best solution to the problem would be to support a general who has the confidence of the people."

The phone rings and the King hands it to Ambassador Lodge.

"YES, I SEE, sir. Right, sir. I understand. Of course. Thank you."

He hangs up the phone and continues:

"You see, Your Majesty, our experts believe the best solution to the problem would be to have a three-man military junta govern until we can have elections. We feel General Khanh has been a handicap and we intend to support General Minh, whom General Khanh had disposed of several months ago with our help. Our strategy is to send the South Vietnamese army out into the field to fight the Viet Cong on their own terms."

An aide whispers something in Ambassador Lodge's ear. He nods and says, "Because of the rioting in Saigon our strategy has been flexible and we are now urging the South Vietnamese forces to return to Saigon to prevent the breakdown of law and order. We feel this can best be done with General Minh in command of the—"

Another messenger from the American Embassy dashes in and hands Mr. Lodge a cable.

"THEREFORE, in line with what our people have worked out, we are happy to announce that Dr. Nguyen Xuan Oanh is now in charge of the Saigon government. Dr. Oanh is a Harvard-educated economist and gets along very well with Ambassador Maxwell Taylor. General Khanh is now in Dalat resting up from a physical and mental breakdown."

The phone rings again and Ambassador Lodge answers it. "Thank you very much. That's very interesting.

"I want you to understand, Your Majesty, we have not ruled out General Khanh's contribution to our effort in Vietnam. We have decided that in spite of everything he still holds the title of premier and we have every intention at this time of supporting his government."

The Ambassador's secretary hands him another paper.

"As you have probably read, the main problem in Vietnam is the friction between the Catholics and the Buddhists. Realizing this, the Americans have a plan to prevent rioting between the two factions."

The secretary hands him another paper.

"BUT WE FEEL at the same time that some rioting would have a good effect and therefore we've authorized the riots now going on throughout the country.

"Our main objective, of course, is to win the war, but we realize that this cannot be done until there is a stable government in Vietnam. We feel we have such a government with Dr. Oanh and—"

The phone rings again and Ambassador Lodge answers it wearily. "Yes, sir. Whom did you say? Madame Nhu? Thank you."

He turns back to the King. "Well, where was I?"

Bridge Detectives Should Learn How To Solve Crime

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Bridge detectives are urged to don their deerstalker caps and polish up their magnifying glasses.

The clues to a horrible bridge crime—or possibly, a mishap—are contained in the following account.

WEST ♠ 5 4 ♡ 10 8 4 2 ◇ Q 7 3 ♣ 6 5 3 2		EAST ♠ 6 3 ♡ A K J 6 ◇ 10 8 5 2 ♣ K 8 7
	SOUTH ♠ A K J 8 7 ♡ 7 3 ◇ K J 9 ♣ Q J 10

North	East	South	West
Pass	Pass	1 ♠	Pass
3 ♠	Pass	4 ♠	All Pass

Opening lead — ♡ 2

East won the first trick with the jack of hearts and continued with the king and ace. South ruffed the third heart, drew two rounds of trumps, and lost the club finesse to the king.

RETURNS CLUB

East returned a club, and declarer led a diamond to the ace and returned a diamond to finesse with the jack. West's queen of diamonds took the setting trick.

Was South a criminal, or was it just a case of misleading circumstantial evidence? Decide for yourself before you read on.

You're right if you say that South was a criminal. He should make the contract. But you can't claim credit for solving the mystery unless you can say how South should know.

COMPULSORY BID

By the time South got around to playing the dimonds he knew that East's original hand contained the A-K-J of hearts, the king of clubs, and the only two spades.

This came to 11 points in high cards and 1 point for the doubleton.

If East also held the queen of diamonds, his count would have been 14 points, enough for a "compulsory" opening bid. But East passed. Therefore he could not hold the queen of diamonds.

WEST HAND

With the queen of diamonds thus marked in the West hand, South had only one chance—to find the ten of diamonds in the East hand. (West could not have the doubleton Q-10 of diamonds because the play marked him with at least three diamonds.)

The correct play under these circumstances is to begin with the jack of diamonds from the South hand. West must cover (otherwise South lets the jack ride), and dummy's ace wins.

Now declarer leads a diamond from dummy to win a finesse with the nine of diamonds.

QUESTION

Dealer, at your right, opens with one spade.

You hold:
♠ A K J 8 7
♥ 7 3
♦ K J 9
♣ Q J 10

What do you say?

Answer: Pass.

The bid is probably quite legitimate, and you should be grateful for the warning. Give the opponents enough rope to hang themselves.

MAP FINAL FESTIVAL EVENTS

Actress Mae Clark (left), actors' repertory director of newly formed Stinson Beach Arts Foundation, and Eleanor Kent, fine arts director, discuss final events of week-long Stinson Beach benefit festival for the foundation. Closing events, at Stinson Beach Community Center, will be piano recital by Emilio Osta at 8:40 p.m. today, puppet plays by Liliputian Players at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow, and Jane Nicols in "Musicals in Miniature" at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Annexation Might Ease Freeway Threat

The threat of a six-lane freeway through Tamalpais Valley still exists, but might be removed or lessened if the area annexed to Mill Valley, Mayor Michael Wornum told the Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club last night.

Fifty-three persons were on hand for Wornum's talk, reported Mrs. Midge Hamburg, club president.

The Mill Valley mayor said the State Division of Highways still has its eye on running a freeway from San Francisco to the coast. If Tamalpais Valley were part of Mill Valley, it would not be so likely the highway would be cut through, he contended.

Better planning, police protection and library service were listed as other advantages of annexation by Wornum. One disadvantage, he said, is that it might cost each homeowner about $30 or $35 more a year in taxes. He said he "picked this figure out of the air" since the cost is not known.

Wornum said he would like to see the annexation come about but added it would have to come from the residents of the area and have a vote of the people.

The improvement club, which has heard a talk on incorporation and now annexation, will next hear a talk on remaining an unincorporated area. Some representative of either Loma Verde or Castro Valley, both unincorporated areas, will speak to the club, said Mrs. Hamburg.

The series of meetings are designed to educate club members, she said, "because it is felt that in the future we will have to make a decision one way or another."

Jack Ring, assistant director of the Coyote Creek flood control project, told the audience that the project now under construction will be finished by mid-December. He said the Division of Highways is concerned with beautifying the area when work is completed. Mrs. Hamburg said the club agreed to write a letter asking that this work be done.

Cost is about $2,000 to clean out the ditch, Ring explained, which will probably have to be done once every three years, The taxpayers, through the county, would pay for this.

Karl Zipf was named vice president of the club, succeeding Mrs. Hamburg, who became president when president Daniel C. Mulcahey moved from the area. Resignation of Jack Jones, treasurer, was accepted. Jones is moving to Homestead Valley.

The club agreed to give the Methodist Community Church, where meetings are now held, $5 for use of the hall.

Clausen Votes For Fish Bill

Rep. Don H. Clausen (R-Crescent City) today said he supported and took part in the House debate that resulted in passage of a bill to restore the salmon, steelhead and striped bass fishery.

The measure passed the House on a voice vote Tuesday and was sent to the Senate.

Clausen also joined in paying tribute to the late Clem Miller, Clausen's predecessor, for his early work on the legislation in previous sessions of Congress.

The measure authorizes a 25-million-dollar, five-year program of federal matching funds in cooperation with the states to build fish-ladders, fish hatcheries and other devices.

EDINBURGH, Scotland (AP) — Scotland opens today one of the world's largest single-span suspension bridges, one and one-half miles, four-lane highway across the Firth of Forth.

Sanitation Aide Seeking Write-In Vote

Robert A. Sterling, secretary of the Tiburon Sanitary District, today bid for re-election to the district board by write-in vote in Tuesday's election.

Sterling said his decision to be a candidate was made after he read an advertisement in last night's Ebb Tide, Tiburon weekly newspaper, signed by three candidates.

The advertisement says the Tiburon Sanitary District has "one of the highest sanitary district tax rates" and that "improvement is possible—and with a more efficient plant besides." It is signed by candidates Fred Mantegani, John P. Eichcorn and Angelo Mirata.

"I was hoping to retire this time if they'd kept this thing clean," Sterling said. He has been on the sanitary district board for 13 years.

"If this group is going to misrepresent things, you can't trust them with the plant."

(County records show that the 52-cent Tiburon district operating rate is in fourth place among 10 sanitary districts in Marin with various sized areas and populations which operate with tax rates rather than with service fees. The range is from a top 87 cents per $100 assessed valuation to a low of 15 cents.)

Sterling said "Old Tiburon has not paid one cent" for construction of the new treatment plant. He said the plant is being paid for by newly developed areas approximately between Vistazo West and Tiburon Boulevard and by the City of Belvedere, from which sewage is treated under contract with the district.

"I'm going to make a determined effort for a write-in vote," Sterling said.

Other candidates for the election, with polls to be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. at the district plant, are Victor C. Banks, Edward Goliti Jr., Bruce S. Jacobs, John V. (Jack) Murray, and Francis J. Ryan.

Driver Fined $166

Bessie Irene Werner, 32, of Morro Bay, San Luis Obispo County, was fined $166 yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving. She was arrested Aug. 27 on Eucalyptus Avenue in Novato.

THIS POOCH HEADED FOR DOGHOUSE

An ordinary dog stole a political hot dog yesterday in broad daylight from the display window of the Redhill Liquor Store in Mill Valley, owner S. J. Weil said today.

"I was standing outside the door," said Weil, "when the telephone rang. I went to answer it and when I came back a canine was in the display window eating the hot dog and bun."

Weil gave chase to the hungry thief, which he described as a "lean, light tan dog of mixed breed," but did not get the return of his hot dog.

The hot dog was in a Goldwater display originated by Weil for his store at 67 Throckmorton Avenue.

Rights Group Can't Act

For the second successive month, the Marin county human rights commission had no quorum last night for its regular meeting.

It therefore found itself unable to pass a resolution in opposition to Proposition 14, the initiative measure against the Rumford Fair Housing Act.

Those present heard a report from Kenneth Hickle, public social services department employment specialist and work-training supervisor, on chances of using money from the federal war on poverty program.

Commission president James Quiett and James Smith of the Marin County Labor Council were asked to appear at the board of supervisors hearing Oct. 6 to speak in favor of retaining county contract penalty provisions for discrimination in hiring.

Nurses Training Bill Is Signed

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Lyndon B. Johnson signed today a bill to give federal aid to nursing training, calling it "truly a notable achievement towards raising standards of health care in the United States."

The act provides a five-year program totaling 287.6 million dollars in federal aid for nurses training.

WHATTIBURON NEEDS

Money, Support For Planning

A specialist in planning last night told what is needed—citizen support and money—for a city such as Tiburon to retain its natural beauties.

L. H. McVicar, director of community recreations for Fremont, Alameda County, spoke to only about 20 persons at Del Mar School at a meeting which had been aimed at gaining wider resident interest in planning for the newly incorporated city.

Drawing on his experience in Fremont, McVicar said citizen participation is essential so the city's goals will be defined by the residents themselves, who then will back the city decisions which follow.

McVicar is a lecturer at the University of California and a consultant to the United Nations department of planning.

Citizens must decide "what sort of city they're going to have in the long-term pull," he said.

"The planning program is the single most important thing you can do for a city at this stage. The physical development of your city will affect your budget in the future."

McVicar admitted that citizen committees are not all "peaches and cream." There are "arguments, resignations, replacements," on committees since they are a "forum where they can disagree with each other."

Citizens should look into what the city can afford or its citizens are willing to pay, and should check federal funds available so realistic plans can be made, the planner said.

"You can't have something delightful unless you're willing to pay for it.

"If you want something different, you can have it; if you want something mediocre, you can have it.

Other McVicar opinions related to Tiburon:

Traffic—"It's one of your most distressing problems; it's destroying the very environment you have here."

High-Rise Apartments—High-rise buildings are not necessarily bad. A developer might be required to give public easement to the waterfront in return for permission to construct a tall building.

Bay Fill—McVicar favors a moratorium on all bay filling until a master plan, such as that now being worked out by the Assn. of Bay Area Government, is completed.

Hills—Cluster development allowing relatively high density in a small area if a larger portion of the developer's land is kept open could allow the hills to remain more natural.

Parks—Requiring gifts of land for neighborhood parks from large developers in return for about two feet smaller side yard is a gain for the city and residents. Park grading can be done by the developer while he is constructing homes; the city maintains the park.

"The developer doesn't have a sacred right . . . he should give something to get," said McVicar.

Civic Center—It should be in the "downtown area; an integral part of your downtown shopping center.

"You have to make land (purchase) decisions very early in your city's life or it's going to cost you a fantastic amount of money later."

Houses vs. Apartments — A "life cycle neighborhood" allows a full range of housing from single-person apartments for the young bachelor to larger apartments and homes for the growing family and later apartments for older persons so they are not "relegated to 'leisure worlds'."

Auto Accidents Costly For U.S.

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — Americans start their last long weekend of the summer this evening with the year already apparently headed for disaster records on the highways.

The toll in lives, injuries, and dollars mounts most years. But 1964 has been setting records in deaths as a percentage of vehicle miles traveled, as a percentage of population, and of the total number of vehicles.

The dollar loss to motorists and property owners is now reckoned in the billions. Some of these dollars swell the annual receipts of those who repair human bodies, or cars, or buildings and other construction — but such dollar receipts aren't sought. And the financial loss to thousands of families damages many other industries whose goods thus can't find as big a market.

Auto accidents as percentage of miles driven are estimated to have risen 20 per cent in the early months of this year. There were 5 4 accidents for each 100,000 vehicle miles.

July saw a record set in the number of fatalities. Warnings of the accident hazard this coming weekend are being issued by national and local safety officials. Weather conditions across the nation this weekend can either invite accidents by luring more motorists onto the roads or cause accidents by making driving dangerous.

The economic loss for 1963 is estimated at 10.3 billion dollars, up 500 million dollars from 1962. Last year's toll is divided thus: 7.7 billion dollars in property damage, medical and funeral costs, wage losses, and the overhead cost of insurance; and 2.6 billion dollars in property destruction.

The Insurance Information Institute reports 19 million cars in 11 million accidents, involving 3.5 billion dollars of insurance in 1962, the last year for which information is available.

The National Safety Council records 43,600 deaths in 1963, up 7 per cent from 1962, and compared with 37,955 deaths reported by the U.S. Bureau of Census in 1953.

Injuries last year are put at 3,460,000 by the Travelers Insurance companies, with 1,600,000 of them disabling. Ten years earlier the toll was 2,140,000 injuries.

Projection of the accident rate by the Kemper Insurance group for the years of 1963 through 1972 estimates 220 million cars will be involved in 130 million accidents, for a toll of 425,000 deaths, 37,500,000 injuries and a total cost of 100 billion dollars to the economy.

The American Seat Belt Council says a study of 10,000 accidents shows serious injuries can be reduced more than one-third with the use of proper seat belts. It reports that 22 states and the District of Columbia have passed laws requiring new cars to have such belts in the front seat.

But all agree that the real measure of safety—and the reduction of human and economic losses—still remains right where it did—with the driver.

Sears, Roebuck Set Sales Record

CHICAGO — Sears, Roebuck and Co.'s record August sales were 9 per cent higher than last year, and the seven month volume established a company record, it has been reported by Austin T. Cushman, chairman of the board, and Crowdus Baker, president.

Gross sales in August were $529,289,050, an increase of $43,647,860 over sales of $483,641,190 in August 1963. This increase was achieved despite the fact that the month had one less shopping day than a year ago.

Sears volume for the seven months ended Aug. 31 topped three billion dollars for the first time in the company's 78 year history. The total was $3,308,610,295, which represented an increase of $360,060,226 or 12.2 per cent over sales of $2,948,550,069 in the same period of 1963.

Olds Reports Tops In Sales

LANSING, Mich.—Oldsmobile dealers reported the best August sales performance in nine years, it has been announced by the division's general sales manager, Emmett P. Feely.

"Our dealers," said Feely, "delivered 37,361 new Oldsmobiles during the month, an increase of more than 20 per cent over the corresponding period a year ago."

Feely said sales for the final 10 days in August were 12,800 units, including 4,116 F-85's and 8,684 full size models.

Foremost Dairies Declares Dividend

SAN FRANCISCO—The board of directors of Foremost Dairies, Inc., has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 10 cents per share on the company's common stock payable Oct. 1 to stockholders of record on Sept. 15.

The board of directors also declared the regular quarterly dividend of 56¼ cents per share on the 4½ per cent cumulative preferred stock, payable Oct. 1 to stockholders of record on Sept. 15.

Selected Issues Gain, Bolstering Stock Rise

NEW YORK (AP)—Late gains by selected issues bolstered a rise as the stock market closed higher today. Trading was moderate.

Boeing jumped more than 2 points, New York Central nearly 2 and Schering more than a point.

The irregular and cautious pre-Labor Day session produced enough selective advances by key stocks to push the list higher on average.

Volume for the day was estimated at 4.1 million shares compared with 4.31 million yesterday.

A wide range of selected issues made gains of a point or more. For most key stocks it was a scrambled picture of fractional gains and losses.

Scattered blue chips firmed the averages. United Aircraft and Du Pont advanced more than a point each. U.S. Steel and Union Carbide added fractions.

Despite the threat of a strike next Wednesday, auto stocks were fairly firm on balance. Ford rose nearly a point. Chrysler added a fraction. General Motors eased from its historic high.

Gains of a point or better were made by Singer, Lukens Steel, and Mack Trucks.

Xerox, Control Data and Polaroid sank a point or more.

Prices on the American Stock Exchange were higher in quiet trading.

Corporate bonds were higher; governments declined.

American Sets Traffic Record

NEW YORK—A company record for passenger traffic was set by American Airlines in August, the airline has announced.

American flew an estimated 817,222,000 revenue passenger miles last month to erase the previous standard of 805,241,000 recorded last June. The August 1964 figure was 13.4 per cent higher than that for the same month of last year.

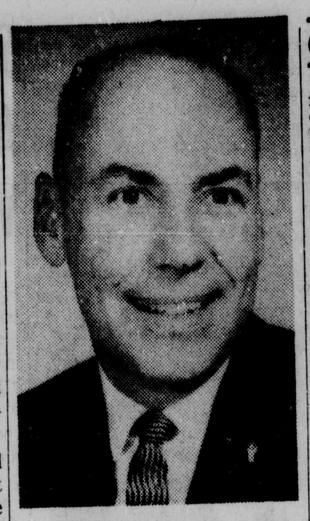
Revenue passenger miles for the first eight months of 1964 totaled an estimated 5,424,709,000, an increase of 14.1 per cent over the total for the same period of last year.

Dividend Declared

SAN FRANCISCO—The board of directors of California Packing Corp. has declared a dividend of 20 cents a share on the capital stock of the corporation payable Nov. 16 to stockholders of record Oct. 23.

Kaiser Selected

OAKLAND—Kaiser Engineers has been selected to engineer and construct two key elements in Armco Steel Corp.'s "project 600," a 600-million-dollar company-wide improvement program.



JOINS BANK — Glen E. Tovani, former manager of Crocker-Citizens National Bank's Terra Linda branch, has become assistant vice president at Bank of Marin, it was announced by president William P. Murray Jr. Tovani was with Crocker-Citizens and its predecessors in Marin, First National Bank of San Rafael and Crocker-Anglo National Bank, for 17 years. He, his wife Gloria and their five children live at 27 Sunset Court, Novato.

SOVEREIGN REPORTED AMERICA'S CUP PICK

NEWPORT, R.I., (AP) — Sovereign will be chosen the British America's Cup challenger, a reliable source indicated to the Associated Press today.

The source said that backers of Kurrewa V, the rival British sloop, would withdraw their craft tonight.

The feeling among the British competitors was that nothing would be gained by prolonging the present trial races until the Sept. 8 deadline. In recent races, Sovereign has won five, Kurrewa two.

The Americans already have selected Constellation as their 12-meter sloop to defend the cup against a 19th challenge starting Sept. 15 at Newport.

ROOKIE ESTELLE IN DO-OR-DIE OPENER

Giants Throw Forgotten Man At Phils

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Dick Estelle, the forgotten man of the San Francisco Giants, tries to start the team's march out of the National League doldrums when he takes the mound against first-place Philadelphia tonight.

This begins a three-act melodrama that ends Sunday when the Giants present ailing ace Juan Marichal (16-6) as their final attraction.

For the third-place Giants — now 6½ games off the pace — this is a do-or-die series. With an eight-game bulge in the loss column and only 27 games left, it appears services will be held for the 1964 Giants before they return home following a doubleheader at Pittsburgh Monday.

But it could end up a miracle play with Estelle the man to do the magic. The 22-year-old southpaw fashioned a 6-5 record with a 2.50 ERA at Tacoma in the Pacific Coast League and pitched a no-hitter before being called up this week.

His beckon to the big leagues came at the same time as Masanori Murakami was rising from the California League to become the first Japanese to play in the majors.

The Giants regained third place and moved up a full game yesterday when Gaylord Perry hurled a five-hitter at the New York Mets. The 3-1 victory, Perry's ninth as against nine losses, was his fifth win without a defeat over New York this season.

Willie Mays, taken out of Wednesday's game, didn't play because of exhaustion. This helped put third-baseman Jim Hart in right field and led to the Mets' only score in the ninth.

Hart misjudged a liner by Joe Christopher or lost it in the sun and the ball rolled to the wall for a triple after Hart made a diving attempt. George Altman's sacrifice fly brought home Christopher.

"We'll see how he feels," was Manager Alvin Dark's reply when asked whether Mays plays tonight. "It's a day-to-day thing."

Besides striking out eight and walking three, Perry knocked in two San Francisco runs.

In the fourth inning after Duke Snider doubled and was doubled home by Tom Haller, Perry singled. In the sixth, Perry hit a sacrifice fly that again scored Haller. The catcher had beat out a bunt and moved to third on a double by Jim Davenport.

Perry's hitting and pitching assisted in defeating former teammate Jack Fisher (9-16).

Hart was in right field because of mild injuries to Willie McCovey, Harvey Kuenn and Mays and the serious injury to Jesus Alou.

The youngest of the three ball players from the Dominican Republic needed 91 stitches to close the wound in his leg that finished him for the season. He'll also wear a cast. Alou was spiked Wednesday by Met second baseman Ron Hunt.

The Giants received special permission to call up Jose Cardenal from Tacoma because of the injury to Alou. Cardenal was batting .287.

Olympic Swimmers 'Greatest Ever'

Independent-Journal Sports

U.S. Favored To Dominate Games

By MURRAY ROSE

NEW YORK (AP) "The greatest swimming team ever."

That was the tribute paid to the teen-age dominant American swimming team by famed Bob Kiphuth today following a record-smashing jamboree in the six day Olympic swimming trials that ended yesterday.

Six world records were battered and one tied in the stiff competition for berths on the U.S. team. This followed a record-busting National AAU championship meet a month ago.

"The competition is so tough in the trials that the Olympics are a breeze after them," said Paula Jean Pope, the three-time Olympic diver trying to make it four at the age of 29.

"This team is great because of its strength and depth in almost every event," said Kiphuth, former Olympic coach who has been watching the Olympics since 1920.

On the basis of performances this year, the American men could win eight of the 10 swim events and possibly sweep the boards. The girls, who range in age from 14 to 19, could capture five of the eight and possibly two more.

Here's a rundown on the Olympic events:

MEN.

100-meter freestyle — Mike Austin of Rochester, N.Y., has the fastest time in the world this year — 53.7 — and Gary Ilman, San Jose, Calif., (53.8) and Don Schollander, Lake Oswego, Ore., (53.9). Any of the three could break the world record of 53.6.

400-meter freestyle — Schollander has the fastest time ever; 4:12.7 up for recognition. He's only 18.

1,500-meter freestyle — Roy Saari, 19, El Segundo, Calif., broke the 17 minute barrier to 16:58.7 and thinks he may go 16:50 by Olympic swim time.

200-meter breaststroke — Chet Jastremski, 23, Toledo, Ohio, came out of retirement and lowered the world mark to 2:28.2.

200-meter backstroke — Tom Stock of Aurora, Ill., who holds the world record of 2:10.9 is through but 19-year-old Gary Dilley, Huntington, Ind., (2:12.0) Jed Graef, 21, Verona, N.J., (2:12.8) and 1960 Olympian Bob Bennett, 20, Encino, Calif., (2:12.8) must be given an even chance against the world.

400-meter individual medley — Dick Roth, 16, Atherton, Calif., has the fastest time ever, 4:48.6.

200-meter butterfly — Australia's Kevin Berry has the world record of 2:06.9 but Fred Schmidt, 20, North Brook, Ill., 2:08, and Carl Robie, 19, Drexel Hill, Pa., 2:08.2 are contenders.

The Americans hold the relay world records in the 400-meter freestyle, 400-meter medley, and 800-meter freestyle, and could break them all.

WOMEN

100-meter freestyle — Australia's Dawn Fraser, holder of the world record of 58.9 has to be favored but 15-year-old Sharon Stouder, Glendora, Calif., has 1:00.4 and expects to break the minute mark soundly by Olympic time, Oct. 10-24.

400-meter freestyle — Marilyn Ramenofsky, Phoenix, just turned 18, is far away the best with her record-shattering 4:39.5.

100-meter backstroke — Christine Caron of France has a pending world record of 1:08.6. She could be beaten by Donna deVarona, 17, Santa Clara, Calif., holder of the listed world record of 1:08.9, or by Cathy Ferguson, 16, Burbank, Calif., who did 1:08.9 in the trials.

100-meter butterfly — Holland's Ada Kok holds world record of 1:06.1 and best pending mark of 1:05.1. Again fast-rising Miss Stouder, with a 1:05.4 best, is a potent threat.

400-meter individual medley — Donna deVarona all by herself with a fresh world record of 5:14.9.

Uncle Sam has the talent to sweep the 400 meter freestyle and medley relays in world record time.

The men and women divers wind up the water show with the 3-meter springboard finals today and the platform finals Sunday.

NO RUN HERE — New York Met pitcher Jack Fisher beats San Francisco Giant Jim Davenport to the plate to cut off his attempt to score on a wild pitch from Fisher during sixth inning of yesterday's game in New York. The batter, centerfielder Matty Alou, crouches near the plate as Fisher takes the throw from catcher Chris Cannizzaro.

LARSON DOES IT

Phillies Stopped

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

000 000 000—0

Don Larsen hasn't seen a linescore like that in five years.

The 35-year-old Houston righthander had his memory refreshed last night as he strung out the zeroes on the Connie Mack Stadium scoreboard, checking the National League leading Philadelphia Phillies 6-0 on four hits for his first shutout since May 30, 1959.

Larsen, who pitched a perfect game for the New York Yankees in the 1956 World Series, had not pitched a shutout in 35 starts since leaving the Yankees five years ago and beginning a short tour of the majors that took him to Kansas City, Chicago and San Francisco.

Acquired by the Colts early in the season, Larsen has been used primarily in relief but has made five starts in the last five weeks, breaking even in four decisions while putting together an eye-opening 1.58 earned run average.

Larsen, now 3-6 on the season, allowed only one Philadelphia base runner as far as third — Richie Allen, who tripled with two out in the eighth. But Larsen bore down, got Johnny Callison on an easy fly and then put the finishing touches on his second complete game in 12 days.

Despite the loss, the Phillies maintained their 5½-game bulge in the pennant race with 30 games to go as Lew Burdette of the Chicago Cubs shut out second-place Cincinnati 3-0 on four hits.

CARDS BLANKED

San Francisco's Gaylord Perry pitched a five-hitter in the Giants' 3-1 victory over the New York Mets and Wade Blasingame allowed only seven hits as Milwaukee belted St. Louis 7-0. Pittsburgh and the Los Angeles Dodgers were not scheduled.

Baltimore built its American League lead to a full game over the idle Chicago White Sox by defeating Minnesota 4-1 while the Los Angeles Angels dropped the third-place New York Yankees four games back, 4-2. Boston whipped Kansas City 7-5 in the only other game scheduled.

Mike White slammed two doubles and a pair of singles for the Colts, who gave Larsen more than enough working room with a five-run sixth inning rally highlighted by Carroll Hardy's two-run homer.

Walt Bond's single, a double by Bob Aspromonte and Hardy's homer off Dennis Bennett produced the first three runs before singles by Jerry Grote, Eddie Kasko and Bob Lillis plus White's double wrapped up the uprising.

Burdette, now 10-7, got the only run he needed in the second inning when Len Gabrielson drew a walk off John Tsitouris, stole second and scored on Ron Campbell's first major league hit. A walk and Billy Williams' homer in the fourth finished the scoring.

Billy McCool, the Reds' rookie reliever, turned in a sharp performance over the final three innings, striking out seven of nine men.

Blasingame, now 4-4, held a 1-0 lead on Hank Aaron's 24th homer before starting a six-run seventh inning outburst by drawing a walk.

Successive singles by Rico Carty, Lee Maye, Aaron and Ed Mathews produced three runs. Joe Torre then tripled and Ed Bailey drove in the final run with a sacrifice fly.

Big Six Rejects Pay-TV

By JACK STEVENSON

BERKELEY (AP)—Pay TV is out for the 1964 Pacific Coast big college football season.

Presidents and chancellors of the eight members in the Athletic Association of Western Universities killed the plan for this fall when they decided it needed more study.

The head men at Washington, Washington State, Oregon, Oregon State, Stanford, California, UCLA and Southern California also decided that in most cases the status quo was fine for the present.

They kept the AAWU designation and didn't even have a suggestion of what nickname might replace the Big Six which became Big Six Plus Two when Oregon and Oregon State came in last July 30.

They also didn't take action on a letter of intent proposal, deciding instead to take more time in an effort to perfect such a system.

Subscription Television Inc., operating in Los Angeles and San Francisco, has submitted a proposed contract covering collegiate athletics in the AAWU. The pay TV firm already has contracts with the Los Angeles Dodgers and San Francisco Giants baseball teams.

Although the presidents and chancellors had received copies, they decided consideration of the proposal should be deferred "without prejudice" for further and intensive consideration by all member schools.

A subcommittee on each campus is to make the study.

There was no indication when such studies would be concluded, but AAWU president Robley Williams of California said there could be no pay TV of the coming football season.

Dr. Williams said also that it was the "decision of the entire group there is no point in changing the name of the conference." Again, he said, this was "without prejudice" to the future. Meeting with the school administrators were the athletic directors and faculty representatives for athletics.

No other names were discussed, he said in answering a newsman's question.

Dr. Williams said the AAWU will try to formulate a letter of intent for student athletes in terms as non-legalistic as possible. Also an ethical code for recruiters will be developed.

"We would want a letter of intent so in case there was a violation, there would be no penalty on the student. Any penalty would be on the institution or its representative who violates the code of ethics," the spokesman explained.

Most major conferences have a letter of intent program with penalties against the students. Under the program, a high school graduate accepting an athletic scholarship from an institution will sign a letter to that effect. Other institutions are then to cease efforts to recruit him and he is to attend the school specified.

Dr. Charles Odegaard, president of the University of Washington, succeeded Dr. Norman Topping, president of Southern California, as chairman of the presidents and chancellors group.

ALONG MARIN'S SPORTS TRAIL

By JIM GILMARTIN

How They Got Show Biz Celebs To Appear At Benefit Tourney

Maurice Luxford, a gentleman of 70 summers, is one of Hollywood's most influential persons.

As director of the annual Bing Crosby Pro-Amateur golf classic at Pebble Beach, Luxford decides which show biz stars get the coveted invitation to the tournament, which is the blast to end all blasts on golf's social ladder. An invitation from him is almost as welcome as an Oscar or Emmy.

Luxford was a Marin County visitor yesterday in his role as Santa Claus for the committee working on Marin's Invitational Tournament of Stars scheduled Sept. 20 at Peacock Gap. It is through his priceless assistance that the Marin group is lining up 36 show biz celebs to participate in the benefit tourney for the Marin Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

Luxford guaranteed, "You can be sure you'll have the greatest array of show business personalities ever to appear at a tournament of this kind in the San Francisco Bay Area."

Luxford flashed a sly smile, "You see, when I sent invitations to the stars for this Marin County event I added a footnote to the letter which stated: 'By the way. I am now in the process of preparing my list for the Crosby tournament so your cooperation in this matter will be appreciated.' Believe me," he chuckled, "you'll have a good turnout here."

Movie and TV stars are flooded with requests to appear in this type of event and it's impossible for them to accept all invitations. So you can see how valuable Luxford's services are to the Marin committee.

LUXFORD, A public relations man who organizes star-type tournaments as a hobby, explained it's impossible for some top stars to make iron-clad committments due to last-minute changes in their schedules, but he guaranteed "36 popular personalities will be here. That's definite."

Among the "definites" are Tennessee Ernie Ford, Jim "Mr. Magoo" Backus, John Agar, Dennis James, comedians George Gobel and Gary (Mr. Lucille Ball) Morton, James Garner, Johnny Weismuller, singer Jimmy Rogers, to name just a few. More will be announced soon. Others likely to show are Donald O'Connor, Fred McMurray and singers Andy Williams and Vic Damone, also to name a few.

BING CROSBY is a probable; they're still waiting to hear from Bob Hope.

Luxford was a luncheon guest yesterday of the Tournament of Stars committee headed by William McDevitt of San Rafael. The group also included baseball figures Joe DiMaggio and Lefty O'Doul, amateur golf stars Harvie Ward and Jimmy French Jr., and radio personality Jim Lange, all assembled for the purpose of kicking off a publicity campaign.

McDEVITT, THE prominent Marin builder, said tickets for the charity event are "going fast and it looks like our first try at this type of event will be successful."

He said some of the better known amateurs invited to join the stars are Bob Roos, Jackie Jensen, Boots Erb, Bob Cardinal, Frank Tatum, Bob Hanna, Ron Cerrudo, Dave Bohanon and Tom Dixon.

A combination of good golf, a lot of laughs and all for a great cause.

By the way, Pacific Southwest Airways will fly the stars and their wives here by Electra-jet and the Edgewater Inn at Corte Madera will house the guests, all for free. Their part for the charity.

FORMER MARIN prep grid stars popped up on the national gridiron news bulletins during the week.

Reg Carolan (Drake) was traded by the Oakland Raiders to the Kansas City Chiefs; Herm McKee (Tam) was placed on waivers by the Pittsburgh Steelers; Willie Hector (Tam) was released by the Denver Broncos and Jack Sovereign (San Rafael) quit U. of Oregon football, where he's a junior, to concentrate on baseball. Sovereign, a quarterback, was top punter at Oregon.

Middleweights Clash In Television Bout Tonight

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Jose Torres, the hard-puncing Puerto Rican middleweight, got a good workout for tonight's 10-round fight with Gomeo Brennan of Bimini—the next-to-last of the regular television bouts.

Spotting the No. 1 middleweight challenger, Luis Rodriguez, working out at the Fifth Street Gym yesterday, Torres invited him into the ring.

The resulting two-round melee drew applause from light heavyweight champion Willie Pastrano and a dozen other fighters.

Rodriguez rocked Torres with a solid right in the first round and was himself shaken up by a pair of sizzling left hooks to the head. They continued to bang away through the second round.

Torres, with a record of 29 victories, one defeat and one draw, is ranked as No. 7 middleweight challenger by Ring Magazine. Brennan, a veteran with 58 victories, 9 losses and 5 draws on his record, is unranked.

Tonight's bout starts at 9 o'clock (PDT) and will be televised.

Rams' Big Boys Ready For Shot At 49ers Tomorrow

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Los Angeles Rams' big men are ready for the San Francisco 49ers: These being Big Ben Wilson and Big Roman Gabriel.

Wilson, 230, will be making his first start at fullback since last December.

Gabriel, 225, will be in at quarterback for the first time since he injured his knee three weeks ago in the National Football League exhibition against Cleveland.

Wilson quit the Rams last winter to study dentistry, decided to study and play football, too, and rejoined the Rams 10 days ago at his old job as fullback.

Gabriel has been sitting on the bench, watching rookie Bill Munson handle his chores. Munson will back him up at Saturday's game in Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

A crowd of 35,000 is expected for the 8:05 p.m. kickoff.

The 49ers will start John Brodie, the ex-Stanford star who missed most of the 1963 season with an injured arm, at quarterback—backed up by rookie George Mira of Miami.

Bill Kilmer, the former UCLA star who missed last year because of a leg broken in an offseason accident, will be in action, too—but playing halfback. And second string, at that. Don Lisbon will start.

In the same boat is the Rams' Terry Baker, the Heisman Trophy winner as an Oregon State quarterback, who was shifted to halfback by Ram coach Harland Svare.

Svare said Baker will make his start as a running halfback Saturday night, playing behind regular halfback Carver Shannon.

Wilson will have a back-up man, too. Dick Bass, who started the summer exhibition season as the Rams' fullback, has a badly bruised thigh muscle hurt in last week's game, and he won't play. Svare will spell Wilson with rookie Lester Josephson, the 210 pounder from Augustana College, S. D., who was obtained in a trade that sent tackle Jim Boeke to the Dallas Cowboys.

Tomorrow night will also mark a debut for two Rams rookies—end Bucky Pope and flanker Willie Brown, the former USC flanker, who'll be in reserve behind Red Phillips.

The starting lineups:

Rams:

Forty-niners:

Mantilla Steals Show In A.L.; Orioles Boost Lead

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Felix Mantilla has moved around so much this season, Johnny Pesky would like to give him a rest.

But you don't bench a guy who's hitting home runs at a faster rate than Dick Stuart.

The 30-year-old Mantilla continued his amazing onslaught last night, clouting two homers and two singles, driving in three runs, as Boston defeated Kansas City 7-5.

The homers increased Mantilla's season total to 24, only 11 short of the number he hit altogether in his first eight seasons in the majors.

Stuart leads the Red Sox with 30 homers — he also is tied for fourth in the American League — but the slugging first baseman has hit his homers at the rate of one for every 17 times at bat. Mantilla has connected once every 14 trips to the plate.

That's why he isn't getting the rest that his past history indicates he needs every once in a while. Actually Mantilla received a rest through the first two months of the season.

The veteran didn't start playing regularly until near the end of June, but since then he's moved more often than Bobby Kennedy.

Mantilla has started at six positions — all three outfield posts, second base, shortstop and third base. He played left field for his latest outburst.

His first homer opened a two-run fifth inning that tied the game 3-3. Mantilla's run-scoring single gave the Red Sox another deadlock, 4-4, in the sixth. He finished his one-man attack with a bases-empty homer in the eighth.

ORIOLES WIN

In other AL games, Baltimore defeated Minnesota 4-1 and Los Angeles stopped New York 4-2.

Dick Radatz recorded his 13th victory in relief for Boston, allowing two hits in the final four innings. He struck out six. One of the hits off Radatz was Wayne Causey's run-producing single in the sixth that put the Athletics into a 5-4 lead.

The Red Sox, however, struck back in the seventh on Ed Bressoud's two-run homer off reliever John Wyatt.

The Orioles increased their league lead to one game over the idle Chicago White Sox. Wally Bunker pitched a six-hitter for his 14th triumph against four defeats, giving up a run in the fourth inning on singles by Harmon Killebrew and Jimmie Hall, a walk and a grounder.

Jack Brandt ripped a three-run double with two out in the seventh inning, breaking a 1-1 tie. The blow came off starter Camilo Pascual, 13-10, after Baltimore loaded the bases on Luis Aparicio's single, a double by Brooks Robinson and an intentional walk to Charlie Lau.

YANKS FALL

The third-place Yankees fell four games behind the Orioles, getting only four hits off the combined pitching of Ken McBride and Bob Lee. McBride went the first five innings and gained only his second victory since June 11.

Lee, who held the Yankees hitless, made his 62nd appearance, tying the AL record for a rookie held by Radatz.

Jim Fregosi and Lou Clinton each drove in two Angel runs, Fregosi cracking a two-run homer in the first inning and Clinton belting a two-run double in the fifth.

It'll Be A Busy Week For Sailors

The Sausalito-to-Coyote Point race, sponsored by the Sausalito Yacht Club, will be held tomorrow, followed by the Barth Trophy race from Coyote Point to Angel Island Sunday, sponsored by the Coyote Point Y.C. Racing starts at noon each day.

The weekend yachting action will get started tonight, however, when 44 big sailboats compete in the annual Windjammers Race to Santa Cruz from the St. Francis Y.C.

There will be 22 boats in Class A, leaving at 6 o'clock, and an equal number in Class B, launching off at 6:10.

Wally Nickell's 55-foot cutter, Santana, will be the scratch boat of the fleet. Highest time allowance given by Santana will be 2:11:17.

Casper In Dallas Spotlight

DALLAS (AP) — Billy Casper, Mason Rudolph and Juan (Chi Chi) Rodriguez were most prominent today as a field of 150 moved out in the $40,000 Dallas Open Golf Tournament.

Casper, the year's fifth leading money winner, is the biggest name here since Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Tony Lema, Gary Player and Ken Venturi are not competing.

Because of his ability to position his shots to suit the tight 6,658-yard Oak Cliff Country Club course, Casper is the favorite.

He will be seeking his 24th tournament victory in 10 years on the tour, during which he has become the third all-time money winner with $350,335.

Only Arnold Palmer and Julius Boros are ahead of him.

Rudolph was eyed as a distinct threat since he has gone through 47 official tournaments since Feb. 1963, and finished in the money. Currently he is the ninth leading money winner this year with $45,229.

Rodriguez, the talkative and colorful player from Puerto Rico, first broke into the big check field in the Dallas Open of 1962 when he finished in a tie for third. Since then he has become one of golf's biggest money-winners.

Winners of 13 tournaments this year are in the field along with 12 of the 25 top money-winners. The 13 tournaments were captured by 10 players with Rodriguez, Casper and Mike Souchak each winning two.

The Dallas Open runs through Monday.

PRO EXHIBITIONS

Double-Header On Grid Slate

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Kansas City Chiefs, who had some trouble winning ball games last year, may have had the answer sitting on the end of the bench all the time.

Charley Warner, a runner from Prairie View A&M, spent most of his rookie season watching the Chiefs dissipate the American Football League championship they had won a year earlier as the Dallas Texans.

Warner did have one memorable game. That was against Denver when he returned a kickoff 103 yards for a touchdown.

But against the Houston Oilers last night, he had a bigger game. Warner scored one touchdown on a 97-yard kickoff return, ran back a punt 80 yards setting up a field goal and helped the Chiefs whack the Oilers 27-17 for their fourth exhibition victory in five starts.

Warner's 80-yard punt return came with eight seconds left in the half and set up Tommy Brooker's field goal which gave the Chiefs a 13-3 lead.

After Houston narrowed the margin to 13-10, Warner took off on his 97-yard TD scamper, giving Kansas City a 20-10 lead. After that, the Chiefs coasted.

SATURDAY ACTION

There are no games scheduled tonight but both the American and National Leagues move back into action Saturday.

In the AFL, winless Boston visits Denver, Buffalo and New York meet at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and Oakland is at San Diego.

Saturday's NFL schedule is headed by the annual doubleheader at Cleveland with the Browns hosting Green Bay and New York playing Detroit. Unbeaten Minnesota meets Philadelphia at Hershey, Pa., Dallas and Chicago are at New Orleans, St. Louis plays Washington at Norfolk, Va., and San Francisco is at Los Angeles in other games.

Sunday's only action is the annual Hall of Fame game at Canton, Ohio with Baltimore playing Pittsburgh.

Denver fans get their first look at the new Bronco quarterback, Jacky Lee. The Patriots will be out to snap a 11 game exhibition losing streak.

Buffalo handed the Jets their only exhibition loss and New York will be out to square matters. Coach Weeb Ewbank's club surprised with a 34-6 victory over AFL champion San Diego a week ago.

The Raiders, winners of three straight, hope to continue the string against the Chargers. San Diego's key runners, Paul Lowe and Keith Lincoln, were bottled up by the Jets last week and may be tough to handle after the loss.

Cleveland, averaging 44 points per game in the last three starts, has been doing it without All-Pro fullback Jimmy Brown. Brown has scored just two TDs all year, and one of those was on a pass. The Packers, buoyed by the return of Paul Hornung, have lost only to the Cardinals.

Y.A. Tittle of the Giants and Milt Plum of the Lions both were hurt last week but are expected to start in the opener of the Cleveland doubleheader.

The Vikings are unbeaten with four straight victories and rebuilding Philadelphia has dropped three of four. Minnesota Coach Norm Van Brocklen says he'll start sophomore Ron VanderKelen in place of Fran Tarketon.

The defending champion Bears have lost two straight and will try to get untracked against Dallas. The Cowboys' No. 1 quarterback, Don Meredith, is out with a knee injury and John Roach, acquired from Green Bay, will call the signals for Dallas.

St. Louis, which beat the Bears last week, tests the Redskins' new quarterback, Sonny Jurgenson, who has been out with an injury. Washington's only victory came against the Giants two weeks ago.

The Rams will try Terry Baker at halfback against the 49ers.

Twin Brothers Catch Twin Fish; Good Striper Angling Due Soon

STEVENS

Wanta' hear a true fish story? Then listen. Hal Ibut and his twin brother were scrounging for a free meal. A devoted pair of identical twins, these brothers not only looked alike, they swam alike, and they fed alike. So, when Hal Ibut noted a tempting morsel of food he would call his twin and together they broke their fast. This day was like most other days except that the piscatorial pair had no means of knowing that aboard the Harbor Rockett on the surface, another identical pair of twins were each holding a fishing rod.

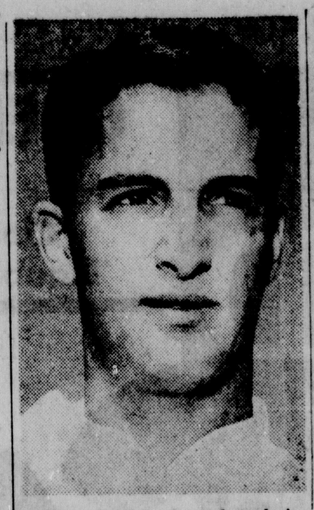
THE PAIR of human twins, like Hal Ibut and his brother, did many things together. The morsel of food offered the fish was duplicated by one of the well known Schwan twins, Tom and Mark. So—when the piscatorial pair grabbed the tempting bit of sustenance, the Schwan twins pulled them in. On the scales the Hal Ibuts weighed exactly 15 pounds each. So heaps of congratulations to Tom and Mark Schwan, twin brothers.

A man who calls himself "a faithful reader" asks that I suggest in this column the type of gear needed to fish for giant tuna. Business is taking him to Nova Scotia. "I understand the fishing is good about this time of year, and that strong tackle is needed. How big are these fish? Any information you have will be appreciated."

I AM happy to oblgie. Probably more giant tuna are caught along the Nova Scotia coast on rod and reel than any other area in the world. Some of these fish have been taken on light tackle, a light rod and line that would test not more than 54 pounds, but there is a great risk in using such light tackle. Better to err by over-strength than otherwise. Tuna Guides recommend line that will test around 80 pounds, a rod with a 28-inch tip, a 12-0 or 14-0 reel, at least 500 yards of line, a 15-foot leader of stainless steel airplane wire, a swivel, a 12-0 hook, and a gaff with a stout, well curved hook. A shoulder harness is necessary to support the pull of the rod. (The ones padded with live rubber are best.)

A BEST bet is to leave your regular tackle home and get one from the guides. You pay $38 a day for boats with tackle and bait. (That $38 rate may have increased—my information is of rates in 1963-64). About the size of these monsters, it is not at all unusual to hook a giant Bluefin weighing over 350 pounds. In fact the world record was taken off the Nova Scotia coast and weighed 977 pounds. A woman angler hooked and landed a bluefin tuna that weighed 882 pounds. Both the above fish were caught at Wedgeport but in different years.

A QUICK synopsis on the local fishing — Salmon spotty both north and south of the Gate—live bait fishing dropped off a great deal due to the high wind and rough water the past three days. Best bet is the Alcatraz and South Tower of the Bridge areas. Good sturgeon fishing in upper Suisun Bay. Skipper O'Brian out of Dowrelio's Crockett harbor took enough sturgeon and striped bass on bait near the Port Costa buoy, and all signs indicate good seasonal activity with stripers on cut bait within a week or 10 days.



LONG WALK—Dental technician Stanley Stein of Hamilton Air Force Base will compete in the National AAU Senior 50-Kilometer Walking Championship at Seattle, Wash., tomorrow. If Stan, a member of the Marin Athletic Club, finishes in the top three he will be eligible to compete in the 1964 Olympics in Tokyo. Tomorrow's walking race will cover slightly more than 31 miles.

Coach Knocks In Nine Runs

Emporium won its first game of the year when it exploded for a 20-13 victory in Class B-Green action of the San Rafael Parks and Recreation Department Adult Softball League yesterday.

Gary Hughes, baseball coach at Marin Catholic High School, knocked in a total of 9 runs with a grand slam homer and a pair of triples.

The Triple 6 softballers downed Sleepy Hollow 11-5 as Don Del Nicki tossed a three-hitter and Garry Stendahl supplied the punch with two doubles. It was a Class B-Blue game.

SOVEREIGN HIKES CUP TRIALS LEAD

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — The count now stands Sovereign 5, Kurrewa V 2.

The Royal Thames Yacht Club still has not selected the challenger for the America's Cup, starting Sept. 15 with Constellation as defender.

The selection committee has five more days to make up its mind.

Sovereign, trailing twice, wound up beating Kurrewa V by one minute, 23 seconds in a race which required almost two hours to complete the final six legs.

Kurrewa V protested Sovereign at the start, when she had to veer to avoid striking Sovereign. Kurrewa was on a starboard tack and Sovereign went on a port tack.

EARLY LEAD

Nevertheless, Kurrewa V took the early lead, was in command-by as much as 1:50 at the second mark yet was caught on the fifth leg, a spinnaker run.

Sovereign's lighter spinnaker seemed to draw better winds while Kurrewa's was badly trimmed. Both 12-meter yachts were hit by a flat calm on the final leg.

Kurrewa, sporting a hankless jib, regained the lead for a short time. But Sovereign skipper Peter Scott found some fresh northwesterly winds blowing near shore and gained an advantage Kurrewa could not overcome.

Self-Hypnosis Helped Girl Swim The English Channel

DOVER, England (AP) — "When I tell her the water is warm — even if it's zero — she really believes it's warm."

That's what coach Paul Herron said.

"I did the swim with my mind completely blank."

That's what Leonore Modell, 14-year-old Sacramento, Calif., schoolgirl said.

"I've never seen a swimmer like her before."

That's what Sam Rockett, veteran advisor to scores of English Channel swimmers, said.

Rockett laid out the course, Herron planned the strategy and Leonore made the swim yesterday, from France to Dover in 15 hours and 40 minutes, even though she had to switch course and go the long way around when she was only 700 yards from shore.

It made Leonore the youngest person ever to swim the Channel.

Hundreds of spectators lined the famed white cliffs and cheered the California girl when she arrived.

Herron, who has swum the Channel himself in both directions, said that the girl swam under self-hypnosis.

"The swim has proved my theory," he said. "Leonore has been a guinea pig to prove my theories on physical development."

And Leonore said:

"I was in a state of self-hynosis throughout. I have proved that health and fitness can be attained by self-discipline."

After the swim, Leonore said she thought the Channel had been calmer than she had expected. "I got stung by a jelly fish on my right arm and that bothered me for a while, but I was never worried I wouldn't make it," she said.

The youngest person who made it previously was 17-year-old Claudia McPherson of Canada, who took 17 hours and 17 minutes last year.

Mill Valley Church Women Plan Series

A group of women within Mill Valley's Community, Methodist and Episcopal churches are busy with plans to promote a series of classes their churches will sponsor this month.

They will be similar to those held last spring at the Community Church.

Final arrangements will be made at a luncheon to be held Thursday, Sept. 17, at the home of Mrs. Joseph Taylor.

Speaker will be Dr. Muriel James, dean of the Laymen's School of Religion in Berkeley, who conducted the morning classes last spring on "Understanding Today's Women Sociologically, Psychologically and Theologically."

These were followed later by an evening series on "Honest To God And Modern Man" for both men and women, conducted by the Rev. Arnold Bruce Come of the San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo.

All of the classes are given by the Laymen's School of Religion, which Dr. James together with the presidents and deans of four seminaries in the Bay Area and several laymen and professors, founded in 1959.

An ordained minister with a B.D. degree from the Church Divinity School of the Pacific and Ph.D. from the University of California, Dean James has a background that gives academic stature to the school.

At the luncheon Dr. James will discuss the school, its background and its plans for the 1964-65 year.

Anyone interested in the classes is invited to attend the Sept. 17 meeting. It will start at 11:30 a.m. Those attending are requested to bring their own sandwiches. Coffee will be served.

The committee in charge of promoting the classes — to be held at four Marin churches and the San Francisco Theological Seminary—is composed of Mrs. Richard Harding, chairman, and Mesdames Richard Stephens, James Behr, Joseph Taylor, Weld Wilkie, John Wyand and Robert Jenkins.

Because of limited parking facilities, those wishing to attend are asked to call Mrs. Stephens, Mrs. Behr or Mrs. Wyand for information about a car pool from the center of Mill Valley.

Newcomers Club Bowling League Meets Tuesdays

Novato Newcomers Club bowling league will meet on Tuesday mornings at 9:30 a.m. at Nave Lanes, according to Mrs. Earl Gildersleeve, new president. Mrs. Don Compton is vice president and Mrs. Richard Meeres, secretary.

Chairmen for the event are Mesdames Junius A. Thomson and W. J. Griffith and Mrs. Wilfred A. Waldrop will be commentator. Mrs. Thomas W. Moscrop will be wardrobe mistress assisted by Mesdames Tarrell Tipton and O. R. Kobert.

Modeling the fall fashions in the garden will be club members, Mesdames George Wigner, P. Morris Burgess, Earl Gildersleeve, Donald P. Spagnolia, Gordon Swartz, Brice Sullivan, Don H. Malagamba and Thomson.

Reservation chairman is Mrs. Spagnolia of Ignacio.

Final Plans For Festival Will Be Topic At Coffee

The 65th annual Grape Festival will be the topic of discussion at a coffee meeting at 10 a.m. Thursday, at Sunny Hills in San Anselmo.

Affluent Granny Foots The Bill

NEW YORK (UPI) — Grandma gets the biggest rush in the baby departments—as the only member of the family able to afford all the fashionable merchandise for the infant set.

Now that baby must have a crib for indoors, a crib for outdoors, a crib for the car and a diversified wardrobe for all occasions, only a fairy godmother could foot the bill, the Cleanliness Bureau reports. Grandma gets tapped for a financial reason. Sixty per cent of the grandmas have money from their own jobs or other sources.

Junior Too Quiet? Maybe He's Talking To Pen Pal In Tokyo

By JOY MILLER

NEW YORK (AP)—Within the next 10 years you'll be able to lift your telephone receiver and directly dial friends in countries around the world.

That's the prediction of an Australian communications engineer who thinks that perhaps your telephone bill will be more of a limiting factor than the technology — at least as far as you're concerned.

Certainly great restraint will have to be exercised to keep from regularly calling a daughter stationed in some military outpost with her serviceman husband. Or there's that lovely couple you met in Hamburg on your vacation last summer. You meant to write, but why not just give them a call? That'd surprise them, all right.

And why is Junior so quiet for the last hour? He's talking to his pen pal in Tokyo?

MISS OWEN WOOSTER of Victoria, Australia, chuckles as she imagines the mayhem that could result from the worldwide dialing she expects to be in effect in major countries within the next decade.

She's a plump woman who looks more housewifely than what she is, which is ground communications superintendent of the government - sponsored Trans Australia Airlines and a 1961 recipient of British Empire Medal for her communications work.

At the recent First International Conference of Women Engineers and Scientists she explained how the worldwide automatic system of direct dialing would work.

"THE WORLD NUMBER is not to exceed 11 digits for 25 years or more. This is to simplify the immediate problems of world-wide operation for countries such as the United States, where there is a large investment in switching equipment, with limited storage capacity," she said.

"There are two components of the world number: the country or continental code and the national, which will be variable in length. A country adequately taken care of by an 8-digit national numbering scheme could have a 3-digit country code. The U.S.-S.R. and the United States with 10-digit national schemes—such as New York City's area code 212 plus the local number, say PL 1-0101 — would each be identified by a single digit code."

SHE SAID THAT the technical means of providing the system is already available. "National systems are being mechanized rapidly, generally in forms suitable for inclusion, with little change, in the world system."

For Miss Wooster this will be another link in the chain of telecommunications that she believes will "leap over barriers of of illiteracy and the multiplicity of languages, and bring peoples closer together."

Emphasize Beauty And Order In Helping Deprived Child

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Educators are experimenting this fall with projects to fill the cultural gap of the "deprived" children —many from homes where there are no pencils or paper, books or magazines.

More than two dozen large cities have, or are planning, pre-school education for these youngsters, reports the National Education Association (NEA).

NEA said that studies show three and four-year-old children from slums or otherwise disadvantaged areas lack the "most ordinary familiarity" with the world which the school takes for granted in the middle class child.

THE NEA publication, "Education U.S.A.," cited a comment of a teacher recently in a Brooklyn, N.Y., slum area, who said, "When people speak about how the children can't learn or won't learn, I don't know how they can expect them to if they just have nothing to relate it (learning) to, nothing in their own lives that's beautiful or imaginative."

NEA said one of the most ambitious pre-school programs is that directed by Martin Duetsch, head of the Institute of Developmental Studies of New York (city) Medical College.

One group of Negro children Leutsch studied dramatized the problem—50 per cent said they did not have pencils or pens at home and almost as many said there were no books or magazines.

When spoken to at all by adults, the children usually heard only, "Get this," or "Bring that."

In public schools and daycare centers, Deutsch is developing a curriculum and teaching techniques to give slum children the skills they need to be able to read and to gain an awareness of themselves.

BEAUTY and order are emphasized in the classrooms. In working with parents, Deutsch is trying to show them how to help their children—to encourage them to talk, to give them toys and books, to show interest in what they are doing.

The association said other pre-school and nursery school programs are "popping up" everywhere. It mentioned an early school admissions project in Baltimore, which started as a three-year experiment in 1962.

"While it is too soon to tell whether or not the program will have any lasting effect, the enthusiastic response of children and parents makes teachers and school administrators hopeful," says the association.

IN THE case of the Baltimore project, the center was housed in schools in the city's most depressed neighborhoods. Children were chosen from these areas where the crime and delinquency rate was so high that teachers found it unwise to make home visits alone or after dark.

Money Gift For Old Prescription

WASHINGTON (UPI) — To rid medicine cabinets of outdated drugs, 16 Baltimore pharmacies give a 25-cent gift certificate for every prescription bottle over three months old.

The plan, designed to prevent injury and even death from the ingestion of old medicines, was described in "Public Health Reports," the journal of the Public Health Service.

Basic Breakfast Is A Necessity

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (UPI) — Automation in business and industry is changing American breakfast habits, say dietitians at the University of Michigan Medical Center. Many jobs which used to be physically demanding, for example, have become almost sedentary.

Thus, say the dietitians, food intake has had to adjust to the slower pace — and people are cutting down on the quantity of food eaten in the morning.

Women In White Treated In Style

Without sacrificing the practical or neat qualities that are so important in uniforms . . . the woman in white is being treated to fashions that are as up-to-the-minute as any daytime dresses to be seen!

The revolution in fabrics that offer wash-wear features is perhaps the most important reason for the big addition of style to the utility in uniforms.

Dacron, used alone or in blends, is still the important fabric . . . but it looks brand new in patterns of white on white plaids, stripes and novelty motifs. Puckered Dacron gives an illusion of texture.

The shirtdress with its many variations still holds the fort, but town dress styling is definitely on the increase.

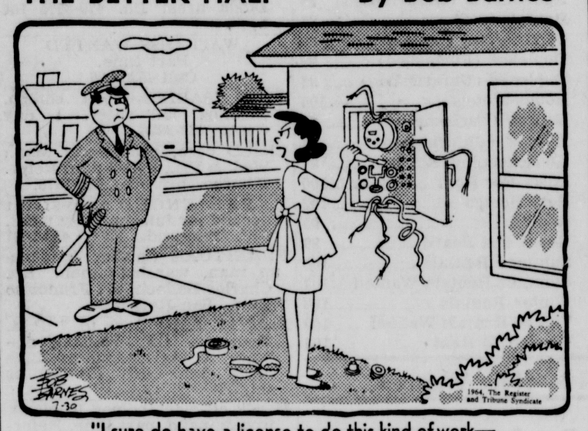
Umbrella Opener

Newest among the mechanical improvements is a touch and go umbrella that can be opened with one hand. The cocktail sized bumbershoot—perhaps for standing under a very small hole in the roof—is also an innovation. Needless to say, there are discotheque styles. These have removable outside covers to enable the carrier to match her costume more suitably.

THE BETTER HALF By Bob Barnes



"I sure do have a license to do this kind of work—a marriage license!"

For Trapped Food

To remove food particles that get caught in the small openings and blades of a food chopper, use a well-lathed percolator brush. After brushign, wash quickly in hot soap or detergent suds and rinses, wipe with a towel, and air dry before reassembling the parts.

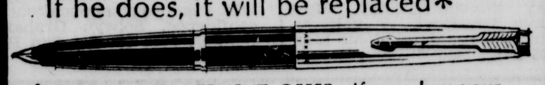
Q. Why give your favorite student a good pen when he'll just lose it?

A. Parker won't let him lose it. If he does, it will be replaced*



* SPECIAL REPLACEMENT OFFER: If you buy your favorite student a Parker 45 (the $5 model) between now and October 17, 1964, he can protect it against loss for one full year at no extra cost. He registers its purchase by mailing one-half of the Parker 45 Registration Certificate to the insurance company listed on the certificate. Then if the pen is lost, the insurance company will replace it at no charge. All he has to do is mail the other half of the certificate, properly notarized before December 31, 1965 and describe how the pen was lost.

Here's why this is such a good pen for a student:

IT'S CONVERTIBLE. Load it with a cartridge or replace the cartridge with the ingenious little "converter" (95 cents extra) and fill it from an ink bottle. The 45 is the only pen that fills two ways. SOLID 14K GOLD POINT. Choice of seven widths from extra-fine to extra-broad. And we can replace points right on the spot.

Scott-Smiley Rite In East

Christopher Louise Smiley was married Aug. 29, to George Winfield Scott Jr. in Our Lady of Fatima Church, Wilton, Conn.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, David Norton Smiley, wore a white silk suit.

A wedding breakfast followed at Fox Hill Inn, Ridgefield, Conn.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Foerster Smiley of Westport, Conn. and Richard H. Smiley of New York City. Mr. Scott is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Winfield Scott of Westport. Mrs. Scott attended Vermont College, Montpelier, Vt., and until her marriage was associated with the New Yorker Magazine in New York City.

She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Bryant Foerster of Los Angles, and the late Roland C. Foerster and the late Mr. and Mrs. Spencer N. Smiley of San Rafael.

Her husband was graduated from Dartmouth College with the class of 1963 where he was a member of Zeta Psi. He will enter his second year at Yale Law School this fall.

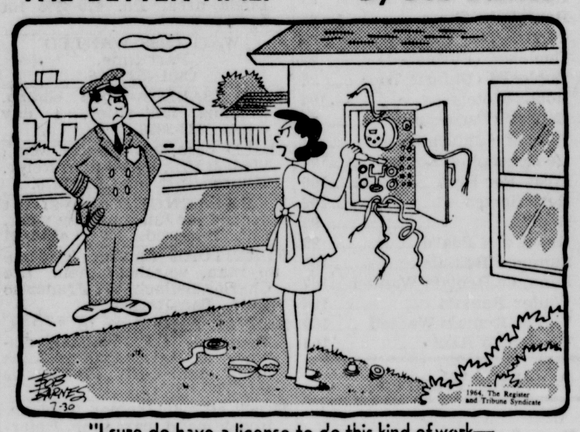
The bridegroom is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Christian Steidinger of Williston, L. I. and the late Mr. and Mrs. George P. Scott of Portsmouth, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott are honeymooning in Bermuda and upon their return will reside in New Haven, Conn.

Umbrella Opener

Newest among the mechanical improvements is a touch and go umbrella that can be opened with one hand. The cocktail sized bumbershoot—perhaps for standing under a very small hole in the roof—is also an innovation. Needless to say, there are discotheque styles. These have removable outside covers to enable the carrier to match her costume more suitably.

THE BETTER HALF By Bob Barnes



"I sure do have a license to do this kind of work—a marriage license!"

For Trapped Food

To remove food particles that get caught in the small openings and blades of a food chopper, use a well-lathed percolator brush. After brushign, wash quickly in hot soap or detergent suds and rinses, wipe with a towel, and air dry before reassembling the parts.

Women In White Treated In Style

Without sacrificing the practical or neat qualities that are so important in uniforms . . . the woman in white is being treated to fashions that are as up-to-the-minute as any daytime dresses to be seen!

The revolution in fabrics that offer wash-wear features is perhaps the most important reason for the big addition of style to the utility in uniforms.

Dacron, used alone or in blends, is still the important fabric . . . but it looks brand new in patterns of white on white plaids, stripes and novelty motifs. Puckered Dacron gives an illusion of texture.

The shirtdress with its many variations still holds the fort, but town dress styling is definitely on the increase.

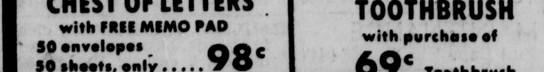
Q. Why give your favorite student a good pen when he'll just lose it?
A. Parker won't let him lose it. If he does, it will be replaced*



* SPECIAL REPLACEMENT OFFER: If you buy your favorite student a Parker 45 (the $5 model) between now and October 17, 1964, he can protect it against loss for one full year at no extra cost. He registers its purchase by mailing one-half of the Parker 45 Registration Certificate to the insurance company listed on the certificate. Then if the pen is lost, the insurance company will replace it at no charge. All he has to do is mail the other half of the certificate, properly notarized before December 31, 1965 and describe how the pen was lost.
Here's why this is such a good pen for a student:
IT'S CONVERTIBLE. Load it with a cartridge or replace the cartridge with the ingenious little "converter" (95 cents extra) and fill it from an ink bottle. The 45 is the only pen that fills two ways. SOLID 14K GOLD POINT. Choice of seven widths from extra-fine to extra-broad. And we can replace points right on the spot.
Parker 45 Convertible $5

WHAT MAKES A COMFORT'BLE HOME?

We like to think of comfort as a successful combination of new home convenience in a beautiful location, such as the home we call

THE ATHERTON

Our ATHERTON model is located so you have a commanding view from both step-down family room and living room, through sliding glass doors. Massive white brick, raised hearth fireplace, with wood-paneled book-shelves, extends the full length of the family room. The step-saver GE kitchen adjacent to the dining area (with crystal chandelier) is separated from the family room by a wrought iron balustrade. There are 3 spacious bedrooms, 2 beautifully appointed baths. THE ATHERTON is luxuriously decorated.

If YOU agree that comfort is a combination of many things, you'll enjoy seeing the other furnished models.

DIRECTIONS
North on 101 just beyond San Rafael, take Terra Linda turnoff. Continue on overpass to Purity Market and turn left. Bear right on Nova Albion Way to Esmeyer Drive. Continue up Esmeyer Drive to furnished models.

Said bonds are part of an authorized issue in the aggregate principal amount of $850,000.00. The remaining $585,000.00 principal amount of said authorized issue may be sold when and as determined by said Board of Supervisors, but it is anticipated will not be offered for sale prior to September 1, 1965.

REGISTRATION: Coupon bonds will be issued by said Board of Supervisors on behalf of said school district. Such bonds are registrable only as to both principal and interest.

PURPOSE OF ISSUE: Said bonds were authorized by more than two-thirds of the voters voting at an election held in said district on April 16, 1963, and will be issued and sold for the purpose of raising money for authorized school purposes.

SECURITY: The bonds are general obligations of said school district and said Board of Supervisors has power and is obligated to levy ad valorem taxes for the payment of said bonds and the interest thereon upon all property within said school district, subject to taxation by said school district (except certain intangible personal property, which is taxable at limited rates), without limitation of rate or amount.

TAX EXEMPT STATUS: In the event that prior to the delivery of the bonds the income received by private holders from bonds of the same type and character shall be declared to be taxable under any Federal Income Tax laws, either by the terms of such laws or by ruling of a Federal Income Tax authority or official which is followed by the Internal Revenue Service or by the decision of any Federal Court, the successful bidder may at his option, prior to the tender of said bonds by the Board of Supervisors, be relieved of his obligation under the contract to purchase the bonds and, in such case, the deposit accompanying his bid will be returned.

LEGAL OPINION: The legal opinion of the following firm, approving the validity of said bonds, will be furnished to the successful bidder without charge: Orrick, Dahlquist, Herrington & Sutcliffe of San Francisco, California. A copy of the legal opinion, certified by the official in whose office the original is filed, will be printed on each bond without charge to the successful bidder.

TERMS OF SALE

HIGHEST BIDDER: The bonds will be awarded to the highest responsible bidder or bidders considering the interest rate or rates specified and the premium offered, if any. The highest bid will be determined by deducting the amount of the premium bid (if any) from the total amount of interest which the district would be required to pay from the date of said bonds to the respective maturity dates thereof at the coupon rate or rates specified in the bid, and the award will be made on the basis of the lowest net interest cost to the district. The lowest net interest cost shall be computed on a 360-day year basis. The purchaser must pay accrued interest from the date of the bonds to the date of delivery. The cost of printing the bonds will be borne by the district.

RIGHT OF REJECTION: Said Board of Supervisors reserves the right in its discretion to reject any and all bids and to waive any irregularity or informality in any bid.

PROMPT AWARD: The Board of Supervisors will take action awarding the bonds or rejecting all bids not later than 24 hours after the expiration of the time herein prescribed for receipt of proposals; provided, that the award may be made after the expiration of the specified time if the bidder shall not have given the Board of Supervisors notice in writing of the withdrawal of such proposal.

PROMPT DELIVERY: Delivery of said bonds will be made to the successful bidder at the office of the County Treasurer of said County as soon as the bonds can be prepared, which it is estimated will be within 30 days from the day of sale, but not prior to the date of the bond.

RIGHT OF CANCELLATION: The successful bidder shall have the right, at his option, to cancel the contract of purchase if the bonds are not tendered for delivery within 60 days from the date of sale thereof, and in such event, the successful bidder shall be entitled to the return of the deposit accompanying his bid.

FORM OF BID: All bids must be for not less than all of the bonds hereby offered for sale, and for not less than the par value thereof and accrued interest to date of delivery. Such bids, together with bidder's check, must be enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed to the Board of Supervisors of said County and endorsed "Proposal for School Bonds of Kentfield School District of Marin County"

BID CHECK: With each bid must be submitted a certified check or cashier's check for $1,000.00 drawn on a bank or trust company transacting business in the State of California, payable to the order of the County Treasurer, to secure said school district from any loss resulting from the failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of his bid. In addition, bidders are requested (but not required) to supply an estimate of the total net interest cost to the district on the basis of their respective bids, which shall be considered as informative only and not binding on either the bidder or the district. Checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be returned by the County Clerk by mail, upon the award of the bonds. No interest will be paid upon deposit made by the successful bidder.

There is no controversy or litigation pending concerning the validity of the above issue, the corporate existence of said district or the title of the officers to their respective offices and the Board of Supervisors will deliver to the successful bidder a no-litigation certificate certifying to the foregoing as of and at the time of the delivery of the bonds.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Fibroid Growths Complicate But Don't Prevent All Pregnancies

VAN DELLEN

Is it possible for a pregnant woman with a fibroid of the uterus to have a normal delivery? The answer is yes, depending upon the size and location of the tumor. These lesions (myomas) often decrease fertility and increase the chance of premature delivery.

On the other hand, they do not interfere with labor or delivery of the baby unless a large growth near the opening of the uterus is obstructing the passageway. In such instances, caesarean section is required.

FIBROIDS ARE benign growths made up of uterine muscle tissue. At least 20 per cent of women over 35 years of age have one or more, frequently without symptoms or knowledge of their existence. They may be tiny or large enough to fill the abdominal cavity. Some are round, others are oblong or knobbed. They may protrude into the cavity of the uterus, whereas those near the surface bulge outward, giving the organ a nodular appearance.

Fibroids become bigger gradually; it may take five years to grow from the size of an olive to that of an orange. The first warning is likely to be a change in the menstrual pattern; the period becomes prolonged and the flow profuse. Pain seldom occurs unless these tumors press on nearby structures.

A pelvic examination is needed to make the diagnosis. Many physicians also recommend a D and C to determine whether symptoms are due to cancer or other disorders.

REMOVAL OF THE uterus is suggested, especially when the myomas are large and the woman has had her family or is approaching menopause. Only the fibroids are carefully dissected away from the uterine wall when the victim is young and willing to take her chances on getting pregnant and carrying the child to full term.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

CLOSED STOMACH

J. H. W. writes: What can you tell me about a valve that closes, which prevents entry of food to the stomach?

REPLY

Thickening, or spasm, of the cardia (entrance to the stomach) is a troublesome condition. There is no difficulty in swallowing except that the food sticks in the lower part of the esophagus. The victim often learns that drinking liquid will help solids to pass through the narrowed opening. But in time liquids become just as difficult to swallow as solids. Emotional tension and stress usually aggravate cardiospasm. When sedatives fail to control the disorder, a mechanical dilator must be passed.

UMBILICAL HERNIA

Mrs. J. writes: A 1-year-old boy has a protuding navel caused by hernia. Can this be cured without an operation?

REPLY

Umbilical hernias in children usually heal by the second birthday. If they are large and do not heal within 6 to 9 months of continuous strapping, surgery may be indicated.

BROMHIDROSIS

A. M. writes: Is it normal for the perspiration of an 8-year-old girl to have an odor?

REPLY

It is unusual unless the girl is approaching puberty and the apocrine glands are becoming active. Cleanliness goes a long way because most of the odor is due to bacteria on the moist skin.

ADHESIONS

F. M. writes: Could adhesions form 20 years after a gall bladder operation?

REPLY

Yes, but in all probability the scars developed shortly after the operation and remained unnoticed for two decades.

Science Learns Of Creating Monsters

NEW YORK (UPI)—Science has learned a little more about embryonic processes which create monsters, and this is reason for rejoicing. Prevention of such embryonic processes would also prevent much human unhappiness.

Since chicken embryoes are contained in eggs that can be manipulated at will, two scientists used them to add to science's now limited knowledge of what is called technically tetratogenesis. They used also two drugs, one a member of the "sulpha" family — sulphanilamide.

When either is needled into a fertile chicken egg in a relatively large amount, the chances of a monstrous chick developing in that egg are very high. But when either is needled into the egg in a relatively small amount, the chances are quite low.

Whether they serve as "tetratogens" which they reach an embryo is strictly a matter of the size of the dose. The scientists proved it, with sulphanilamide. A small amount needles into 297 fertile eggs caused a departure from perfectly normal chick embryonic development of only three-tenths of 1 per cent.

Walter Landauer and Ellen M. Clark of the University of Connecticut at Storrs, then proceeded to needle these harmless amounts of both drugs into the same eggs. They wanted to find out if they were "synergistic"—if they increased the monster-form potency of one another.

This time there was only 20.7 per cent normality among the chicks which developed in 275 eggs. Almost 80 per cent had malformed and underdeveloped legs and 63.6 per cent had parrot-like beaks which in itself is enough to make a chicken into a monster. Furthermore, the hatching rate was greatly reduced.

This work bears directly on the concern of medical science over the off-hand way human beings resort to drugs, as though chemical compounds were simple and direct in their effects. Dr. Landauer and Miss Clark pointed out how subtle reactions in body chemistry can be.

They can block vitamins away from enzymes and coenzymes which must have those vitamins to initiate essential chemical processes. Or they can lower the available "fuels" of body chemistry, particularly if one drug which is harmless in itself should add to the potency of a second that chances to be present at the same time.

"It is clear that altogether harmless amounts of potentially tetratogenic substances may in combination produce powerful synergism and thereby a high incidence of severe malformations," the scientists said in summarizing their new knowledge.

They then reminded that their earlier experiments demonstrated drugs which do no interfere with embryonic development even in high doses "may act as highly effective synergists" of other drugs.

"The cautionary consequences of these facts should not require emphasis," they added. Their work was supported by the national science foundation and was a

MARIN FILM FARE

'Cleo' Comes To Marin Screen

By LES DARD

Marin movie fans have a notable collection this fine weekend:

FAIRFAX THEATER

Tonight belongs to "Cleopatra," easily the most lavish — and most publicized — film ever made as it opens its Marin run at the Fairfax.

The public must be advised to do a lot of forgetting about this picture. Put aside the notoriety of its top stars, the monumental production problems, the endless stories of the film's financing.

Just come looking for stunning entertainment, and few will be disappointed.

The story of the Egyptian queen, her dependence and influence on Rome, is told through her grand alliances — political and romantic — with Caesar and Antony. The first half of the picture belongs to Caesar, the second to Antony.

It is, without doubt, Elizabeth Taylor's show. In 100 dazzling costumes, she is at her most beautiful.

To Rex Harrison as Caesar go the major plaudits. As the brilliant conqueror of Pompey, the wary recipient of Cleo's charms, the dreamer of world conquest, he gives the role depth and consistency.

Richard Burton as Antony is exciting as a man more lover than hero, more impetuous than is good for him.

The staging is, in a word, colossal. The photography, superlative.

This is one you won't have to tell your grandchildren about. They'll be seeing it themselves on return runs.

LARK THEATER

A captivating Italian tragicomedy, "Seduced and Abandoned," is now on screen. That title may not strike you as very amusing, and indeed there are moments here of both delicious humor and great poignance.

The story is concerned with an angelic Sicilian girl seduced by her sister's fiance, and with her autocratic father's subsequent efforts to avenge her honor.

The struggle begins quietly, but ultimately involves the whole village, bystanders, police, clergy, relatives. And, eventually, it kills the father.

The final shot is of the father's grave, topped by a realistic bust of his head, with the motto: "Family and Honor."

But the girl is not abandoned. She marries her seducer and it looks like it could be a happy merger.

Acting, by performers whose names you wouldn't recognize, is excellent.

The film is the work of Pietro Germi, who gave us "Divorce, Italian Style."

MOTOR MOVIES

"Flipper's New Adventure" now showing is the sequel to "Flipper," story about a boy and an intelligent dolphin. The new story is even more appealing than the original.

Told that he must put his dolphin in an aquarium to make way for a highway, young Luke Halprin sets out in a small boat to find an uninhabited island where he might hide his pet.

Using motor, boy and dolphin power, he finally arrives at a suitable place — or rather the dolphin does because he's pulling the boat.

But soon complications start. Three thugs take over a yacht and set the owner's family adrift near Luke's island. He and the dolphin help them get to shore, but stay under cover for fear of discovery.

Soon he meets one of the two daughters by accident, and arranges to help them get food in secretive ways. After a while though, the criminals change their minds and decide to come back and take the family hostage.

Flipper and his owner won't have this, and take over the boat.

Fine escapism for the younger set.

TAMALPAIS THEATER

The year's biggest musical, "The Unsinkable Molly Brown," is now showing, starring Debbie Reynolds in what could be her top role.

The title heroine was an illiterate Irish-American girl who became the toast of international society. Born Molly Tobin, she became Molly Brown through marriage to Johnny Brown, who made it very big tapping the west's mining riches.

Primed with her Irish obstinacy and her husband's cash, Molly descended on Denver. But the established society there rejected her. So Molly headed for Europe and the polish it could give her.

When she returned to Denver, Molly brought her own court of European nobility. On the next trip she became the heroine of the sinking of the Titanic.

RAFAEL THEATER

Held over is Alfred Hitchcock's newest, "Marnie," which features a strange romance between Tippi Hedren and Sean Connery.

Marnie is a compulsive thief and liar. She steals only money, in large lumps. To facilitate this, she switches identities, jobs and hair coloring.

The girl is tripped up when the same man appears on two of her jobs. But instead of turning her in, Connery falls in love with Marnie and marries her, all the while trying to discover her problem and reform her.

The audience is treated to the sifting of psychological clues as Connery wrestles with his problem. He does a good job.

In case his name is not yet on your tongue tips, Connery is the James Bond of "From Russia With Love" and "Dr. No," Ian Fleming's intrepid hero.

It's in Technicolor.

NOVATO THEATER

Opening Sunday is "The Chalk Garden," a gripping suspense story starring Hayley Mills and Deborah Kerr and featuring John Mills, Hayley's father.

Miss Kerr is engaged as a governess-companion to Hayley, an incorrigible 16-year-old who lives with her doughty grandmother, Edith Evans, in a lovely old house on the chalk cliffs of Dover.

There is mystery about Miss Kerr and although hints are given from time to time, the truth when it comes is a shocker.

John Mills plays the butler. There is a subtle suggestion of romance between him and Miss Kerr which adds to the intrigue.

The co-feature is "Wild and Wonderful," a sort of shaggy dog story, which stars Tony Curtis and Christine Kaufmann and Monsieur Cognac, a film star poodle who tries to foul up their romance.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

Peter Sellers comes forth in "The World of Henry Orient," now showing which is made the more engaging by the pixyish presence of two teen-age girls, Tippy Walker and Merrie Spaeth.

The irresistible adolescents are exploring Manhattan's Central Park when they come upon concert pianist Henry Orient (Sellers) amorously engaged with Paula Prentiss.

From that point on one girl has a crush on Henry.

Sellers is wildly comical and Tom Bosley and Angela Lansbury are amusing as the parents of one girl. But what steals the show is the delightfully fresh talent of Tippy and Merrie.

Jerry Lewis and Jill St. John star in the co-feature, "Who's Minding the Store."

101 DRIVE-IN

Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, Sammy Davis Jr. and Bing Crosby star in "Robin and the Seven Hoods," now showing.

Sinatra plays Robbo, leader of a Chicago gang in the days of bootleg liquor.

His chief henchmen are Martin and Sammy Davis. The head of a rival gang is played by Peter Falk, while the only big female role is that of Barbara Rush who plays the daughter of slain gangleader Edward G. Robinson.

Bing Crosby plays a do-gooder who ends up with both gangs — and Miss Rush as well!

SEQUOIA THEATER

Peter Sellers stars in "Shot in the Dark," held over, as the hilarious Inspector Clouseau of "Pink Panther" fame.

In this story he is investigating the murder of a servant in the home of millionaire George Sanders. As all the facts point to pretty Miss Elke Sommers, the parlor maid, he immediately sets out to prove she didn't do it.

This he does with an absolute shambles of police procedure that is as devastating as it is delightful.

The whole film is riotously funny and loaded with good visual humor.

HELD OVER — Alfred Hitchcock's mystery, "Marnie," is being held over at the Rafael Theater. The film stars Sean Connery and Tippi Hedren. It is the story of a strange romance.

Landmarks Society Benefit Is Planned

Furniture and houseware donated by Tiburon Peninsula residents will be sold Sept. 18, 19 and 20 to benefit the Belvedere-Tiburon Landmarks Society.

The sale sponsored by the society will be held in the old Northwestern Pacific Railroad freight office on the south side of Paradise Drive near the ferry slip. Donations of furniture, books, paintings and other household items are being received by Mrs. H. C. Gathings of Tiburon.

Household Pet, Kitten Show Slated

More than 100 cats will compete Sunday at the Marin County Cat Fanciers' Household Pet and Kitten Show in the Marin Art and Garden Center, Ross.

The king and queen of household pets will receive their cat-size crowns at 4 p.m. Four other cats will also be crowned: a duke and duchess and a prince and princess.

Household pet judge will be Natalie Higgins of San Jose.

More than 50 purebred animals will compete in the kitten portion. They will be judged by Mrs. Paul Springer of San Francisco, Mrs. Robert Ebert of Fremont, and Lois Werckle of San Jose.

The show will be open from 11 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

First Ocean Pier

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Atlantic City's first ocean pier was not an amusement pier in the strict sense. It was erected by the West Jersey and Atlantic Railroad as part of its Excursion House facilities, and was opened the same day the railroad line ran its first train into the resort, July 16, 1880.

Tiburon Sanitation Vote Is Set Tuesday

Voters in the Tiburon Sanitary District on Tuesday will choose among eight candidates to fill three positions on the district board.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. at the district plant, Mar West Street and Paradise Drive.

Candidates are Victor C. Banks, J. P. Eichorn, Edward Goliti Jr., Bruce S. Jacobs, Fred Mantegani, Angelo Mirata, John V. Murray, and Francis J. Ryan.

Commenting on recent allegations that some candidates were not properly registered to vote and so could not run in the election, district secretary Robert A. Sterling, who is retiring from the board, said:

"The district is not in the position to question the qualifications of these candidates. The board is not a court; it is a matter between the candidate and the one who challenges him."

Anne L. Ellinwood, Tiburon city councilman, in a letter to Irving Moulin, as chairman of the board, had said that qualifications of some candidates apparently did not meet election requirements.

Moulin made the letter public Monday and answered the comments with opinions from the sanitary district's attorney which indicated all candidates challenged are qualified to run.

Sterling said Miss Ellinwood's comments should have been made at a sanitary district board meeting, or a city council meeting, or in a letter to the entire board.

Miss Ellinwood said she had written the letter only after hearing comments about candidates from four persons and that she wrote as a private person, not as a council representative.

Sterling said he agreed with making the letter publicly known, since the sanitary district board would have been in an embarrassing position if any election procedure was questioned at a later date and the letter was only then made public.

The Social Security Act was passed in 1935 and has had major amendments in eight of the years since then. The act provides for social insurance, public assistance to the needy and children's services.

BIG BAD BAT BAGGED

This bat, captured on the outside ledge of an apartment on Novato's Fourth Street yesterday, appears to be saying "cheese" or maybe something worse as County Humane Officer Robert Miller poses it for a photograph. The bat, with a wing spread of seven inches, was captured after it disturbed apartment residents by hanging from window ledges. The Marin County Humane Society killed it after a check with residents showed it had not come in contact with humans and there was no need for a rabies test. (Independent-Journal photo by Jim Kean)

Ballot Fuss Emerges In Almonte Area

Candidate Held 'Dumping' Two In Sanitary Race

By BRUCE COLEMAN

Herbert E. Davis and Frank Shirado, two would-be candidates in Tuesday's election for Almonte Sanitary District board, today alleged they were "dumped from the race" by another candidate, incumbent, Frances M. Gelardi.

Davis said he felt it was too late to go into court to ask for an injunction permitting them to run. "We have a good case," he contended.

County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney told the county board of supervisors last night that it could do nothing about the dispute.

HEARS LETTER

The board heard a letter from the two men reporting they had been ruled off the ballot and asking for an investigation.

Supervisor Peter H. Behr, whose district includes Almonte, said he felt removal of the names from the ballot due to a technicality in their nomination petitions was undemocratic.

"Every time something like this happens somewhere, I intend to scream about it," said Behr.

QUICK ACTION

Maloney said the two men could go into court and seek an injunction, but they had better act quickly. Davis said today he did not think he nor Shirado would take this action.

Davis, a counsellor at San Francisco City College, and Shirado, a cabinet maker, were ruled off the ballot by the Almonte Sanitary District board on the basis that their petitions were defective.

Gelardi, board secretary, said Davis had printed instead of written his name, and that blank spaces were left in the places of nominee and circulator signatures on Shirado's petition.

CLOSING DATE

Davis claimed he took his petition to Gelardi on July 30, closing date for filing, and that Gelardi looked it over and gave him a signed form saying he accepted it.

"If anything had been wrong," said Davis, "Gelardi had time to inform us . . . Gelardi was fishing for minor technicalities to throw our petitions out." He said he also spoke for Shirado.

Davis and Shirado are vice

Transit Issue Is Going On November Ballot

THREATENING HOMES—A brush fire that started after an explosion swept through 27 acres in the Oak Manor area north of Fairfax yesterday afternoon, but was halted before it caused any structural damage. Clouds of smoke are shown rising from the Gregory Drive area, where the fire started. (Independent-Journal photo)

Despite Fear Of Defeat

Marin voters will have their chance to vote on formation of a county-wide transit district in November.

The Marin County Board of Supervisors last night unanimously voted to place the measure on the Nov. 3 ballot, in spite of fears by the Marin Council for Civic Affairs that there was not enough time to educate the public to assure passage.

Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker joined council president Margaret Azevedo in asking a delay, but went along with the rest of the board when time came for the vote.

SHORT END

"I'm not going to be on the short end of a 4-1 vote in favor of transit," Leydecker said. "I will be happy to defer to those who have proved their political wisdom as I have not."

Mrs. Azevedo, is asking for the delay , said the council found itself in a "peculiar position," since it has been supporting the transit proposal. She said that the many other important issues on the November ballot had hurt chances of organizing a campaign for transit.

LITTLE LOST

Supervisor William D. Fusselman disagreed. He said he felt the measure would pass easily, but that even if it did not, little would be lost.

County Administrator Alan Bruce said he had an unusual opportunity to say he agreed fully with Fusselman. "I see nothing that would be lost except time if we lost in November," said Bruce.

Supervisor Peter H. Behr predicted that the four cities in his district would support the measure wholeheartedly, and said transit was one issue where commuters could give organized support.

As to the crowded ballot, Behr said, "in this county other things are always going on."

The proposed district would be expected to undertake a study of the county's transit needs and their solution, and then, either by establishing its own system or by subsidizing Greyhound Bus Lines, make major improvements in the commute transportation system.

Thomas D. Hardcastle of Novato, a director of the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District, noted the bridge district is ready to put up $30,000 toward

Quick-Moving Grass, Brush Fire Burns Near Homes In Oak Manor

A quick-moving fire that threatened several homes burned 27 acres of grass, brush and trees in Oak Manor, north of Fairfax, yesterday afternoon.

County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom said there was no structural damage but the fire came within yards of several homes.

The fire started at the east end of Gregory Drive and swept uphill toward Steven Court and Oak Manor Drive, aided by low humidity and a moderate southeast wind.

Thirty firemen and 12 units from Marin County, Fairfax and San Anselmo fire departments stopped the blaze before it topped the hill and headed toward Terra Linda.

The cause of the fire was still under investigation today, but the chief said he believes it was accidental.

A survey crew from the Carlos Gonzales engineering firm working near Gregory Drive reported hearing a "loud explosion." Then fire started about 20 feet away from them.

Chief Bloom said the sound might have come from an exploding bottle.

Residents of the area were out watering their roofs for protection as ashes from the fire spread as far as Woodacre.

As smoke billowed up, the county fire department was flooded with calls from the San Geronimo Valley, Sleepy Hollow and Terra Linda.

The first fire call came at 12:42 p.m., and the blaze was brought under control at 2:05 p.m. after burning 25 acres. Then a hot spot flared up and burned another two acres before it was finally controlled at 2:45 p.m., Chief Bloom said.

Chief Bloom said there were 10 firemen and seven units from the county fire department, 11 men and two units from Fairfax, and three units and nine men from San Anselmo who fought the fire.

Parked Auto Causes Fire Truck Crash

A Tiburon fire truck smashed into a corner of the firehouse last night as it raced to answer an emergency call and the driver tried to avoid hitting a car parked in the firehouse driveway.

The truck was behind the firehouse, being used in a practice drill, when the call to an auto accident was received. It roared through the driveway between the firehouse and a do-it-yourself laundry, which is posted "no parking." A car belonging to Edward J. Delaney, 66 Summit Avenue, Mill Valley, was parked in the edge of the driveway.

The fire truck driver swerved to miss the car and the truck hit the edge of the firehouse, unseating the roof, cracking the walls of the room where fire commissioners were meeting, and smashing three ladders on the side of the truck. Chief Frank J. Buscher estimated total damage at $1,000.

Firemen continued on to give first aid to Ronald E. Boyle, 22, a Treasure Island sailor whose car had hit a utility pole anchor line off Paradise Drive near Mar West Street. Boyle was treated for cuts at Marin General Hospital.

Sheriff's deputies cited Delaney for parking too close to the fire station driveway.

Jensen Scheduled In Muni Court

San Rafael City Councilman Fred E. Jensen is scheduled to appear in Marin Municipal Court Tuesday on two misdemeanor charges following his arrest for allegedly pointing a loaded revolver at two San Rafael police officers.

The 64-year-old councilman was reported in satisfactory condition today at San Rafael General Hospital, where he is under the care of a psychiatrist, Dr. Samuel T. D. Anderson.

Jensen, who entered the hospital yesterday after his arrest, reportedly spent a "restful night."

He faces charges of brandishing a weapon in a threatening manner and of malicious mischief—the latter for damaging a door at the home of his ex-wife, Mrs. Juliet Bobo, at 211 California Street, San Rafael.

Jensen was arrested at Mrs. Bobo's home about 1 a.m. yesterday after he leveled a .38-caliber revolver at Officers John Riordan and Kenneth Homen, San Rafael police reported.

Jensen was disarmed and booked at county jail on suspicion of attempted murder, assault with a deadly weapon, burglary and battery and released under $2,200 bail. After receiving the report of the incident, the district attorney's office filed the two misdemeanor charges, eliminating the initial counts.

Police said Jensen was carrying two loaded revolvers, one in hand and one in his rear pocket, without a permit, but did not intend to press charges on that count.

While Jensen was being booked, jailers confiscated a small bottle of seconal tablets, about half full, that Jensen said he had been taking to help him sleep.

The sheriff's office checked the possibility that he might be charged with illegal possession of dangerous drugs, but San Rafael police said today they would not press that charge.

Jensen is scheduled to appear in court at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Viet Troops Score Victory; Government Still Confused

COMBINED AP & UPI

SAIGON — Government troops northeast of Saigon have inflicted the heaviest defeat on Communist guerrillas in weeks, it was reported today.

Three American military advisers accompanied South Vietnamese troops in the large-scale military operation near Quang Ngai, 330 miles northeast of Saigon. Government troops routed 400 to 500 guerrillas who were attacking three strategic hamlets.

The Reds began their attack before dawn yesterday and started to withdraw three hours later after vastly outnumbered defenders held them off. The defenders also delayed the Communist retreat long enough to permit regular troops to arrive.

In the ensuing battle the government regulars and local "popular" forces killed 79 guerrillas and captured two. The government said eight of its men were killed and 26 wounded.

Meanwhile, Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh announced today he has received and accepted the resignations of all cabinet ministers and secretaries of state who are army officers, including his own.

Vacation Used In Theft Scheme

San Rafael police today reported theft of a radio and guitar, valued at $225, by a clever scheme worked on a vacationing victim.

While Yvonne L. Vattuone of 9 Blossom Drive, San Rafael, was on vacation Aug. 1 through 8, someone using her name called Montgomery Ward and Co. in Corte Madera Aug. 3 and ordered the radio and guitar, police said.

The merchandise was delivered to the Vattuone home Aug. 6 and left on the porch because there was no one home. The unknown caller apparently picked them up there.

Mrs. Vattuone told police she knew nothing about it until she got the bill from the store.

Labor Day Patrolling Is Planned

The Marin County Office of the California Highway Patrol will have all available personnel, plus four officers from the San Francisco office, patroling county roads and highways over the Labor Day weekend.

The 44 officers will be seeking to lower the rising traffic accident and death rate in Marin County.

On coast roads there will be six highway patrolmen on motorcycles. Other officers will circulate throughout the county.

The highway patrol warned local drivers today that the majority of accidents occur within a six-mile radius of the motorist's home.

Thirty-one persons have been killed in traffic accidents in Marin County this year, eight more than at this time last year, which was a record year. There have been 1,387 accidents investigated by the highway patrol this year, compared to 1,319 last year.

Leader Of Cuba Trip, Investigators Clash

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A leader of a group of U.S. students who made a prohibited trip to Cuba this summer engaged today in a bristling verbal battle with members of the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

There were no physical clashes as the committee began its second day of hearings on the trip. But the morning session was punctuated by angry gavel pounding by the committee chairman Rep. Richard Ichord (D-Mo.) and acrimonious exchanges between the investigators and Edward Lemansky of New York City.

American Nazi Party chief George Lincoln Rockwell and two of his followers were admitted as spectators under heavy police guard.

Authorities changed signals and permitted the three Nazis to enter the hearing room. Two uniformed policemen flanked each one.

In order to avoid a repeat of yesterday, when a Nazi Party member attacked a witness in the room, police officials originally had planned to bar any Nazis today. But they changed tactics, apparently to avoid a run-in with Rockwell at the outset of the session. (See story, photo page 2.)

Lemansky, a 24-year-old Antioch College graduate, challenged the legality of the investigation and the right of the House group to question him. The New Yorker is an admitted member of a Communist-front group and led the group of 84 students to Cuba.

He freely acknowledged going to Cuba—"to find out the truth for myself"—but invoked constitutional grounds, including the Fifth Amendment protection against self-incrimination on two occasions.

Lemansky refused to say whether he was selected as leader of the trip by the Progressive Labor Movement, an organization which he belongs to and de-

Top Business Group Lines Up For LBJ

Major Political Coup Is Scored By President

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Lyndon B. Johnson, scoring a major political coup, has won a public endorsement from 45 top businessmen, most of them longtime supporters of the Republican party.

Meeting with Johnson at the White House last night, 26 representatives of the group organized a "National Independent Committee" to support the campaign of Johnson and Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, his vice presidential running mate.

INITIAL SPONSORS

Among the initial sponsors of the committee were such nationally known executives as industrialists Henry Ford II and Edgar F. Kaiser, retailer Ralph Lazarus, and financiers Thomas S. Lamont, Robert Lehman and Sidney J. Weinberg.

The list of organizers also included Robert B. Anderson who served in the Cabinet of Republican President Dwight D. Eisenhower as secretary of health, education and welfare.

The committee said in a press release that it would "attempt to acquaint the general republic with the confidence that prominent national leaders in all walks of life have in President Johnson and will urge that he be given four years of opportunity to serve all the people."

NO FAULT FOUND

Johnson surely found no fault with that sentiment, and addressing the group in the Cabinet room, said: "I commend all of you not only on the choice you have made for your country —but on your courage in now assuming the responsibility of your convictions."

John T. Connor, co-chairman of the committee and president of Merck and Co., told newsmen that about 75 per cent of the business and financial leaders joining in the endorsement of Johnson were registered Republicans or had generally supported GOP candidates in presidential elections.

Connor described himself as an independent Democrat. The other co-chairman, John L. Loeb, senior partner of the Wall Street brokerage firm of Carl M. Loeb, Rhoads and Co., said he was a registered Republican.

Claim Against Hoffa

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government has filed a claim in U.S. Tax Court for another $52,000 in back income taxes from Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa. The government says Hoffa failed to list more than $60,000 in legal fees paid by his Detroit Local 299.

Tam Valley Sanitary Tax Is Cut 15 Cents

Tax rate for Tamalpais Valley Sanitary District for 1964-65 is 25 cents per $100 assessed valuation, a drop of 15 cents from last year's 40-cent rate, Gale Bishel, director and publicity chairman for the board, said today.

Bishel said the 1964-65 budget is about $37,000 as against last year's $35,000 figure. The service charge per user has been reduced from $33 to $30 per year.

Sgt. York's Body Going Back Home

PALL MALL, Tenn. (AP)—Flags fly at half staff throughout this Cumberland Mountain hamlet today to honor Sgt. Alvin C. York, but the flag over the doughboy-hero's front porch flutters at the top of its staff.

York's body is being brought home. He died Wednesday in Nashville Veterans Hospital. Mountain folk who knew him as man and boy trudged past his casket in nearby Jamestown yesterday.

"Miss Gracey," his widow, had rejected Gov. Frank Clement's offer to let her husband lie in state at the Capitol in Nashville. The sun room of his modest farm home has been prepared for him and he will be buried in the family cemetery here tomorrow.

Full military honors will be given at the funeral for the civilian-soldier who won glory during the Battle of the Argonne Forest in 1918 when he killed 25 Germans and captured 132.

He won the Medal of Honor and also was decorated by France and Italy. Medals and pictures of the hero adorn the room where he lived out his last 10 years.

Negroes At School

BIRMINGHAM, Ala (UPI)—Nine Negro students started classes today in predominantly white schools with only a few segregationist pickets outside and a catcall or two. All was calm at four high schools and an elementary school as the city began the second year of integrated schooling. Authorities expressed confidence they were "over the hump."

Nazi Breaks Up Cuba Visit Hearing

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Nazi sympathizer's attack on a witness brought to a violent and abrupt end the opening session of the House Committee on Un-American Activities' inquiry into student travel to Cuba.

But the committee was to resume its hearings today with the same witness, Morton B. Salter, 21, of New York on the stand and police ready, as they were yesterday, for any eventuality.

Slater, one of 84 students who visited Cuba this summer, was starting to testify yesterday when a man later identified by police as Lon L. Dunaway, 28, of Arlington, Va., leaped upon the witness stand and tried to hit Slater.

Police brought down Dunaway, who was wearing the armband of the American Nazi Party. The presiding congressman, Rep. Richard Ichord (D-Mo.), gaveled the session to a close and rescheduled Salter's appearance for today.

Until that moment, the day had been calm, a far cry from the sessions a year ago when student travelers, dressed in blue jeans, sandals and beards, hooted and jeered and soon found themselves dragged out of the House caucus room and tossed onto the sidewalk outside the House office building.

This time, the student travelers showed up in quiet, conservative dress, no different from any other witness or audience on Capitol Hill. And they came armed with an instruction sheet urging them to behave in an orderly way, keep their comments to themselves and obey whatever an officer tells them to do. They followed the instructions.

Odds Seem Against Health Care Passage This Year

WASHINGTON (AP) — The odds appeared today to be against enactment of a Social Security health-care plan this year despite the 60-28 Senate passage of a bill which would set up such a system.

The health-care provisions were written into the bill by a 49-44 vote Wednesday. The House had included no such plan in the bill it passed. A Senate-House conference committee will prepare the final version.

The Senate named conferees who had voted 5-2 against the health benefits for the aged, although they would normally support the Senate plan in conference.

The House delegation is expected to be headed by Rep. Wilbur D. Mills (D-Ark.), longtime fore of a Social Security-financed health program. He is likely to have a majority on the group who will side with him.

Nevertheless, Democratic leaders in both branches of Congress said they were determined to push as hard as possible for inclusion of some form of health benefits in the final version of the bill.

The bill as it passed the Senate yesterday includes not only the health-care program but also increased cash payments for all those now on the Social Security rolls.

A House showdown on the health issue is not expected until the week after next.

Victim Struck Twice, Dies

HEALDSBURG (AP) — A 77-year-old Healdsburg man—who said he was run over twice by the same hit-run driver—died today.

Before his death, Melle Batiste told highway patrol officers he was first struck by a car while walking across Foreman Road.

Batiste said the driver stopped, walked back, found him alive, got back in his car, drove over him a second time, then drove off.

Alabama Execution

MONTGOMERY (UPI)—James W. Cobern, 39, a white farmhand whose execution was delayed 11 times by Gov. George Wallace, died in the electric chair early today for stealing a car. The slightly built handyman was the first person to be executed since Wallace began his administration two years ago.

Five In Race For Sanitary Board

Voters in the large Ross Valley Sanitary District will select two directors from a list of five candidates on the ballot in Tuesday's election.

Two of the candidates are the two incumbents whose four-year terms are expiring. They are Harold E. Payton of 4 Glen Road, San Anselmo, and Peter A. Ribar of 106 Diablo Drive, Kentfield.

PAYTON, former deputy county assessor, has served on the sanitary board 16 years. Since his retirement from county employment in 1958, he has been in the insurance business. A native of San Francisco, he has lived in Marin 56 years.

RIBAR, an attorney, has served on the sanitary district board six years. He has served as president and as secretary. A native of Pueblo, Colo., he has lived in Marin County 14 years.

Seeking to unseat the incumbents are:

WILLIAM MAIER, 36, of 100 Sycamore Avenue, San Anselmo, owner of William Maier Realty. His father served 20 years on the district board. Maier said he is seeking the post for experience, explaining that he hopes eventually to play a greater role in local politics. Born in Fairfield, Maier has lived in Marin 34 years.

DAN G. LEBAKOS, 39, of 17 Fay Drive, Kentfield, an insurance man and real estate broker, declares that the 15 cents per $100 assessed value tax rate the district now charges, though not high, probably could be lower. He is also in favor of the proposed flood control project on Corte Madera Creek as a means of curing winter sewerage problems. Lebakos is a native of San Anselmo.

CECIL W. BOSWELL, 43, of 75 Corte Cayuga, Greenbrae, is a manufacturers' representative for Robbins and Myers, Inc., makers of motors and pumps, and Weil Pump Co. He is a native of Dallas. Boswell says that his work with mechanical engineers makes him well qualified for service on the district. He said he is running because he sees it as his civic duty.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Polling places are at the Kentfield firehouse; at the district office, 11 Library Place in San Anselmo, and at the Fairfax branch library at 55 Broadway, Fairfax.

Trial Bus Service Is Already In Trouble

Trial bus service between downtown San Rafael and Canal Street is in financial difficulties already due to lack of passengers, it was learned today.

Operated part-time since Aug. 17 by the San Rafael-Richmond Bridge Bus Lines, it was estimated by owner Cecil J. Allen that $8 a day in fares would be needed to maintain the line.

Less than $30 in total fares has been taken in, according to Mrs. Anne Malacrida of 199 Canal Street, representative of the apartment dwellers. She said it is hoped traffic will increase when school starts.

The jitney bus will leave Canal Street at 8:30 a.m. and drop students off at Third Street and Grand Avenue. It will pick them up at 3:30 p.m. at Third Street and Tamalpais Avenue, said Mrs. Malcrida.

The bus also makes runs from Canal Street to downtown at 10:15 and 11:15 a.m. and from downtown to Canal Street at 1:15 and 4:15 p.m. A group of apartment residents will meet Wednesday at the offices of Helman and Helman, public accountants, 523 Fourth Street, to consider the bus line's future, said Mrs. Malcrida.

Chile Election Shows Country Veering To Left

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—Chileans were to vote today for a president. No matter who wins the country will be veering to the left.

Last night, only hours before the voters went to bed, the Communist Party already was talking as if its candidate, Socialist Sen. Salvador Allende, had won.

Communist Party chief Luis Corvalan told a news conference he hoped a "mutual understanding" could be reached for a government takeover of the giant U.S. companies that produce 90 per cent of Chile's copper.

Allende, 56, is opposed by another senator, Eduardo Frei, 53, who is a member of the Christian Democratic Party and a moderate leftist. He favors more state control over foreign owned companies, but also says he wants to encourge more U.S. investments.

Political experts figured Frei might win by a narrow margin.

Radio Service Hearing Is Set

John R. Gillanders, California Public Utilities Commission examiner, has been named hearing officer for the Sept. 15 hearing at the Civic Center on application for radio call service permits asked by two firms.

Applicants are United Ambulance Co. and Redwood Radio Telephone Corp. Both have asked for permits to install transmitters and provide radio service for telephones in autos.

The hearing, scheduled for three days, will begin at 10 a.m.

Two Meetings Scheduled To Air Hamilton Disputes

Two meetings were scheduled today at Hamilton Air Force Base to air complaints of Air Force personnal about civilian authorities and of Novatans about the Air Force.

The first meeting will be next Tuesday noon at the Officers Club on the air base, announced Col. Ralph M. Wanderer Jr., base commander. He said Novato, Marin County and state law enforcement officials will be invited to hear complaints of Raphael Village residents about traffic through their area.

The second meeting will be held one week later, the time and place not yet designated. Novato civic leaders and residents will be invited, said the colonel. It will be to hear Novatans' complaints about annoyance from planes because of a new flight pattern adopted by the base last year.

Raphael Village is a Wherry Housing Act development which belongs to the Air Force but is part of Novato. Unlike the base itself, it is under civilian authority—specifically, that of the city.

On Aug. 23, a group of Raphael Village residents drew up a list of complaints about traffic problems — particularly speeding — and began circulating petitions to be presented to the air base commander.

The complaints result in large part from alleged increase in speeding since completion by the State Division of Highways of the Ignacio Boulevard-Highway 101 overpass. The new route sends cars into Raphael Village at higher speeds — as residents were warned it would by a story in the Scramble, the airbase newspaper.

Residents ask (1) reduction in the speed limit from 25 to 15 miles per hour, (2) marking of pedestrian crosswalks, and (3) closer police patrol.

Their complaints will be presented to county and state authorities since part of the route generating the traffic trouble is outside the city and is patrolled by the California Highway Patrol.

The Novatans' complaint, to be aired at the second meeting, is that the change in the "bad weather approach" to the air base adopted last year sends planes at low elevation over Novato homes.

The approach to which the Novatans object is that which brings planes over Little Mountain, a 600-foot hill west of Novato, and over a residential area.

Until last year, a "bad weather approach" from the northwest was used. The Air Force made the change, according to Hamilton sources, because the old approach took aircraft dangerously close to Mount Burdell, which rises 1,600 feet.

Mrs. John Machado of 1424 Dawes Street, Novato, who is spearheading a fight to have the former flight pattern restored, contends that no one objected to it until after building started in Bel Marin Keys — directly under the northwest approach.

Most of the time, Hamilton planes used a southerly approach, but in recent weeks they have been using the "bad weather" pattern.

president and president, respectively of the Almonte Improvement Club.

Elimination of the two leaves five persons running for three positions on the board. Three are incumbents, Robert A. Alexander, chairman, Gelardi, and Richard J. Dawe. Also running are David J. Beasley of 152 Almonte Boulevard, a member of the Marin County Building Inspection Department, and Rober Raudso of 180 Stanford Avenue, electrical engineering consultant and builder.

Both Gelardi and Raudso have gone on record in opposition to directors receiving pay for their jobs. Directors now receive $25 per meeting.

Gelardi says there is not enough work that board members should be compensated and Raudso said $5 a meeting might be all right but $25 is "absolutely excessive."

Weekend Starts With Tragic Death Of Family

MERCED (UPI) — A vacation trip ended in tragedy early today when a station wagon with nine persons in it plunged off a freeway and hurtled 265 feet into a railroad embankment, killing eight of its occupants.

The ninth occupant, a 6-year-old boy, wasn't expected to live.

It was the worst accident in the nation at the start of the Labor Day weekend.

The victims were identified as Mrs. Doris Traxler, 38, of North Highland, the wife of an Air Force staff sergeant who is stationed in Thailand, six of their seven children, Wayne Jr., Charmaine, about 10, Dwight, Caroline, Gelda and Stacey, and Mrs. Traxler's brother, Gilbert Gallegos, 33, of Santa Ana.

Mrs. Traxler's other child, Duane, 6, was hospitalized in extremely critical condition and authorities said his chances of survival were poor.

Class For Barbers Is Being Planned

A barber apprenticeship course, sponsored by the College of Marin, will begin Sept. 17 at Novato High School.

The new course will bring the number of college sponsored apprenticeship classes to seven. Joseph Pexonella of Rohnert Park will teach the class, which will meet in room 14 of the high school every Thursday from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. Enrollment is limited to graduates of accredited barber colleges who are working as apprentices.

Women Voters Get A Hand From Men

Eight persons will serve on the men's advisory committee for the League of Women Voters annual fund drive Sept. 14-19 which has set $1,290 as this year's goal, according to Mrs. Walter Neale of San Rafael, finance chairman.

They are Arnold B. Come, Fred F. Enemark, Roger W. Hedin, William P. Murray, John L. Rockwell, Rex T. Silvernale, Corroll A. Snyker and Hugh Turner. All fund raising work will be done by volunteers, said Mrs. Neale.

Alumni Dinner-Dance

College of Marin Alumni Assn. will hold a dinner-dance Sept. 12 at 6:30 p.m. at Dominic's Harbor Restaurant in San Rafael. All former College of Marin students are invited to the event which is being held to raise funds for an alumni scholarship fund, said John R. Kunst, dinner chairman.

a $90,000 study on transit. He recommended a November vote.

After voting to put the measure on the ballot, the board named Behr to write the ballot argument in favor of the measure.

County Clerk George H. Gnoss said that Sept. 20 would be the last day to accept ballot arguments on the other side, but supervisor Fusselman convinced him to push the date back to Sept. 25.

Leydecker, in asking for delay, said he felt the opposition to formation of a transit district was largely "political." He recounted the history of the legislation allowing formation of a Marin Transit District.

Then he said, "A person in this county took it upon himself to potshot this bill."

He never mentioned his opponent in the coming election, John F. McInnis, by name, but said he was worried about support from one city, San Rafael, of which McInnis is mayor.

But he said all will stay on for the time being.

In other words, the rule of South Vietnam was as confused as at any point in its history.

For the time being, Khanh said, the three-general triumvirate will continue to run the show under a new name-steering committee.

Asked about the announcement earlier in the day that one of the triumvirate members, Lt. Gen. Tran Thien Khiem, had resigned, Khanh said:

"General Khiem is still a member of the three-man steering committee, but he has resigned from his government post."

Khiem was defense minister and chief of the armed forces under Khanh. He is the only Roman Catholic on the renamed triumvirate.

Khiem had been quoted as saying he had "had enough of the Buddhists running the country."

Khanh said he will lead the nation for the next two critical months, but is prepared to step down once democracy is established.

Dog Ordinance To Be Enforced

The city of Sausalito will begin immediately to enforce new controls against dog nuisances in downtown commercial zones, City Mgr. Charles A. Brown said today.

All dogs at large, downtown, whether licensed or not, will be picked up in cooperation with the Marin County Humane Society, he said.

New controls were adopted last November, said Brown, but enforcement could not commence until a new agreement between the board of supervisors and the Humane Society effective in July.

"Sausalito dogs," said Brown, "have not only created sidewalk nuisances but have obstructed traffic and caused extensive damage to the city's downtown park plaza and other landscaped areas."

Ziggy The Chimp Strikes Out

Ziggy, the chimpanzee at the Louise A. Boyd Natural Science Museum in San Rafael, might be just the batter the San Francisco Giants need in their pennant drive, but he struck out yesterday.

Ziggy was sitting in his cage when three boys came along and slipped a baseball bat inside to see what he would do.

Ziggy did what any red-blooded chimp would do. He picked up the bat and took a few swings, hitting nothing.

After his third strike, the animal keeper, took the bat away from Ziggy and sent him back to the bench.

Ziggy also is known as an avid baseball fan, watching games at Albert Field from his cage and cheering wildly.

College Registration Is Expected To Climb

Registration of fulltime College of Marin students for the fall semester is expected to be greater than the 2,200 enrollment forecast, Irwin P. Diamond, dean of students, reported last night.

He told the college's trustees that 1,019 were continuing at the Kentfield campus with 1,040 new students already registered and approximately 200 expected to register today.

Registration figures for the college's adult program including summer school and extended day classes, have also shown an increase, Ellsworth R. Briggs, dean of adult education, reported.

Growth in the adult education program during the past four years was 50 per cent; 75 per cent in summer school programs for adults; 263 per cent in adults taking classes for credit, and 630 per cent in extended day registrations, he said.

The College of Marin Board also:

1. Approved purchase agreements for acquisition of property adjacent to the campus on the east side of Laurel Avenue. The parcels, owned by Alice Teresa Bacigalupi, the Northwestern Pacific Railroad Co. and Margaret M. Yost, Eugenia A. Marsh and David Bacigalupi Jr., will be purchased by the college for a total of $23,500. Negotiations are still underway for purchase of a parcel owned by Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Alander at 29 Laurel Avenue.

2. Received a report from Charles F. Herndon, college counselor and coordinator of cooperative training, on placement of students who have had electronic data processing training at the college. He urged that the trainees get a general education at college rather than training for a specific job or use of a specific machine which the employers would prefer to provide.

3. Set the next board meeting at 8 p.m. Sept. 17 in room 24, Harlan Hall, on the Kentfield campus.

Inverness Meeting

Directors of the Inverness Improvement Assn. will meet at 8:30 p.m. today at the Inverness firehouse.

Novato Girl Leaves For Peace Corps

Novato's second youth to join the Peace Corps left Sunday for Hilo, Hawaii, to take up training for the work.

She is Sara (Sally) Googins, who was graduated in June from University of California in Berkeley with a major in psychology.

Miss Googins, 22, who was born in Dunsmuir, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Googins of 1027 Simmons Lane, Novato. Her grandfather was Arnold Dolcini, long-time Hicks Valley rancher.

She will be given special training in Hilo until Nov. 7, and then, if she qualifies, will be assigned to some place in the Philippines. She has been studying Tagalog, principal native language of the Philippines.

Miss Googins told her mother that she joined the Peace Corps because "she wanted to serve her fellow man."

Jeff Mareck of 100 Chamberlain Lane, Novato, is serving in the Peace Corps in Sierra Leone.

Card Playing In Cafeteria To Be Limited At College

Card-playing College of Marin students who have been using the cafeteria for bridge sessions during the school day lost a game last night to the board of trustees.

Lloyd Stasiowski, president of the Associated Students, presented a resolution from the student executive council, asking the board to limit card playing to five tables in a corner of the crowded cafeteria.

The administration, however, recommended that cards and other table games be allowed in the cafeteria only from 2 to 5 p.m. when the eating area is closed.

"It's a matter of using the area for the benefit of a majority of the students," Irwin P. Diamond, dean of students, said.

Another student leader, Paul Molinari, said that it would be easier to enforce the limitation if games were allowed at any time during the day but only in the specified area.

"The cafeteria is always crowded, whether the students are playing cards or not," Stasiowski said.

The trustees followed the recommendation of Diamond and Stephen E. Epler, college president, to limit table games in the cafeteria to a specified area and time.

"The increased enrollment and the heavier load on the cafeteria and the need for providing space for eating and uses more important than games is the reason for our recommendation," Epler said

Man, 23, Jailed For Burglaries

Rodney H. Beck, 23, of San Francisco was in Marin County Jail today, charged with burglaries of three Belvedere and three Corte Madera area homes.

Beck was arrested yesterday by San Francisco police as he attempted to pawn a television set allegedly stolen from 1015 Meadowsweet Drive, Corte Madera, about two weeks ago. The car he was driving allegedly was stolen in Oakland.

Belvedere police charged Beck with burglary of the Lewis Vogler home, 124 Bay View Avenue, the night of Aug. 28. The home was entered through an unlocked side door and a stereo record player was stolen.

Beck is charged also with taking a television set from the home of Mrs. Edith Allessio, 210 Belvista Avenue, on the night of Aug. 31, entering through an unlocked sliding glass door. He is charged with taking a suit coat, three shirts, small change and an electric razor from the home of Dr. John M. Graves, 120 Madrone Avenue on Sept. 2, entering through a bedroom window.

He also is charged with the burglary of the television set in Corte Madera and with taking a transistor radio from an apartment at 1441 Casa Buena Drive, in the unincorporated Corte Madera area, about two weeks ago.

He allegedly took an electric razor, jacket and cuff links from the J. William Bastian home, 1449 Casa Buena Drive in the unincorporated area, about two weeks ago.

Bail was set at $3,850.

Power Cut For Homes In Novato

Some residents of Novato may have been late for work this morning as electric power to 125 homes was out for approximately two hours during the night after a tree limb broke a 12,000-volt line at 1744 Novato Boulevard.

Novato police reported the limb fell across the line at 2:20 a.m. Power was cut to 125 homes, said Lee Wise, Novato manager of Pacific Gas and Electric Co. It was restored to all but 30 homes by shortly after 4 a.m., and to the last 30 by 8:30 a.m., he said.

At 9:24 p.m. yesterday the Novato Fire Department was called to 1748 Novato Boulevard—next door to where the later break occurred—after a tree limb fell and short-circuted electric wires there. It did not interrupt service, Wise said.

The City of Novato has hired Davy Tree Service of San Francisco to trim the big pine trees on Novato Boulevard.

Lawrence A. Coleman, city director of public works, said the limb which cut the power appeared sound but was rotten inside.

Rabid Skunks Appear To Be On The Rise

Rabid skunks were practically coming in pairs today.

Tests completed by the Marin County Health departed showed today a skunk killed in San Anselmo last week was rabid. Meanwhile tests were to begin on a skunk killed in Tiburon yesterday after it behaved in the crazed manner characteristic of rabies.

A week ago yesterday, Ted F. Lala of 38 Holstein Road, San Anselmo, killed a skunk at his home after the family dog charged the animal and it made no effort to escape or defend itself.

County Health Officer Carolyn B. Albrecht said the dog had been vaccinated against rabies, but it will be held under observation for two weeks as a precautionary measure.

The Tiburon skunk was reported by Mrs. William B. Newman of 841 Tiburon Boulevard, who saw the animal totter into her front yard and then lie flat on the lawn. A neighbor, Beatrice L. Breese, 835 Tiburon Boulevard, shot the skunk with a rifle.

Findings on the test of the Tiburon skunk will be announced next Wednesday. If it is rabid, it will be the 17th rabid skunk reported in Marin this year. That is well over the record for rabid skunks.

Dr. Albrecht reported that tests on a skunk shot by a San Rafael policeman Sunday at the George A. Alexander home at 312 Riviera Drive, San Rafael, proved negative today.

Art Sale Set For Johnson

An "art sale for President Johnson" will be set up this weekend in Sausalito during the Sausalito Art Festival.

Hugh T. McCann Jr., co-chairman of the special events committee for the Johnson campaign, announced the art booth will be located in an open lot adjacent to the Station antique shop at Bee Street and Bridgeway.

Michael Bry, Sausalito photographer, and Mrs. Anne Bardwell, Sausalito area co-chairman, set up the booth.

Revolution Is Seen For Reading, Writing

The teaching of reading and writing for primary school students is about to undergo a revolution similar to that which created "New Math," about 200 Marin County teachers were told today.

The magic word is "structure," which is going to receive new emphasis in the classroom, according to Thorsten R. Carlson, professcr of education at Sonoma State College.

He said researchers have discovered that pre-school children can talk in very complex and interesting sentences, when they are interested in the subject matter. Then they go to the first grade and are handed the "Run, Dick, Run" type of first reader. After awhile they are writing the same kind of sentences they find in the readers, rather than those they use in everyday speech.

Carlson, who is co-author of the state spelling textbook, said good writers are interested in the form and organization of their paragraphs and sentences. Poor writers are more interested in mechanics. The same may be true for teachers, he declared.

Carlson said the main problem in teaching spelling may be that there is little motivation to learn good spelling.

The need for discipline and drill has not been overcome by new methods and textbooks, he contended.

In general, the new emphasis, for which the first textbooks are being written, will be on the use of sentences with a new dexterity, he said.

His talk was the principal one at a Marin County Teachers' Institute at the Civic Center, mainly for teachers from rural school districts.

Stolen Watch Traced To Man In Custody

Theft of a $275 watch from the home of Dr. Sherman O. Wirt of 79 Walnut Avenue, Corte Madera, has been traced to a San Rafael man in custody in San Francisco on a narcotics charge.

Corte Madera Police Inspector Harold N. Hockett said today that William Newton Thater, 38, of 79 Woodland Avenue was taken into custody by San Francisco police two days ago after attempting to sell narcotics to undercover officers.

A police check revealed that Thater pawned the watch belonging to Mrs. Helen Calani, who lives at the same address as Wirt, on June 9 in San Francisco.

The watch was stolen May 29 shortly after Mrs. Calani and Wirt were taken into custody on charges of murdering a Virginia City, Nev., contractor.

County To Save On Roof Repair

Marin County will save some money after all on repair of the county Civic Center roof, the board of supervisors learned last night.

Architect Aaron Green of the Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation said his firm will pick up part of the tab, and one of the original sub-contractors on the building will also share the cost.

A bid for only part of the job this week was $12,985, far above the $10,000 estimate for that phase of the work.

That part, Green said, should be the county's cost, since it was for an additional covering of the roof which had not been called for originally.

The other problems concerned the leaky skylight and leaks where the expansion joints in the building met the skylight. The architects and the sub-contractor for the skylight will share costs for repairs there, Green said.

Attending Course

Navy Capt. Griswold L. Moeller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis N. Moeller of 348 North Almenar Drive, Greenbrae, is attending a 10-month course at the Industrial College of the Armed Forces, Washington, D.C., the nation's highest joint military educational institution teaching the management of logistic resources.

Museum Group Backing Arts Auditorium Plan

Directors of the Marin Museum Assn. yesterday voted to endorse Architect Aaron Green's suggestion that the performing arts auditorium for the new fairgrounds at the Civic Center have a partly sloping floor.

Directors also urged that the building have facilities for display of visual arts, association president Mrs. Edward Hayden reported today. Guests at yesterday's meeting included representatives of the new Stinson-Beach Arts Foundation and the Sausalito Arts Foundation.

Areas of cooperative effort in cultural services for the county were discussed, Mrs. Hayden said.

Speakers at the next meeting, Sept. 17, will be County Administrator Alan Bruce and Rudy Turk, director of the Richmond Civic Art Center. The meeting will be held at the Civic Center.

San Jose Board Rejects Bids On New School Room

San Jose School District trustees last night rejected all three bids received for construction of the Loma Verde School multi-use room, and decided to combine the project with a similar room at San Jose Intermediate School in calling for new bids.

There was a $100,000 error in the low bid of Clifford D. Francis of Santa Rosa, who submitted a figure of $19,875 when the total should have been $119,987—just $987 over the architect's estimate, reported Supt. Ralph Giovanniello. Other bids were $136,900 by Fostmeier Construction Co. of Petaluma and $146,500 by M. Royce Hall of Napa, both too far above the estimate.

The trustees authorized starting a new school at Hamilton Air Force Base, in the education center near the Noncommissioned Officers Academy. This seven-room school will have two first grades, two second grades, one third grade and two fourth grades for children living on the base.

The district will use four rooms rent-free, Giovanniello said. The board will open bids next Wednesday on three portable classrooms.

Neill Whitman, resource teacher at Pacheco School, was named principal of the new school, which will be called Hamilton School.

Charles Lavaroni, assistant superintendent in charge of educational services, presented a plan for outdoor education in the district. Robert Long, Pacheco School teacher, was named to coordinate the program.

The board meeting of Sept. 21 was designated a "get acquainted" meeting for the 10 new teachers in the district.

Retail Clerks Union Pickets Own Members

Because of a contract dispute in Stockton, members of the Retail Clerks Union are picketing their own members in San Rafael.

This oddity has been going on for two weeks at Mac Department Store, 555 Francisco Boulevard. The store here has a contract with Local 1119 and there is no labor trouble with management, according to a union spokesman.

The pickets were put up as a customer boycott after contract negotiations between Retail Clerks Union Local 197 and Mac Disco Mart in Stockton failed. The pickets in San Rafael, normally just two, have been handing out statements prepared by Local 197 claiming that the union represents most of the employees but Stockton management has refused to recognize it.

Mrs. Dorothy Simon, office manager for Local 1119 in San Rafael, who explained the situation here today, said there has been no recent report from Stockton on the dispute.

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

Good German Cooking Found In Downtown San Rafael

Good German cooking in a downtown San Rafael location is the specialty attraction of Bob and Meta Kringe at the new Black Forest Inn at 1315 Fourth Street. This place was formerly Coppa's Cafe and still has that sign on it. But some remodeling and a lot of repainting have been done. The counter is new and everything is neat and clean the way you'd like it to be in a German-type restaurant—or any other type, for that matter.

It's open every day except Sunday for breakfast, lunch and dinner—except, too, for Saturday when it closes about 5 p.m.

Lunches are already doing very well here, though it's been only about two weeks since the Kringes opened. Not much German fare on the lunch. That's the dinner specialty.

Sauerbraten, wiener, schnitzel, kasseler rippchen, pig knuckles, Schweizer bratwurst—these are some of the entrees. There are cold cuts, potato pancakes—and if you're lucky you may come along when there is something like apple fritters for dessert.

Now don't go and take a big crowd here—there just isn't that much room. Counter, stools and a few booths are its capacity. Poke your nose inside the door and if there's an empty table—grab it quick! Otherwise come back later and try again until you find one.

AT DOMINIC'S these days, manager Mario Brenta has what I guess you might call "food insurance" in the kitchen. Besides Lars Eric Benson, who is new day chef here, Karl Sheverman still heads the night staff de cuisine—and he now has with him as his assistant Earl Hummel, formerly of Tomahawk Lodge.

It's not surprising therefore to see that Dominic's continues to be filled with customers in spite of recently developed competition. I was especially struck by the number of young couples. And it's a good place to bring the youngsters, giving them that experience of eating out at a nice dinery and sharpening their manners.

Food is wholesome and well prepared. Prices of many dinners are in the medium bracket.

Weekends are well attended by out of town customers—who arrive by auto as well as by boat.

Banquet holders this fall will find the upstairs Gourmet Room, now under construction, viewsome and just about right for the average size party — from 50 to 120 persons.

The Musee d'Art International downstairs will continue to be used for larger gatherings. Just the right capacity, for instance, for College of Marin alumni who will gather there for a dinner dance a week from tomorrow night. About 200 to 250 are expected. Incidentally, all former College of Marin students are invited to participate in this ($12 per couple). Send checks to College of Marin Alumni Assn., Kentfield.

NOT TO BE OUTDONE by her husband, Armand, who is manager at Bob's of Marin, Mrs. Nancy T. Allegra has opened her own enterprise — Skipper's Coffee Shop, at 1696 Tiburon Boulevard, Tiburon.

It seats about 25, has a soda fountain and specializes in home made sausages and Italian-type meat sandwiches. Open Tuesdays through Sundays from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Closed on Mondays.

HENRY, ubiquitous black bantam rooster at Franchini's Chateau, may not be so easily spotted guarding the doorway these days. If you have to look harder to find him, it's likely he'll be with his bride—a small, black and white Plymouth Rock of undeniable "poulchritude" and known to the Franchini staff as Hilda. They claim this is close as they can get to the sound of Henry's favorite term of endearment in addressing her.

Franchini's, by the way, will be closed Monday—Labor Day.

MAN OF TWO HATS is Jerry Boccignone at the new Redwood Club in the Kaehler-Farrar Building, San Rafael. At 7 a.m. he's in the kitchen wearing a chef's hat and setting up the food department for the day. Just when there's a shift of chapeaux, I'm not sure, but by evening he's the suave maitre d', greeting the customers.

Hearing Set On Open Burning For Farmers

Bay Area Air Pollution Control District will hold a public hearing Oct. 7 at 11 a.m. at its office at 1480 Market Street, San Francisco on extension of an agricultural exception to its regulation limiting open burning.

Marin County Farm Bureau directors will meet Monday night to decide whether to send a representative to the meeting.

The exception, which allows farmers to burn large areas for control of brush area or trash disposal, expires Nov. 1, said Thomas F. Brennan, enforcement division senior engineer.

Loss of the exception would force farmers to haul trash to a dumping area, said Brennan. He said the district staff will recommend the exception be continued for two years.

Marin Dining And Wining

PIERRE GRIGAUT of La Petite Auberge, who returned a couple of weeks ago with his family from a vacation trip to France, is disillusioned.

After 20 years absence, and in spite of his accent, apparently a few changes have taken place in Pierre — or maybe it's France that has changed. Either way, it seems he wasn't looked upon as a native Frenchman—but as an American tourist. Ask him to tell you about it.

DOES OUTSIDE CATERING. Christine Bolton of Cloud 5, Novato tells me this place is well equipped to handle large outside serving jobs. The liquor license is also adaptable to serving groups off premises.

MR. K. in downtown San Rafael has started serving dinners —roast sirloin of beef, veal cutlets, chicken fried steak, seafoods and other items. Prices run $1.35 to $1.85 and there's a child's plate. Service starts at 4 p.m. and lasts until 9 p.m. There are a few booths here now.

NOW OPEN TUESDAYS. Gregory's Restaurant on Paradise Drive, Corte Madera, has added another day to its serving schedule for lunches and dinners. Still closed on Mondays.

SOME NEW PICTURES are being shown at Sabella's—right inside the doorway between dining room and foyer. Several Spanish artists are represented.

LE CHALET BASQUE in Santa Venetia isn't able to accept reservations by telephone for Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights—except for large groups of around eight people. In such cases Raymond Coscarat likes to know in advance the time of arrival so he can work out table arrangements for seating as quickly as possible. Smaller groups should not have to wait too long.

FRANK GALLI has a new slogan (with apologies to Teacher's Scotch): "No water improves the flavor of Scotch like Ignacio water."

Prisoner Acquitted In Stabbing

Leonard G. Golledge, 24-year-old San Quentin Prison inmate who twice won mistrials on a charge of stabbing a fellow prisoner, yesterday was acquitted by a third Marin Superior Court jury.

The panel returned at 2:10 p.m. after three hours deliberation.

Golledge was accused of stabbing Paul F. Weeks, 31, with a 12-inch metal rod last Sept. 24. Weeks, serving time for lewd and lascivious conduct from Los Angeles County, testified he was in the prison gymnasium, with a weight barbell held high over his head, when he was first stabbed in the neck.

He said he lowered the weight quickly but was struck again, twice in the back, once in the chest, and another time in the left arm.

Both previous trials for Golledge, serving six months to 15 years on a burglary conviction, ended in hung juries, and mistrials were declared.

Peter Allen Smith, public defender, represented Golledge in the latest trial. W. L. Mackey, deputy district attorney, prosecuted.

Mill Valley Chamber Is Presented Plaque

A plaque was presented to the Mill Valley Chamber of Commerce by the Mill Valley Teachers Assn. yesterday at the seventh annual welcome to Mill Valley teachers held at Sabella's Restaurant.

The plaque, which reads, "In appreciation for their support and loyalty through the years in our common goal for better schools," was presented to Edward C. Saunders, chamber president, by Andrew Gillespie, president of the association. The event is sponsored by the chamber.

Public Foots Cost Of Featherbedding

The make-work union contract provisions fastened onto our nation's railroads have been scandalous for a generation or more.

A government regulated public utility like a railroad seems an especially fertile field for the nurturing of make-work practices.

Railroad freight rates and passenger fares are fixed by regulatory bodies. They are based in large part on costs.

When make-work practices are instituted and expanded, costs go up. Freight rates and fares must be raised.

And the public foots the bill. You may not pay a freight bill directly, or buy a railroad ticket very often. But when you buy a refrigerator, or an automobile, or almost anything else not manufactured right here in Marin, the price you pay includes the freight cost. Even if you buy an automobile assembled in Alameda County 'cross the bay, the price you pay includes the cost of shipping the materials out from the East.

There is no escape. The public pays for make-work practices on the railroads.

Why doesn't railroad management demand an end to featherbedding?

Because railroads are a public utility, there is great pressure to settle their collective bargaining disputes without strikes. This leads to arbitration by politicians.

The unions have the votes; the management has few votes. Arbitration by politicians results in the unions getting all the best of it—with featherbedding thrown in for good measure.

But the public has become aroused. Arbiters have to face a third force, the public.

So arbitration in the past several years has gone against many featherbedding practices.

The results of this enlightened arbitration is being denied to us here in California. We are still cursed by an obsolete "full crew" law.

This is what Prop. 17 on the November ballot is all about. A YES vote on Prop. 17 would amend the ancient and obsolete "full crew" law and clear the way for application of the enlightened arbitration results to California railroad operation.

Would there be serious layoffs?

It is hard to see where there would be with railroad job opportunities what they are. The Northwestern Pacific, for instance, has hired 13 brakemen, clerks and telegraphers since Jan. 1. These hirings would more than offset layoffs, if any.

Is safety involved? The arbiters could find no detriment to safety. The railroads, being government-regulated, still would be required to provide every reasonable safety precaution.

It's time we all stood up for count on the question of featherbedding.

If you are against featherbedding, vote YES on Prop. 17.

The Back To School Blues

With the first tang of autumn in the Marin air and all the stores featuring back-to-school sales, a bitter-sweet melancholy stirs the spirit.

For most of us, vacation is over. The loveliness of our fall season is still ahead of us, but beyond appear the chill, wet days of winter and the end of outdoor living.

Most children are ambivalent about returning to school. Inwardly, they cannot make up their minds whether they like the return to discipline of the classroom. But all children enjoy the feeling of accomplishment that goes with learning.

But their days of freedom are over after Labor Day and all America buckles down to work a little bit harder.

MARIN POLITICAL VIEWS

Registration Deadline Nears; Barry Is 'Seen' In San Rafael

By WAT TAKESHITA

HERE'S ANOTHER reminder. If you aren't registered as a voter for the Nov. 3 elections, your last chance is on Sept. 10.

You saw Barry Goldwater walking in and out of the Melvin Marlowe Realty office in San Rafael? Well, no need to get excited.

TAKESHITA

There's a fellow working there by the name of Dal Bon who looks like the GOP presidential nominee.

SPEAKING OF resemblances, don't you think Hugh Haegelin of the county clerk's office looks something like Gov. George Romney of Michigan. And there's a striking resemblance between Carroll Snyker of the Marin Development Foundation and French Foreign Minister Couve de Murville, who was featured on a national magazine recently.

After all this fuss about the "500 new residents" at the Synanon Foundation property at Marconi, they probably won't get here in time to vote in the West Marin election of Nov. 3. Shucks!

IS THERE any truth to the rumor that Mrs. Don Bradley of Ross is not going to participate in Marin politics hereafter?

Let's hope she at least takes part in some of these political fashion shows. The last time we saw her, she was one of the star performers.

Some of the officials at the Terra Linda headquarters of Citizens for Goldwater-Miller appeared privately peeved, when the office formally opened last week. Not one member of the Republican Central Committee showed up to give them an official sendoff.

THEY'RE SUGGESTING a new slogan to go with, "All the way with LBJ." It goes something like: "Let's all stump for Hubert Humpf."

Everybody is getting into the act of trying to get a more lucid definition of extremism and moderation.

The latest one, making the courthouse rounds, seems more loose than lucid. But it goes like this:

"In the pursuit of virtue, extremism is moderate. But in the pursuit of sin, even moderation is too extreme."

Latest report out of West Marin is that James Dougan of Bolinas is actively campaigning in the Bolinas-Stinson area for the re-election of Supervisor George Ludy.

Panelist Charges Distorted Reporting

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The August 27, issue of the Independent - Journal contains an article describing some of the discussion aired that morning on the KTIM "Marin Sounding Board" in which the possibility of interdistrict transfer of students between Marin City and Mill Valley was considered.

Statements were attributed to me and inferences drawn, the inaccuracy of which should be noted and corrected. It was stated that, "Trustee Wolfe took the opportunity to express 'disappointment at the board's approach to the problem', and blasted two of his colleagues elected to the board two years ago, 'who reflected', he said, 'community opinion'."

I have carefully listened to the Sunday, August 30, rebroadcast of that program and have reassured myself that your reporter, by use of the word "blasted", completely distorted and reversed the intent of my remarks. Although I did express disappointment in the board majority's attitudes towards racial imbalance in the Sausalito district, nothing in my words or manner could be contrued as "blasting" my colleagues. I carefully indicated that the school election two years ago had as its principal issue the question of continuing "status quo" neighborhood school policies and the two candidates who supported neighborhood schools won overwhelmingly. My reply to the loaded question "How much longer is the Sausalito Board of Trustees going to stall?", was intended to show that certain board members were not stalling but rather proceding along lines they considered reflected the desires of their constituents.

I assume your purpose in publishing that and similar articles is to accurately inform and educate your readers about important local issue; therefore, I respectfully request that you print this letter along with your confirmation of my version of the statements at issue.

Column Statement Termed 'Misleading'

Editor, Independent-Journal:

In regard to Phil Fradkin's column on Synanon House in your August 27 issue, I quote a rather misleading statement:

My question is, "what color is a Jew?" Or, "what sex are gentiles?"

Miracle Mile 'Poet' Speaks Out Again

Editor, Independent-Journal:

On the date 8/12/64 the Independent Journal surpassed its own excellency. It will go on the file of the writer.

It deals with teenagers, antirat drives, unions that cut their own throat, the pig that went to market, etc, etc.

In future issue, with great anticipation we are looking for an explanation of what became of Mary's little lamb, please Mr. Editor let us know!

It has been said that teenagers could be our greatest asset to prevent our world going to the dogs, (the dogs that have no use for it).

The Editor mentions that the child has (sic) become a little demon.

Napoleon's mother could spank her little pigheaded son till he was 17. Maybe his daddy, if he held the difficult office of being the head of the house, could do likewise till the great budding Napoleon would be 19.

After that ? ? ?

We now have some wonderful supermarkets the doors of which fly open even before we say "Open Sesame!" But we never were able to meet the little pig then, how disappointing!

However now (Eureka) our Editor in afore - mentioned number has a picture of him. He has grown quite big and is able to pull a little car with kids to the market.

Is it not wonderful ! ! !

IN THE BRONX, a budding young authoress triumphantly brought home a signed contract covering publication of her first novel by a major outfit. She also brought a bottle of champagne for a family celebration. She had barely popped the cork when her mother ran to the telephone and summoned the doctor. "You had better come quick," ordered mama. "Sadie's got us drinking shampoo."

IN THE DAYS when streetcars were the principal means of transportation in the nation's capitol, a distinguished senator got a bit mixed up when heading for the Senate underground parking section and drove instead into the streetcar tunnel under the capitol. Suddenly he saw a streetcar heading straight for him. He jumped out of his car, shook his fist angrily at the motorman, and bellowed, "Suh, how dare you drive that trolley car into the U. S. Senate garage?"

Politicians Trying To Undo Court Ruling On Districts

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court, which has moved into vacuums Congress would not fill, is getting its own particular kind of backlash from politicians.

In a struggle now over curbing the court's powers, members of Congress have themselves so boxed in they may be here another month although they could use the time in election campaigning.

An attempt is being made to undo the court's ruling last June that voters in the states are entitled to far more equal representation in their state legislatures than they are getting now.

THE COURT said representation in both houses of state legislatures must be apportioned on a population basis of "one person, one vote," and federal courts have the job to see it's done.

The politicians and political machines which hold power in state legislatures where representation is not on an equal population basis naturally do not want any changes that would cost them jobs or power.

Some people, not directly involved, may feel the court overreached itself. But the Republicans at their convention this year responded to the opposition to the court ruling by putting into their platform a promise in support of: "A constitutional amendment, as well as legislation, enabling states having bi-cameral two-house legislatures to apportion one house on bases of their own choosing, including factors other than population."

THIS WOULD take away the court's power to order reapportionment of both houses on a population basis.

A week after the Republican convention in July, Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, Republican leader of the Senate, attempted to carry out the platform promise by introducing a proposed constitutional amendment in Congress.

But there wouldn't be time to act on it this year, since Congress is coming to an end. It would have to wait till next year. So as an interim move Dirksen made this proposal in the form of a bill to be passed this year: Delay any court orders on reapportionment for about two years.

He didn't offer it as a bill by itself — he said he didn't think it had a chance that way —but as an amendment on the 3.5-billion-dollar foreign aid authorization bill.

President Lyndon B. Johnson is anxious to get the foreign aid money. If he vetoed the bill because of the attached Dirksen amendment, the whole thing would have to go back to Congress. He very probably wouldn't veto it. That's Dirksen's strategy.

FOR SOME strange reason, although the value of people's votes are involved in all this, Johnson has said nothing, taken no stand. The Democrats in their platform played mousey by leaving out all mention of reapportionment.

Mike Mansfield of Montana, Democratic leader in the Senate, worked out a compromise bill with Dirksen, just a little milder, and with the help of the Johnson administration's Justice Department.

But some members of the Senate — particularly liberals led by Sen. Paul Douglas, a Democrat and, like Dirksen, from Illinois — wouldn't buy any part of it and are determined to fight until they kill it.

The two-year delaying action in the Dirksen bill would give Congress time to approve the kind of constitutional amendment he has in mind and then perhaps time for the states to approve.

A CONSTITUTIONAL amendment must be approved by two-thirds of House and Senate and by three-fourths of the state legislatures—38 out of 50 —or conventions called by the states. It is up to Congress to decide which method is to be used.

Only once in American history—this was the 21st Amendment ending prohibition in 1933 —has an amendment submitted to the states by Congress been approved by state conventions.

If Dirksen's amendment went to state legislatures it's not hard to imagine the politicians who stood to lose jobs or power by reapportionment would jump at the chance to approve the amendment.

U.S. Downgrading Vietnam Military

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — President Lyndon B. Johnson and his chief foreign policy advisers are launching the most alarming and questionable venture in South Vietnam since the U.S. covertly supported the ouster of the late President Diem.

And this Johnson policy could easily turn out to be even more disastrous to U.S. prestige.

Under a "package" plan designed to clear the way for a "political settlement" of the bloody guerrilla war, Ambassador Maxwell G. Taylor and U. Alexis Johnson, his deputy, are supporting the downgrading of the Vietnamese military's role in the Saigon government.

THESE DIPLOMATS are backing acting Premier Nguyen Xuan Oanh's replacement of Vietnamese military officers in key political posts with civilians, including socialists and persons favoring neutralization of that strife - torn country.

According to a private warning sent congressional leaders by a high-level U.S. military adviser in Saigon, the ouster of these military officers will result in the destruction of the South Vietnam army's influence in government in the same way that the Saigon special security force was made ineffective after the ouster and assassination of Diem.

After the toppling of the Diem regime, his special police force, which kept law and order in Saigon, was disbanded with the State Department's blessing and its officers either dismissed or transferred to army units outside of the capital.

THE LACK OF AN effective internal police force in Saigon last week paved the way for Communist-instigated mobs to create near anarchy in that city until the army was permitted to use its crack paratroopers to end the rioting.

If Oanh is permitted to eliminate the military's overwhelming influence in the Saigon government, the U.S. military adviser charges, the way will be open for neutralists and socialists to form a coalition government to seek "unity" with Communist-ruled North Vietnam. Should that happen, the Communists would take over South Vietnam in a matter of weeks.

The destruction of a country's internal security force and the neutralization of its military forces are the first objectives in a Communist takeover of a nation. Already, one of these has occurred in South Vietnam.

THE PROPOSAL to have Oanh, a Harvard-trained economist, set up a civilian government in Saigon was drafted in the State Department by Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Deputy Secretary Averell Harriman, Assistant Secretary Llewellyn Thompson and Assistant Secretary William Bundy.

They ordered the installing of "progressive" civilian politicians in key government positions held by military officers that are known to oppose a political settlement of the war in South Vietnam. All officers advocating an extension of the war into North Vietnam are to be shifted immediately.

Since the U.S. can cut off its aid, as the Kennedy administration did to Diem, the Vietnamese military leaders, despite their alarm over the new policy, have told their U.S. military advisers that they have no choice but to go along. They are hoping that once the Johnson plan becomes public Congress will act before it is too late or the policy will be changed by the election of a new administration in Washington.

Marinites Will Learn About Override Taxes The Hard Way

THE STATE LEGISLATURE went ape this spring on the questions of override school taxes, and the taxpayer in certain parts of Marin County will soon learn about them the hard way.

At this time last year there were 16 ways a school district could add to taxes above the maximum rate. Now there are 28 ways. In the vast majority of cases, there is no limit to the override taxes.

A school district has a maximum tax rate set by law, but the rate may go higher if the voters in the district approve a higher maximum tax rate. But in certain cases it may go higher even if the voters refuse to allow the higher maximum rate.

THESE LITTLE EXTRAS, called overrides, are used by all districts in the county to some extent, although some of the possible overrides are not used by any district.

Among the old overrides, which have been in effect for some time, are provisions for payment of Social Security and retirement benefits of teachers, used by almost all districts, and payment for community services, a special override with a five-cent limit.

There is an override to allow installation of fire sprinklers and another to help support child care centers.

Among the new ones are provisions for a levy of up to 10 cents per $100 assessed valuation for adult education, a special levy for employee health and welfare benefits and an unlimited levy for extra costs of teaching seventh and eighth graders.

THE SPECIAL SEVENTH and eighth grade levy has drawn the most fire and only two districts this year have decided to use it. Larkspur is levying about 20 cents and the Reed Union School District is taxing about 51 cents, according to the county schools office.

These two districts had the biggest tax increases, over all, this year, and now have the highest tax rates of any elementary districts. The highest tax bills in the county are being sent to homes in these two school districts, largely because of the school taxes.

This tax is allowed after the district can prove that operation of classes in these two years costs more than the lower grades. County schools office business manager George L. S. Emmons and Asst. County Auditor-Controller George Donaldson checked the figures from the two districts and could find nothing legally wrong with the levies approved by the school boards.

OTHER DISTRICTS also undoubtedly spend more money each year on their seventh and eighth grades, but have chosen, so far, to use the general tax funds to meet the bills.

The new override for health and welfare benefits seems to be a sleeper, although Reed is using that one also. Under this provision, the district may levy any tax the trustees can get away with for the fringe benefits of district employees, both teachers and non-teachers.

This levy is in addition to special overrides for retirement and Social Security. It is aimed at aid for health and other insurance benefits.

The obvious use of such a special tax would be in a district where voters have turned down a general tax increase but the district board wants to increase salaries.

By putting the fringe benefits on the override, the salaries can be raised, since more general tax money will be available. The fringe benefits might even by increased at the same time.

Vietnam Policy Changes Faster Than You Can Say Cabot Lodge

WASHINGTON — Probably the man who has the toughest job in the world at the moment is Henry Cabot Lodge, who has been traveling around the world at the request of President Lyndon B. Johnson, explaining our Vietnam policies to heads of state. It's a lonely job and a perilous one.

Although we haven't attended any of the briefings, we can just imagine what is going on as Ambassador Lodge is presenting his case, let us say, to the King of Denmark.

"NOW, SIR, let me say at the outset that the United States has the situation in Vietnam well in hand. Under the firm leadership of Gen. Nguyen Khanh many new reforms have been instituted."

As Ambassador Lodge is speaking, a courier from the American Embassy rushes in and gives him a telegram. The Ambassador reads it.

"Well, as I was saying, General Khanh has been dividing the country, and the United States feels he can no longer control the various factions. It is our belief that the best solution to the problem would be to support a general who has the confidence of the people."

The phone rings and the King hands it to Ambassador Lodge.

"YES, I SEE, sir. Right, sir. I understand. Of course. Thank you."

He hangs up the phone and continues:

"You see, Your Majesty, our experts believe the best solution to the problem would be to have a three-man military junta govern until we can have elections. We feel General Khanh has been a handicap and we intend to support General Minh, whom General Khanh had disposed of several months ago with our help. Our strategy is to send the South Vietnamese army out into the field to fight the Viet Cong on their own terms."

An aide whispers something in Ambassador Lodge's ear. He nods and says, "Because of the rioting in Saigon our strategy has been flexible and we are now urging the South Vietnamese forces to return to Saigon to prevent the breakdown of law and order. We feel this can best be done with General Minh in command of the—"

Another messenger from the American Embassy dashes in and hands Mr. Lodge a cable.

"THEREFORE, in line with what our people have worked out, we are happy to announce that Dr. Nguyen Xuan Oanh is now in charge of the Saigon government. Dr. Oanh is a Harvard-educated economist and gets along very well with Ambassador Maxwell Taylor. General Khanh is now in Dalat resting up from a physical and mental breakdown."

The phone rings again and Ambassador Lodge answers it. "Thank you very much. That's very interesting.

"I want you to understand, Your Majesty, we have not ruled out General Khanh's contribution to our effort in Vietnam. We have decided that in spite of everything he still holds the title of premier and we have every intention at this time of supporting his government."

The Ambassador's secretary hands him another paper.

"As you have probably read, the main problem in Vietnam is the friction between the Catholics and the Buddhists. Realizing this, the Americans have a plan to prevent rioting between the two factions."

The secretary hands him another paper.

"BUT WE FEEL at the same time that some rioting would have a good effect and therefore we've authorized the riots now going on throughout the country.

"Our main objective, of course, is to win the war, but we realize that this cannot be done until there is a stable government in Vietnam. We feel we have such a government with Dr. Oanh and—"

The phone rings again and Ambassador Lodge answers it wearily. "Yes, sir. Whom did you say? Madame Nhu? Thank you."

He turns back to the King. "Well, where was I?"

Today is Friday, Sept. 4, the 248th day of 1964 with 118 to follow.

The moon is approaching its new phase. The morning stars are Jupiter, Venus, Saturn and Mars. The evening star is Saturn.

American novelist F. Scott Fitzgerald was born on this day.

On this day in history:

In 1609, the Island of Manhattan was discovered by Henry Hudson.

In 1781, Spanish settlers founded the City of Los Angeles.

In 1870, the Third French Republic was proclaimed.

In 1941, a German submarine attacked a U.S. destroyer off the coast of Ireland.

A Thought for the Day — English author Rudyard Kipling said: "Everyone is more or less mad at one point."

Bridge Detectives Should Learn How To Solve Crime

Bridge detectives are urged to don their deerstalker caps and polish up their magnifying glasses.

The clues to a horrible bridge crime—or possibly, a mishap—are contained in the following account.

East won the first trick with the jack of hearts and continued with the king and ace. South ruffed the third heart, drew two rounds of trumps, and lost the club finesse to the king.

RETURNS CLUB

East returned a club, and declarer led a diamond to the ace and returned a diamond to finesse with the jack. West's queen of diamonds took the setting trick.

Was South a criminal, or was it just a case of misleading circumstantial evidence? Decide for yourself before you read on.

You're right if you say that South was a criminal. He should make the contract. But you can't claim credit for solving the mystery unless you can say how South should know.

COMPULSORY BID

By the time South got around to playing the dimonds he knew that East's original hand contained the A-K-J of hearts, the king of clubs, and the only two spades.

This came to 11 points in high cards and 1 point for the doubleton.

If East also held the queen of diamonds, his count would have been 14 points, enough for a "compulsory" opening bid. But East passed. Therefore he could not hold the queen of diamonds.

WEST HAND

With the queen of diamonds thus marked in the West hand, South had only one chance—to find the ten of diamonds in the East hand. (West could not have the doubleton Q-10 of diamonds because the play marked him with at least three diamonds.)

The correct play under these circumstances is to begin with the jack of diamonds from the South hand. West must cover (otherwise South lets the jack ride), and dummy's ace wins.

Now declarer leads a diamond from dummy to win a finesse with the nine of diamonds.

Sanitation Aide Seeking Write-In Vote

Robert A. Sterling, secretary of the Tiburon Sanitary District, today bid for re-election to the district board by write-in vote in Tuesday's election.

Sterling said his decision to be a candidate was made after he read an advertisement in last night's Ebb Tide, Tiburon weekly newspaper, signed by three candidates.

The advertisement says the Tiburon Sanitary District has "one of the highest sanitary district tax rates" and that "improvement is possible—and with a more efficient plant besides." It is signed by candidates Fred Mantegani, John P. Eichcorn and Angelo Mirata.

"I was hoping to retire this time if they'd kept this thing clean," Sterling said. He has been on the sanitary district board for 13 years.

"If this group is going to misrepresent things, you can't trust them with the plant."

(County records show that the 52-cent Tiburon district operating rate is in fourth place among 10 sanitary districts in Marin with various sized areas and populations which operate with tax rates rather than with service fees. The range is from a top 87 cents per $100 assessed valuation to a low of 15 cents.)

Sterling said "Old Tiburon has not paid one cent" for construction of the new treatment plant. He said the plant is being paid for by newly developed areas approximately between Vistazo West and Tiburon Boulevard and by the City of Belvedere, from which sewage is treated under contract with the district.

"I'm going to make a determined effort for a write-in vote," Sterling said.

Other candidates for the election, with polls to be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. at the district plant, are Victor C. Banks, Edward Goliti Jr., Bruce S. Jacobs, John V. (Jack) Murray, and Francis J. Ryan.

THIS POOCH HEADED FOR DOGHOUSE

An ordinary dog stole a political hot dog yesterday in broad daylight from the display window of the Redhill Liquor Store in Mill Valley, owner S. J. Weil said today.

"I was standing outside the door," said Weil, "when the telephone rang. I went to answer it and when I came back a canine was in the display window eating the hot dog and bun."

Weil gave chase to the hungry thief, which he described as a "lean, light tan dog of mixed breed," but did not get the return of his hot dog.

The hot dog was in a Goldwater display originated by Weil for his store at 67 Throckmorton Avenue.

Rights Group Can't Act

For the second successive month, the Marin county human rights commission had no quorum last night for its regular meeting.

It therefore found itself unable to pass a resolution in opposition to Proposition 14, the initiative measure against the Rumford Fair Housing Act.

Those present heard a report from Kenneth Hickle, public social services department employment specialist and work-training supervisor, on chances of using money from the federal war on poverty program.

Commission president James Quiett and James Smith of the Marin County Labor Council were asked to appear at the board of supervisors hearing Oct. 6 to speak in favor of retaining county contract penalty provisions for discrimination in hiring.

Nurses Training Bill Is Signed

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Lyndon B. Johnson signed today a bill to give federal aid to nursing training, calling it "truly a notable achievement towards raising standards of health care in the United States."

The act provides a five-year program totaling 287.6 million dollars in federal aid for nurses training.

WHATTIBURON NEEDS

Money, Support For Planning

A specialist in planning last night told what is needed—citizen support and money—for a city such as Tiburon to retain its natural beauties.

L. H. McVicar, director of community recreations for Fremont, Alameda County, spoke to only about 20 persons at Del Mar School at a meeting which had been aimed at gaining wider resident interest in planning for the newly incorporated city.

Drawing on his experience in Fremont, McVicar said citizen participation is essential so the city's goals will be defined by the residents themselves, who then will back the city decisions which follow.

McVicar is a lecturer at the University of California and a consultant to the United Nations department of planning.

Citizens must decide "what sort of city they're going to have in the long-term pull," he said.

"The planning program is the single most important thing you can do for a city at this stage. The physical development of your city will affect your budget in the future."

McVicar admitted that citizen committees are not all "peaches and cream." There are "arguments, resignations, replacements," on committees since they are a "forum where they can disagree with each other."

Citizens should look into what the city can afford or its citizens are willing to pay, and should check federal funds available so realistic plans can be made, the planner said.

"You can't have something delightful unless you're willing to pay for it.

"If you want something different, you can have it; if you want something mediocre, you can have it.

Other McVicar opinions related to Tiburon:

Traffic—"It's one of your most distressing problems; it's destroying the very environment you have here."

High-Rise Apartments—High-rise buildings are not necessarily bad. A developer might be required to give public easement to the waterfront in return for permission to construct a tall building.

Bay Fill—McVicar favors a moratorium on all bay filling until a master plan, such as that now being worked out by the Assn. of Bay Area Government, is completed.

Hills—Cluster development allowing relatively high density in a small area if a larger portion of the developer's land is kept open could allow the hills to remain more natural.

Parks—Requiring gifts of land for neighborhood parks from large developers in return for about two feet smaller side yard is a gain for the city and residents. Park grading can be done by the developer while he is constructing homes; the city maintains the park.

"The developer doesn't have a sacred right . . . he should give something to get," said McVicar.

Civic Center—It should be in the "downtown area; an integral part of your downtown shopping center.

"You have to make land (purchase) decisions very early in your city's life or it's going to cost you a fantastic amount of money later."

Houses vs. Apartments — A "life cycle neighborhood" allows a full range of housing from single-person apartments for the young bachelor to larger apartments and homes for the growing family and later apartments for older persons so they are not "relegated to 'leisure worlds'."

Annexation Might Ease Freeway Threat

The threat of a six-lane freeway through Tamalpais Valley still exists, but might be removed or lessened if the area annexed to Mill Valley, Mayor Michael Wornum told the Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club last night.

Fifty-three persons were on hand for Wornum's talk, reported Mrs. Midge Hamburg, club president.

The Mill Valley mayor said the State Division of Highways still has its eye on running a freeway from San Francisco to the coast. If Tamalpais Valley were part of Mill Valley, it would not be so likely the highway would be cut through, he contended.

Better planning, police protection and library service were listed as other advantages of annexation by Wornum. One disadvantage, he said, is that it might cost each homeowner about $30 or $35 more a year in taxes. He said he "picked this figure out of the air" since the cost is not known.

Wornum said he would like to see the annexation come about but added it would have to come from the residents of the area and have a vote of the people.

The improvement club, which has heard a talk on incorporation and now annexation, will next hear a talk on remaining an unincorporated area. Some representative of either Loma Verde or Castro Valley, both unincorporated areas, will speak to the club, said Mrs. Hamburg.

The series of meetings are designed to educate club members, she said, "because it is felt that in the future we will have to make a decision one way or another."

Jack Ring, assistant director of the Coyote Creek flood control project, told the audience that the project now under construction will be finished by mid-December. He said the Division of Highways is concerned with beautifying the area when work is completed. Mrs. Hamburg said the club agreed to write a letter asking that this work be done.

Cost is about $2,000 to clean out the ditch, Ring explained, which will probably have to be done once every three years. The taxpayers, through the county, would pay for this.

Karl Zipf was named vice president of the club, succeeding Mrs. Hamburg, who became president when president Daniel C. Mulcahey moved from the area. Resignation of Jack Jones, treasurer, was accepted. Jones is moving to Homestead Valley.

The club agreed to give the Methodist Community Church, where meetings are now held, $5 for use of the hall.

Driver Fined $166

Bessie Irene Werner, 32, of Morro Bay, San Luis Obispo County, was fined $166 yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving. She was arrested Aug. 27 on Eucalyptus Avenue in Novato.

Clausen Votes For Fish Bill

Rep. Don H. Clausen (R-Crescent City) today said he supported and took part in the House debate that resulted in passage of a bill to restore the salmon, steelhead and striped bass fishery.

The measure passed the House on a voice vote Tuesday and was sent to the Senate.

Clausen also joined in paying tribute to the late Clem Miller, Clausen's predecessor, for his early work on the legislation in previous sessions of Congress.

The measure authorizes a 25-million-dollar, five-year program of federal matching funds in cooperation with the states to build fish-ladders, fish hatcheries and other devices.

Auto Accidents Costly For U.S.

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — Americans start their last long weekend of the summer this evening with the year already apparently headed for disaster records on the highways.

The toll in lives, injuries, and dollars mounts most years. But 1964 has been setting records in deaths as a percentage of vehicle miles traveled, as a percentage of population, and of the total number of vehicles.

The dollar loss to motorists and property owners is now reckoned in the billions. Some of these dollars swell the annual receipts of those who repair human bodies, or cars, or buildings and other construction — but such dollar receipts aren't sought. And the financial loss to thousands of families damages many other industries whose goods thus can't find as big a market.

Auto accidents as percentage of miles driven are estimated to have risen 20 per cent in the early months of this year. There were 5 4 accidents for each 100,000 vehicle miles.

July saw a record set in the number of fatalities. Warnings of the accident hazard this coming weekend are being issued by national and local safety officials. Weather conditions across the nation this weekend can either invite accidents by luring more motorists onto the roads or cause accidents by making driving dangerous.

The economic loss for 1963 is estimated at 10.3 billion dollars, up 500 million dollars from 1962. Last year's toll is divided thus: 7.7 billion dollars in property damage, medical and funeral costs, wage losses, and the overhead cost of insurance; and 2.6 billion dollars in property destruction.

The Insurance Information Institute reports 19 million cars in 11 million accidents, involving 3.5 billion dollars of insurance in 1962, the last year for which information is available.

The National Safety Council records 43,600 deaths in 1963, up 7 per cent from 1962, and compared with 37,955 deaths reported by the U.S. Bureau of Census in 1953.

Injuries last year are put at 2,460,000 by the Travelers Insurance companies, with 1,600,000 of them disabling. Ten years earlier the toll was 2,140,000 injuries.

Projection of the accident rate by the Kemper Insurance group for the years of 1963 through 1972 estimates 220 million cars will be involved in 130 million accidents, for a toll of 425,000 deaths, 37,500,000 injuries and a total cost of 100 billion dollars to the economy.

The American Seat Belt Council says a study of 10,000 accidents shows serious injuries can be reduced more than one-third with the use of proper seat belts. It reports that 22 states and the District of Columbia have passed laws requiring new cars to have such belts in the front seat.

But all agree that the real measure of safety—and the reduction of human and economic losses—still remains right where it did—with the driver.

Sears, Roebuck Set Sales Record

CHICAGO — Sears, Roebuck and Co.'s record August sales were 9 per cent higher than last year, and the seven month volume established a company record, it has been reported by Austin T. Cushman, chairman of the board, and Crowdus Baker, president.

Gross sales in August were $529,289,050, an increase of $43,647,860 over sales of $483,641,190 in August 1963. This increase was achieved despite the fact that the month had one less shopping day than a year ago.

Sears volume for the seven months ended Aug. 31 topped three billion dollars for the first time in the company's 78 year history. The total was $3,308,610,295, which represented an increase of $360,060,226 or 12.2 per cent over sales of $2,948,550,069 in the same period of 1963.

Olds Reports Tops In Sales

LANSING, Mich.—Oldsmobile dealers reported the best August sales performance in nine years, it has been announced by the division's general sales manager, Emmett P. Feely.

"Our dealers," said Feely, "delivered 37,361 new Oldsmobiles during the month, an increase of more than 20 per cent over the corresponding period a year ago."

Feely said sales for the final 10 days in August were 12,800 units, including 4,116 F-85's and 8,684 full size models.

Selected Issues Gain, Bolstering Stock Rise

NEW YORK (AP)—Late gains by selected issues bolstered a rise as the stock market closed higher today. Trading was moderate.

Boeing jumped more than 2 points, New York Central nearly 2 and Schering more than a point.

The irregular and cautious pre-Labor Day session produced enough selective advances by key stocks to push the list higher on average.

Volume for the day was estimated at 4.1 million shares compared with 4.31 million yesterday.

A wide range of selected issues made gains of a point or more. For most key stocks it was a scrambled picture of fractional gains and losses.

Scattered blue chips firmed the averages. United Aircraft and Du Pont advanced more than a point each. U.S. Steel and Union Carbide added fractions.

Despite the threat of a strike next Wednesday, auto stocks were fairly firm on balance. Ford rose nearly a point. Chrysler added a fraction. General Motors eased from its historic high.

Gains of a point or better were made by Singer, Lukens Steel, and Mack Trucks.

Xerox, Control Data and Polaroid sank a point or more.

Prices on the American Stock Exchange were higher in quiet trading.

Corporate bonds were higher; governments declined.

American Sets Traffic Record

Revenue passenger miles for the first eight months of 1964 totaled an estimated 5,424,709,000, an increase of 14.1 per cent over the total for the same period of last year.

SOVEREIGN REPORTED AMERICA'S CUP PICK

NEWPORT, R.I., (AP) — Sovereign will be chosen the British America's Cup challenger, a reliable source indicated to the Associated Press today.

The source said that backers of Kurrewa V, the rival British sloop, would withdraw their craft tonight.

The feeling among the British competitors was that nothing would be gained by prolonging the present trial races until the Sept. 8 deadline. In recent races, Sovereign has won five, Kurrewa two.

The Americans already have selected Constellation as their 12-meter sloop to defend the cup against a 19th challenge starting Sept. 15 at Newport.

ROOKIE ESTELLE IN DO-OR-DIE OPENER

Giants Throw Forgotten Man At Phils

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Dick Estelle, the forgotten man of the San Francisco Giants, tries to start the team's march out of the National League doldrums when he takes the mound against first-place Philadelphia tonight.

This begins a three-act melodrama that ends Sunday when the Giants present ailing ace Juan Marichal (16-6) as their final attraction.

For the third-place Giants — now 6½ games off the pace — this is a do-or-die series. With an eight-game bulge in the loss column and only 27 games left, it appears services will be held for the 1964 Giants before they return home following a doubleheader at Pittsburgh Monday.

But it could end up a miracle play with Estelle the man to do the magic. The 22-year-old southpaw fashioned a 6-5 record with a 2.50 ERA at Tacoma in the Pacific Coast League and pitched a no-hitter before being called up this week.

His beckon to the big leagues came at the same time as Masanori Murakami was rising from the California League to become the first Japanese to play in the majors.

The Giants regained third place and moved up a full game yesterday when Gaylord Perry hurled a five-hitter at the New York Mets. The 3-1 victory, Perry's ninth as against nine losses, was his fifth win without a defeat over New York this season.

Willie Mays, taken out of Wednesday's game, didn't play because of exhaustion. This helped put third-baseman Jim Hart in right field and led to the Mets' only score in the ninth.

Hart misjudged a liner by Joe Christopher or lost it in the sun and the ball rolled to the wall for a triple after Hart made a diving attempt. George Altman's sacrifice fly brought home Christopher.

"We'll see how he feels," was Manager Alvin Dark's reply when asked whether Mays plays tonight. "It's a day-to-day thing."

Besides striking out eight and walking three, Perry knocked in two San Francisco runs.

In the fourth inning after Duke Snider doubled and was doubled home by Tom Haller, Perry singled. In the sixth, Perry hit a sacrifice fly that again scored Haller. The catcher had beat out a bunt and moved to third on a double by Jim Davenport.

Perry's hitting and pitching assisted in defeating former teammate Jack Fisher (9-16).

Hart was in right field because of mild injuries to Willie McCovey, Harvey Kuenn and Mays and the serious injury to Jesus Alou.

The youngest of the three ball players from the Dominican Republic needed 91 stitches to close the wound in his leg that finished him for the season. He'll also wear a cast. Alou was spiked Wednesday by Met second baseman Ron Hunt.

The Giants received special permission to call up Jose Cardenal from Tacoma because of the injury to Alou. Cardenal was batting .287.

Olympic Swimmers 'Gr eatest Ever'

U.S. Favored To Dominate Games

By MURRAY ROSE

NEW YORK (AP) "The greatest swimming team ever."

That was the tribute paid to the teen-age dominant American swimming team by famed Bob Kiphuth today following a record-smashing jamboree in the six day Olympic swimming trials that ended yesterday.

Six world records were battered and one tied in the stiff competition for berths on the U.S. team. This followed a record-busting National AAU championship meet a month ago.

"The competition is so tough in the trials that the Olympics are a breeze after them," said Paula Jean Pope, the three-time Olympic diver trying to make it four at the age of 29.

"This team is great because of its strength and depth in almost every event," said Kiphuth, former Olympic coach who has been watching the Olympics since 1920.

On the basis of performances this year, the American men could win eight of the 10 swim events and possibly sweep the boards. The girls, who range in age from 14 to 19, could capture five of the eight and possibly two more.

Here's a rundown on the Olympic events:

MEN

100-meter freestyle — Mike Austin of Rochester, N.Y., has the fastest time in the world this year — 53.7 — and Gary Ilman, San Jose, Calif., (53.8) and Don Schollander, Lake Oswego, Ore., (53.9). Any of the three could break the world record of 53.6.

400-meter freestyle — Schollander has the fastest time ever, 4:12.7 up for recognition. He's only 18.

1,500-meter freestyle — Roy Saari, 19, El Segundo, Calif., broke the 17 minute barrier to 16:58.7 and thinks he may go 16:50 by Olympic swim time.

200-meter breaststroke — Chet Jastremski, 23, Toledo, Ohio, came out of retirement and lowered the world mark to 2:28.2.

200-meter backstroke — Tom Stock of Aurora, Ill., who holds the world record of 2:10.9 is through but 19-year-old Gary Dilley, Huntington, Ind., (2:12.0) Jed Graef, 21, Verona, N.J., (2:12.8) and 1960 Olympian Bob Bennett, 20, Encino, Calif., (2:12.8) must be given an even chance against the world.

400-meter individual medley — Dick Roth, 16, Atherton, Calif., has the fastest time ever, 4:48.6.

200-meter butterfly — Australia's Kevin Berry has the world record of 2:06.9 but Fred Schmidt, 20, North Brook, Ill., 2:08, and Carl Robie, 19, Drexel Hill, Pa., 2:08.2 are contenders.

The Americans hold the relay world records in the 400-meter freestyle, 400-meter medley, and 800-meter freestyle, and could break them all.

WOMEN

100-meter freestyle — Australia's Dawn Fraser, holder of the world record of 58.9 has to be favored but 15-year-old Sharon Stouder, Glendora, Calif., has 1:00.4 and expects to break the minute mark soundly by Olympic time, Oct. 10-24.

400-meter freestyle — Marilyn Ramenofsky, Phoenix, just turned 18, is far away the best with her record-shattering 4:39.5.

100-meter backstroke — Christine Caron of France has a pending world record of 1:08.6. She could be beaten by Donna deVarona, 17, Santa Clara, Calif., holder of the listed world record of 1:08.9, or by Cathy Ferguson, 16, Burbank, Calif., who did 1:08.9 in the trials.

100-meter butterfly — Holland's Ada Kok holds world record of 1:06.1 and best pending mark of 1:05.1. Again fast-rising Miss Stouder, with a 1:05.4 best, is a potent threat.

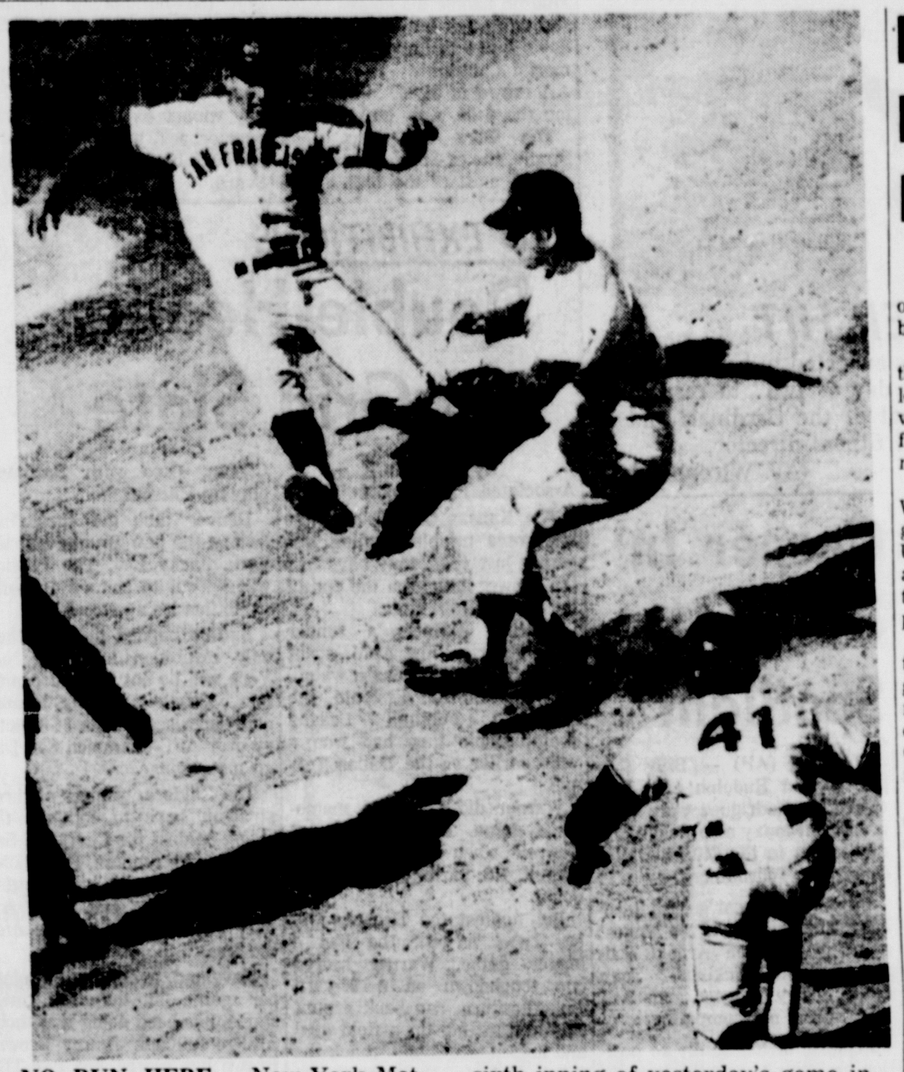
400-meter individual medley — Donna deVarona all by herself with a fresh world record of 5:14.9.

Uncle Sam has the talent to sweep the 400 meter freestyle and medley relays in world record time.

The men and women divers wind up the water show with the 3-meter springboard finals today and the platform finals Sunday.



NO RUN HERE — New York Met pitcher Jack Fisher beats San Francisco Giant Jim Davenport to the plate to cut off his attempt to score on a wild pitch from Fisher during sixth inning of yesterday's game in New York. The batter, centerfielder Matty Alou, crouches near the plate as Fisher takes the throw from catcher Chris Cannizzaro.

Big Six Rejects Pay-TV

By JACK STEVENSON

BERKELEY (AP)—Pay TV is out for the 1964 Pacific Coast big college football season.

Presidents and chancellors of the eight members in the Athletic Association of Western Universities killed the plan for this fall when they decided it needed more study.

The head men at Washington, Washington State, Oregon, Oregon State, Stanford, California, UCLA and Southern California also decided that in most cases the status quo was fine for the present.

They kept the AAWU designation and didn't even have a suggestion of what nickname might replace the Big Six which became Big Six Plus Two when Oregon and Oregon State came in last July 30.

They also didn't take action on a letter of intent proposal, deciding instead to take more time in an effort to perfect such a system.

Subscription Television Inc., operating in Los Angeles and San Francisco, has submitted a proposed contract covering collegiate athletics in the AAWU. The pay TV firm already has contracts with the Los Angeles Dodgers and San Francisco Giants baseball teams.

Although the presidents and chancellors had received copies, they decided consideration of the proposal should be deferred "without prejudice" for further and intensive consideration by all member schools.

A subcommittee on each campus is to make the study.

There was no indication when such studies would be concluded, but AAWU president Robley Williams of California said there could be no pay TV of the coming football season.

Dr. Williams said also that it was the "decision of the entire group there is no point in changing the name of the conference." Again, he said, this was "without prejudice" to the future. Meeting with the school administrators were the athletic directors and faculty representatives for athletics.

No other names were discussed, he said in answering a newsman's question.

Dr. Williams said the AAWU will try to formulate a letter of intent for student athletes in terms as non-legalistic as possible. Also an ethical code for recruiters will be developed.

"We would want a letter of intent so in case there was a violation, there would be no penalty on the student. Any penalty would be on the institution or its representative who violates the code of ethics," the spokesman explained.

Most major conferences have a letter of intent program with penalties against the students. Under the program, a high school graduate accepting an athletic scholarship from an institution will sign a letter to that effect. Other institutions are then to cease efforts to recruit him and he is to attend the school specified.

Dr. Charles Odegaard, president of the University of Washington, succeeded Dr. Norman Topping, president of Southern California, as chairman of the presidents and chancellors group.

LARSON DOES IT

Phillies Stopped

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

000 000 000—0

Don Larsen hasn't seen a linescore like that in five years.

The 35-year-old Houston righthander had his memory refreshed last night as he strung out the zeroes on the Connie Mack Stadium scoreboard, checking the National League leading Philadelphia Phillies 6-0 on four hits for his first shutout since May 30, 1959.

Larsen, who pitched a perfect game for the New York Yankees in the 1956 World Series, had not pitched a shutout in 35 starts since leaving the Yankees five years ago and beginning a short tour of the majors that took him to Kansas City, Chicago and San Francisco.

Acquired by the Colts early in the season, Larsen has been used primarily in relief but has made five starts in the last five weeks, breaking even in four decisions while putting together an eye-opening 1.58 earned run average.

Larsen, now 3-6 on the season, allowed only one Philadelphia base runner as far as third — Richie Allen, who tripled with two out in the eighth. But Larsen bore down, got Johnny Callison on an easy fly and then put the finishing touches on his second complete game in 12 days.

Despite the loss, the Phillies maintained their 5½-game bulge in the pennant race with 30 games to go as Lew Burdette of the Chicago Cubs shut out second-place Cincinnati 3-0 on four hits.

CARDS BLANKED

San Francisco's Gaylord Perry pitched a five-hitter in the Giants' 3-1 victory over the New York Mets and Wade Blasingame allowed only seven hits as Milwaukee belted St. Louis 7-0. Pittsburgh and the Los Angeles Dodgers were not scheduled.

Baltimore built its American League lead to a full game over the idle Chicago White Sox by defeating Minnesota 4-1 while the Los Angeles Angels dropped the third-place New York Yankees four games back, 4-2. Boston whipped Kansas City 7-5 in the only other game scheduled.

Mike White slammed two doubles and a pair of singles for the Colts, who gave Larsen more than enough working room with a five-run sixth inning rally highlighted by Carroll Hardy's two-run homer.

Walt Bond's single, a double by Bob Aspromonte and Hardy's homer off Dennis Bennett produced the first three runs before singles by Jerry Grote, Eddie Kasko and Bob Lillis plus White's double wrapped up the uprising.

Burdette, now 10-7, got the only run he needed in the second inning when Len Gabrielson drew a walk off John Tsitouris, stole second and scored on Ron Campbell's first major league hit. A walk and Billy Williams' homer in the fourth finished the scoring.

Billy McCool, the Reds' rookie reliever, turned in a sharp performance over the final three innings, striking out seven of nine men.

Blasingame, now 4-4, held a 1-0 lead on Hank Aaron's 24th homer before starting a six-run seventh inning outburst by drawing a walk.

Successive singles by Rico Carty, Lee Maye, Aaron and Ed Mathews produced three runs. Joe Torre then tripled and Ed Bailey drove in the final run with a sacrifice fly.

Middleweights Clash In Television Bout Tonight

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Jose Torres, the hard-puncing Puerto Rican middleweight, got a good workout for tonight's 10-round fight with Gomeo Brennan of Bimini—the next-to-last of the regular television bouts.

Spotting the No. 1 middleweight challenger, Luis Rodriguez, working out at the Fifth Street Gym yesterday, Torres invited him into the ring.

The resulting two-round melee drew applause from light heavyweight champion Willie Pastrano and a dozen other fighters.

Rodriguez rocked Torres with a solid right in the first round and was himself shaken up by a pair of sizzling left hooks to the head. They continued to bang away through the second round.

Torres, with a record of 29 victories, one defeat and one draw, is ranked as No. 7 middleweight challenger by Ring Magazine. Brennan, a veteran with 58 victories, 9 losses and 5 draws on his record, is unranked.

Tonight's bout starts at 9 o'clock (PDT) and will be televised.

ALONG MARIN'S SPORTS TRAIL

By JIM GILMARTIN

How They Got Show Biz Celebs To Appear At Benefit Tourney

Maurice Luxford, a gentleman of 70 summers, is one of Hollywood's most influential persons.

As director of the annual Bing Crosby Pro-Amateur golf classic at Pebble Beach, Luxford decides which show biz stars get the coveted invitation to the tournament, which is the blast to end all blasts on golf's social ladder. An invitation from him is almost as welcome as an Oscar or Emmy.

Luxford was a Marin County visitor yesterday in his role as Santa Claus for the committee working on Marin's Invitational Tournament of Stars scheduled Sept. 20 at Peacock Gap. It is through his priceless assistance that the Marin group is lining up 36 show biz celebs to participate in the benefit tourney for the Marin Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

Luxford guaranteed, "You can be sure you'll have the greatest array of show business personalities ever to appear at a tournament of this kind in the San Francisco Bay Area."

Luxford flashed a sly smile, "You see, when I sent invitations to the stars for this Marin County event I added a footnote to the letter which stated: 'By the way. I am now in the process of preparing my list for the Crosby tournament so your cooperation in this matter will be appreciated.' Believe me," he chuckled, "you'll have a good turnout here."

Movie and TV stars are flooded with requests to appear in this type of event and it's impossible for them to accept all invitations. So you can see how valuable Luxford's services are to the Marin committee.

LUXFORD, A public relations man who organizes star-type tournaments as a hobby, explained it's impossible for some top stars to make iron-clad committments due to last-minute changes in their schedules, but he guaranteed "36 popular personalities will be here. That's definite."

Among the "definites" are Tennessee Ernie Ford, Jim "Mr. Magoo" Backus, John Agar, Dennis James, comedians George Gobel and Gary (Mr. Lucille Ball) Morton, James Garner, Johnny Weismuller, singer Jimmy Rogers, to name just a few. More will be announced soon. Others likely to show are Donald O'Connor, Fred McMurray and singers Andy Williams and Vic Damone, also to name a few.

BING CROSBY is a probable; they're still waiting to hear from Bob Hope.

Luxford was a luncheon guest yesterday of the Tournament of Stars committee headed by William McDevitt of San Rafael. The group also included baseball figures Joe DiMaggio and Lefty O'Doul, amateur golf stars Harvie Ward and Jimmy French Jr., and radio personality Jim Lange, all assembled for the purpose of kicking off a publicity campaign.

McDEVITT, THE prominent Marin builder, said tickets for the charity event are "going fast and it looks like our first try at this type of event will be successful."

He said some of the better known amateurs invited to join the stars are Bob Roos, Jackie Jensen, Boots Erb, Bob Cardinal, Frank Tatum, Bob Hanna, Ron Cerrudo, Dave Bohanon and Tom Dixon.

A combination of good golf, a lot of laughs and all for a great cause.

By the way, Pacific Southwest Airways will fly the stars and their wives here by Electra-jet and the Edgewater Inn at Corte Madera will house the guests, all for free. Their part for the charity.

FORMER MARIN prep grid stars popped up on the national gridiron news bulletins during the week.

Reg Carolan (Drake) was traded by the Oakland Raiders to the Kansas City Chiefs; Herm McKee (Tam) was placed on waivers by the Pittsburgh Steelers; Willie Hector (Tam) was released by the Denver Broncos and Jack Sovereign (San Rafael) quit U. of Oregon football, where he's a junior, to concentrate on baseball. Sovereign, a quarterback, was top punter at Oregon.

Rams' Big Boys Ready For Shot At 49ers Tomorrow

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Los Angeles Rams' big men are ready for the San Francisco 49ers: These being Big Ben Wilson and Big Roman Gabriel.

Wilson, 230, will be making his first start at fullback since last December.

Gabriel, 225, will be in at quarterback for the first time since he injured his knee three weeks ago in the National Football League exhibition against Cleveland.

Wilson quit the Rams last winter to study dentistry, decided to study and play football, too, and rejoined the Rams 10 days ago at his old job as fullback.

Gabriel has been sitting on the bench, watching rookie Bill Munson handle his chores. Munson will back him up at Saturday's game in Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

A crowd of 35,000 is expected for the 8:05 p.m. kickoff.

The 49ers will start John Brodie, the ex-Stanford star who missed most of the 1963 season with an injured arm, at quarterback—backed up by rookie George Mira of Miami.

Bill Kilmer, the former UCLA star who missed last year because of a leg broken in an off-season accident, will be in action, too—but playing halfback. And second string, at that. Don Lisbon will start.

In the same boat is the Rams' Terry Baker, the Heisman Trophy winner as an Oregon State quarterback, who was shifted to halfback by Ram coach Harland Svare.

Svare said Baker will make his start as a running halfback Saturday night, playing behind regular halfback Carver Shannon.

Wilson will have a back-up man, too. Dick Bass, who started the summer exhibition season as the Rams' fullback, has a badly bruised thigh muscle hurt in last week's game, and he won't play. Svare will spell Wilson with rookie Lester Josephson, the 210 pounder from Augustana College, S. D., who was obtained in a trade that sent tackle Jim Boeke to the Dallas Cowboys.

Tomorrow night will also mark a debut for two Rams rookies—end Bucky Pope and flanker Willie Brown, the former USC flanker, who'll be in reserve behind Red Phillips.

The starting lineups:

Rams:

Forty-niners:

Mantilla Steals Show In A.L.; Orioles Boost Lead

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Felix Mantilla has moved around so much this season, Johnny Pesky would like to give him a rest.

But you don't bench a guy who's hitting home runs at a faster rate than Dick Stuart.

The 30-year-old Mantilla continued his amazing onslaught last night, clouting two homers and two singles, driving in three runs, as Boston defeated Kansas City 7-5.

The homers increased Mantilla's season total to 24, only 11 short of the number he hit altogether in his first eight seasons in the majors.

Stuart leads the Red Sox with 30 homers — he also is tied for fourth in the American League — but the slugging first baseman has hit his homers at the rate of one for every 17 times at bat. Mantilla has connected once every 14 trips to the plate.

That's why he isn't getting the rest that his past history indicates he needs every once in a while. Actually Mantilla received a rest through the first two months of the season.

The veteran didn't start playing regularly until near the end of June, but since then he's moved more often than Bobby Kennedy.

Mantilla has started at six positions — all three outfield posts, second base, shortstop and third base. He played left field for his latest outburst.

His first homer opened a two-run fifth inning that tied the game 3-3. Mantilla's run-scoring single gave the Red Sox another deadlock, 4-4, in the sixth. He finished his one-man attack with a bases-empty homer in the eighth.

ORIOLES WIN

In other AL games, Baltimore defeated Minnesota 4-1 and Los Angeles stopped New York 4-2.

Dick Radatz recorded his 13th victory in relief for Boston, allowing two hits in the final four innings. He struck out six. One of the hits off Radatz was Wayne Causey's run-producing single in the sixth that put the Athletics into a 5-4 lead.

The Red Sox, however, struck back in the seventh on Ed Bressoud's two-run homer off reliever John Wyatt.

The Orioles increased their league lead to one game over the idle Chicago White Sox. Wally Bunker pitched a six-hitter for his 14th triumph against four defeats, giving up a run in the fourth inning on singles by Harmon Killebrew and Jimmie Hall, a walk and a grounder.

Jack Brandt ripped a three-run double with two out in the seventh inning, breaking a 1-1 tie. The blow came off starter Camilo Pascual, 13-10, after Baltimore loaded the bases on Luis Aparicio's single, a double by Brooks Robinson and an intentional walk to Charlie Lau.

YANKS FALL

The third-place Yankees fell four games behind the Orioles, getting only four hits off the combined pitching of Ken McBride and Bob Lee. McBride went the first five innings and gained only his second victory since June 11.

Lee, who held the Yankees hitless, made his 62nd appearance, tying the AL record for a rookie held by Radatz.

Jim Fregosi and Lou Clinton each drove in two Angel runs, Fregosi cracking a two-run homer in the first inning and Clinton belting a two-run double in the fifth.

It'll Be A Busy Week For Sailors

The Sausalito-to-Coyote Point race, sponsored by the Sausalito Yacht Club, will be held tomorrow, followed by the Barth Trophy race from Coyote Point to Angel Island Sunday, sponsored by the Coyote Point Y.C. Racing starts at noon each day.

The weekend yachting action will get started tonight, however, when 44 big sailboats compete in the annual Windjammers Race to Santa Cruz from the St. Francis Y.C.

There will be 22 boats in Class A, leaving at 6 o'clock, and an equal number in Class B, launching off at 6:10.

Wally Nickell's 55-foot cutter, Santana, will be the scratch boat of the fleet. Highest time allowance given by Santana will be 2:11:17.

Casper In Dallas Spotlight

DALLAS (AP) — Billy Casper, Mason Rudolph and Juan (Chi Chi) Rodriguez were most prominent today as a field of 150 moved out in the $40,000 Dallas Open Golf Tournament.

Casper, the year's fifth leading money winner, is the biggest name here since Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Tony Lema, Gary Player and Ken Venturi are not competing.

Because of his ability to position his shots to suit the tight 6,658-yard Oak Cliff Country Club course, Casper is the favorite.

He will be seeking his 24th tournament victory in 10 years on the tour, during which he has become the third all-time money winner with $350,335.

Only Arnold Palmer and Julius Boros are ahead of him.

Rudolph was eyed as a distinct threat since he has gone through 47 official tournaments since Feb. 1963, and finished in the money. Currently he is the ninth leading money winner this year with $45,229.

Rodriguez, the talkative and colorful player from Puerto Rico, first broke into the big check field in the Dallas Open of 1962 when he finished in a tie for third. Since then he has become one of golf's biggest money-winners.

Winners of 13 tournaments this year are in the field along with 12 of the 25 top money-winners. The 13 tournaments were captured by 10 players with Rodriguez, Casper and Mike Souchak each winning two.

The Dallas Open runs through Monday.

PRO EXHIBITIONS

Double-Header On Grid Slate

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Kansas City Chiefs, who had some trouble winning ball games last year, may have had the answer sitting on the end of the bench all the time.

Charley Warner, a runner from Prairie View A&M, spent most of his rookie season watching the Chiefs dissipate the American Football League championship they had won a year earlier as the Dallas Texans.

Warner did have one memorable game. That was against Denver when he returned a kickoff 103 yards for a touchdown.

But against the Houston Oilers last night, he had a bigger game. Warner scored one touchdown on a 97-yard kickoff return, ran back a punt 80 yards setting up a field goal and helped the Chiefs whack the Oilers 27-17 for their fourth exhibition victory in five starts.

Warner's 80-yard punt return came with eight seconds left in the half and set up Tommy Brooker's field goal which gave the Chiefs a 13-3 lead.

After Houston narrowed the margin to 13-10, Warner took off on his 97-yard TD scamper, giving Kansas City a 20-10 lead. After that, the Chiefs coasted.

SATURDAY ACTION

There are no games scheduled tonight but both the American and National Leagues move back into action Saturday.

In the AFL, winless Boston visits Denver, Buffalo and New York meet at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and Oakland is at San Diego.

Saturday's NFL schedule is headed by the annual doubleheader at Cleveland with the Browns hosting Green Bay and New York playing Detroit. Unbeaten Minnesota meets Philadelphia at Hershey, Pa., Dallas and Chicago are at New Orleans, St. Louis plays Washington at Norfolk, Va., and San Francisco is at Los Angeles in other games.

Sunday's only action is the annual Hall of Fame game at Canton, Ohio with Baltimore playing Pittsburgh.

Denver fans get their first look at the new Bronco quarterback, Jacky Lee. The Patriots will be out to snap a 11 game exhibition losing streak.

Buffalo handed the Jets their only exhibition loss and New York will be out to square matters. Coach Weeb Ewbank's club surprised with a 34-6 victory over AFL champion San Diego a week ago.

The Raiders, winners of three straight, hope to continue the string against the Chargers. San Diego's key runners, Paul Lowe and Keith Lincoln, were bottled up by the Jets last week and may be tough to handle after the loss.

Cleveland, averaging 44 points per game in the last three starts, has been doing it without All-Pro fullback Jimmy Brown. Brown has scored just two TDs all year, and one of those was on a pass. The Packers, buoyed by the return of Paul Hornung, have lost only to the Cardinals.

Y.A. Tittle of the Giants and Milt Plum of the Lions both were hurt last week but are expected to start in the opener of the Cleveland doubleheader.

The Vikings are unbeaten with four straight victories and rebuilding Philadelphia has dropped three of four. Minnesota Coach Norm Van Brocklen says he'll start sophomore Ron VanderKelen in place of Fran Tarketon.

The defending champion Bears have lost two straight and will try to get untracked against Dallas. The Cowboys' No. 1 quarterback, Don Meredith, is out with a knee injury and John Roach, acquired from Green Bay, will call the signals for Dallas.

St. Louis, which beat the Bears last week, tests the Redskins' new quarterback, Sonny Jurgenson, who has been out with an injury. Washington's only victory came against the Giants two weeks ago.

The Rams will try Terry Baker at halfback against the 49ers.

The FISHIN' FOOL

STEVENS

Wanta' hear a true fish story? Then listen. Hal Ibut and his twin brother were scrounging for a free meal. A devoted pair of identical twins, these brothers not only looked alike, they swam alike, and they fed alike. So, when Hal Ibut noted a tempting morsel of food he would call his twin and together they broke their fast. This day was like most other days except that the piscatorial pair had no means of knowing that aboard the Harbor Rockett on the surface, another identical pair of twins were each holding a fishing rod.

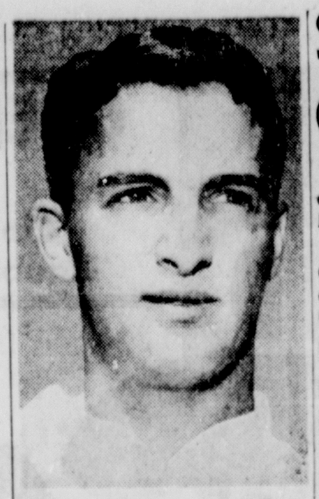
THE PAIR of human twins, like Hal Ibut and his brother, did many things together. The morsel of food offered the fish was duplicated by one of the well known Schwan twins, Tom and Mark. So—when the piscatorial pair grabbed the tempting bit of sustenance, the Schwan twins pulled them in. On the scales the Hal Ibuts weighed exactly 15 pounds each. So heaps of congratulations to Tom and Mark Schwan, twin brothers.

A man who calls himself "a faithful reader" asks that I suggest in this column the type of gear needed to fish for giant tuna. Business is taking him to Nova Scotia. "I understand the fishing is good about this time of year, and that strong tackle is needed. How big are these fish? Any information you have will be appreciated."

I AM happy to oblgie. Probably more giant tuna are caught along the Nova Scotia coast on rod and reel than any other area in the world. Some of these fish have been taken on light tackle, a light rod and line that would test not more than 54 pounds, but there is a great risk in using such light tackle. Better to err by over-strength than otherwise. Tuna Guides recommend line that will test around 80 pounds, a rod with a 28-inch tip, a 12-0 or 14-0 reel, at least 500 yards of line, a 15-foot leader of stainless steel airplane wire, a swivel, a 12-0 hook, and a gaff with a stout, well curved hook. A shoulder harness is necessary to support the pull of the rod. (The ones padded with live rubber are best.)

A BEST bet is to leave your regular tackle home and get one from the guides. You pay $38 a day for boats with tackle and bait. (That $38 rate may have increased—my information is of rates in 1963-64). About the size of these monsters, it is not at all unusual to hook a giant Bluefin weighing over 350 pounds. In fact the world record was taken off the Nova Scotia coast and weighed 977 pounds. A woman angler hooked and landed a bluefin tuna that weighed 882 pounds. Both the above fish were caught at Wedgeport but in different years.

A QUICK synopsis on the local fishing — Salmon spotty both north and south of the Gate—live bait fishing dropped off a great deal due to the high wind and rough water the past three days. Best bet is the Alcatraz and South Tower of the Bridge areas. Good sturgeon fishing in upper Suisun Bay. Skipper O'Brian out of Dowrelio's Crockett harbor took enough sturgeon and striped bass on bait near the Port Costa buoy, and all signs indicate good seasonal activity with stripers on cut bait within a week or 10 days.



LONG WALK—Dental technician Stanley Stein of Hamilton Air Force Base will compete in the National AAU Senior 50-Kilometer Walking Championship at Seattle, Wash., tomorrow. If Stan, a member of the Marin Athletic Club, finishes in the top three he will be eligible to compete in the 1964 Olympics in Tokyo. Tomorrow's walking race will cover slightly more than 31 miles.

Coach Knocks In Nine Runs

Emporium won its first game of the year when it exploded for a 20-13 victory in Class B-Green action of the San Rafael Parks and Recreation Department Adult Softball League yesterday.

Gary Hughes, baseball coach at Marin Catholic High School, knocked in a total of 9 runs with a grand slam homer and a pair of triples.

The Triple 6 softballers downed Sleepy Hollow 11-5 as Don Del Nicki tossed a three-hitter and Garry Stendahl supplied the punch with two doubles. It was a Class B-Blue game.

SOVEREIGN HIKES CUP TRIALS LEAD

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — The count now stands Sovereign 5, Kurrewa V 2.

The Royal Thames Yacht Club still has not selected the challenger for the America's Cup, starting Sept. 15 with Constellation as defender.

The selection committee has five more days to make up its mind.

Sovereign, trailing twice, wound up beating Kurrewa V by one minute, 23 seconds in a race which required almost two hours to complete the final six legs.

Kurrewa V protested Sovereign at the start, when she had to veer to avoid striking Sovereign. Kurrewa was on a starboard tack and Sovereign went on a port tack.

EARLY LEAD

Nevertheless, Kurrewa V took the early lead, was in command-by as much as 1:50 at the second mark yet was caught on the fifth leg, a spinnaker run.

Sovereign's lighter spinnaker seemed to draw better winds while Kurrewa's was badly trimmed. Both 12-meter yachts were hit by a flat calm on the final leg.

Kurrewa, sporting a hankless jib, regained the lead for a short time. But Sovereign skipper Peter Scott found some fresh northwesterly winds blowing near shore and gained an advantage Kurrewa could not overcome.

Self-Hypnosis Helped Girl Swim The English Channel

DOVER, England (AP) — "When I tell her the water is warm — even if it's zero — she really believes it's warm."

That's what coach Paul Herron said.

"I did the swim with my mind completely blank."

That's what Leonore Modell, 14-year-old Sacramento, Calif., schoolgirl said.

"I've never seen a swimmer like her before."

That's what Sam Rockett, veteran advisor to scores of English Channel swimmers, said.

Rockett laid out the course, Herron planned the strategy and Leonore made the swim yesterday, from France to Dover in 15 hours and 40 minutes, even though she had to switch course and go the long way around when she was only 700 yards from shore.

It made Leonore the youngest person ever to swim the Channel.

Hundreds of spectators lined the famed white cliffs and cheered the California girl when she arrived.

Herron, who has swum the Channel himself in both directions, said that the girl swam under self-hypnosis.

"The swim has proved my theory," he said. "Leonore has been a guinea pig to prove my theories on physical development."

And Leonore said:

"I was in a state of self-hypnosis throughout. I have proved that health and fitness can be attained by self-discipline."

After the swim, Leonore said she thought the Channel had been calmer than she had expected. "I got stung by a jelly fish on my right arm and that bothered me for a while, but I was never worried I wouldn't make it," she said.

The youngest person who made it previously was 17-year-old Claudia McPherson of Canada, who took 17 hours and 17 minutes last year.

Mill Valley Church Women Plan Series

A group of women within Mill Valley's Community, Methodist and Episcopal churches are busy with plans to promote a series of classes their churches will sponsor this month.

They will be similar to those held last spring at the Community Church.

Final arrangements will be made at a luncheon to be held Thursday, Sept. 17, at the home of Mrs. Joseph Taylor.

Speaker will be Dr. Muriel James, dean of the Laymen's School of Religion in Berkeley, who conducted the morning classes last spring on "Understanding Today's Women Sociologically, Psychologically and Theologically."

These were followed later by an evening series on "Honest To God And Modern Man" for both men and women, conducted by the Rev. Arnold Bruce Come of the San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo.

All of the classes are given by the Laymen's School of Religion, which Dr. James together with the presidents and deans of four seminaries in the Bay Area and several laymen and professors, founded in 1959.

An ordained minister with a B.D. degree from the Church Divinity School of the Pacific and Ph.D. from the University of California, Dean James has a background that gives academic stature to the school.

At the luncheon Dr. James will discuss the school, its background and its plans for the 1964-65 year.

Anyone interested in the classes is invited to attend the Sept. 17 meeting. It will start at 11:30 a.m. Those attending are requested to bring their own sandwiches. Coffee will be served.

The committee in charge of promoting the classes — to be held at four Marin churches and the San Francisco Theological Seminary—is composed of Mrs. Richard Harding, chairman, and Mesdames Richard Stephens, James Behr, Joseph Taylor, Weld Wilkie, John Wyand and Robert Jenkins.

Because of limited parking facilities, those wishing to attend are asked to call Mrs. Stephens, Mrs. Behr or Mrs. Wyand for information about a car pool from the center of Mill Valley.

Affluent Granny Foots The Bill

NEW YORK (UPI) — Grandma gets the biggest rush in the baby departments—as the only member of the family able to afford all the fashionable merchandise for the infant set.

Now that baby must have a crib for indoors, a crib for outdoors, a crib for the car and a diversified wardrobe for all occasions, only a fairy godmother could foot the bill, the Cleanliness Bureau reports. Grandma gets tapped for a financial reason. Sixty per cent of the grandmas have money from their own jobs or other sources.

Junior Too Quiet? Maybe He's Talking To Pen Pal In Tokyo

By JOY MILLER

NEW YORK (AP)—Within the next 10 years you'll be able to lift your telephone receiver and directly dial friends in countries around the world.

That's the prediction of an Australian communications engineer who thinks that perhaps your telephone bill will be more of a limiting factor than the technology — at least as far as you're concerned.

Certainly great restraint will have to be exercised to keep from regularly calling a daughter stationed in some military outpost with her serviceman husband. Or there's that lovely couple you met in Hamburg on your vacation last summer. You meant to write, but why not just give them a call? That'd surprise them, all right.

And why is Junior so quiet for the last hour? He's talking to his pen pal in Tokyo?

MISS OWEN WOOSTER of Victoria, Australia, chuckles as she imagines the mayhem that could result from the worldwide dialing she expects to be in effect in major countries within the next decade.

She's a plump woman who looks more housewifely than what she is, which is ground communications superintendent of the government-sponsored Trans Australia Airlines and a 1961 recipient of British Empire Medal for her communications work.

At the recent First International Conference of Women Engineers and Scientists she explained how the worldwide automatic system of direct dialing would work.

"THE WORLD NUMBER is not to exceed 11 digits for 25 years or more. This is to simplify the immediate problems of world-wide operation for countries such as the United States, where there is a large investment in switching equipment, with limited storage capacity," she said.

"There are two components of the world number: the country or continental code and the national, which will be variable in length. A country adequately taken care of by an 8-digit national numbering scheme could have a 3-digit country code. The U.S.S.R. and the United States with 10-digit national schemes—such as New York City's area code 212 plus the local number, say PL 1-0101 — would each be identified by a single digit code."

SHE SAID THAT the technical means of providing the system is already available. "National systems are being mechanized rapidly, generally in forms suitable for inclusion, with little change, in the world system."

For Miss Wooster this will be another link in the chain of telecommunications that she believes will "leap over barriers of of illiteracy and the multiplicity of languages, and bring peoples closer together."

The oval bulletin board is an organizer of teen-age dates and souvenirs.

Emphasize Beauty And Order In Helping Deprived Child

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Educators are experimenting this fall with projects to fill the cultural gap of the "deprived" children —many from homes where there are no pencils or paper, books or magazines.

More than two dozen large cities have, or are planning, pre-school education for these youngsters, reports the National Education Association (NEA).

NEA said that studies show three and four-year-old children from slums or otherwise disadvantaged areas lack the "most ordinary familiarity" with the world which the school takes for granted in the middle class child.

THE NEA publication, "Education U.S.A.," cited a comment of a teacher recently in a Brooklyn, N.Y., slum area, who said, "When people speak about how the children can't learn or won't learn, I don't know how they can expect them to if they just have nothing to relate it (learning) to, nothing in their own lives that's beautiful or imaginative."

NEA said one of the most ambitious pre-school programs is that directed by Martin Duetsch, head of the Institute of Developmental Studies of New York (city) Medical College.

One group of Negro children Leutsch studied dramatized the problem—50 per cent said they did not have pencils or pens at home and almost as many said there were no books or magazines.

When spoken to at all by adults, the children usually heard only, "Get this," or "Bring that."

In public schools and daycare centers, Deutsch is developing a curriculum and teaching techniques to give slum children the skills they need to be able to read and to gain an awareness of themselves.

BEAUTY and order are emphasized in the classrooms. In working with parents, Deutsch is trying to show them how to help their children—to encourage them to talk, to give them toys and books, to show interest in what they are doing.

The association said other pre-school and nursery school programs are "popping up" everywhere. It mentioned an early school admissions project in Baltimore, which started as a three-year experiment in 1962.

"While it is too soon to tell whether or not the program will have any lasting effect, the enthusiastic response of children and parents makes teachers and school administrators hopeful," says the association.

IN THE case of the Baltimore project, the center was housed in schools in the city's most depressed neighborhoods. Children were chosen from these areas where the crime and delinquency rate was so high that teachers found it unwise to make home visits alone or after dark.

Money Gift For Old Prescription

WASHINGTON (UPI) — To rid medicine cabinets of outdated drugs, 16 Baltimore pharmacies give a 25-cent gift certificate for every prescription bottle over three months old.

The plan, designed to prevent injury and even death from the ingestion of old medicines, was described in "Public Health Reports," the journal of the Public Health Service.

Basic Breakfast Is A Necessity

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (UPI) — Automation in business and industry is changing American breakfast habits, say dietitians at the University of Michigan Medical Center. Many jobs which used to be physically demanding, for example, have become almost sedentary.

Thus, say the dietitians, food intake has had to adjust to the slower pace — and people are cutting down on the quantity of food eaten in the morning.

Women In White Treated In Style

Without sacrificing the practical or neat qualities that are so important in uniforms . . . the woman in white is being treated to fashions that are as up-to-the-minute as any daytime dresses to be seen!

The revolution in fabrics that offer wash-wear features is perhaps the most important reason for the big addition of style to the utility in uniforms.

Dacron, used alone or in blends, is still the important fabric . . . but it looks brand new in patterns of white on white plaids, stripes and novelty motifs. Puckered Dacron gives an illusion of texture.

The shirtdress with its many variations still holds the fort, but town dress styling is definitely on the increase.

Umbrella Opener

Newest among the mechanical improvements is a touch and go umbrella that can be opened with one hand. The cocktail sized bumbershoot—perhaps for standing under a very small hole in the roof—is also an innovation. Needless to say, there are discotheque styles. These have removable outside covers to enable the carrier to match her costume more suitably.

THE BETTER HALF By Bob Barnes

"I sure do have a license to do this kind of work—a marriage license!"

For Trapped Food

To remove food particles that get caught in the small openings and blades of a food chopper, use a well-lathed percolator brush. After brushign, wash quickly in hot soap or detergent suds and rinses, wipe with a towel, and air dry before reassembling the parts.

Or there's that lovely couple you met in Hamburg on your vacation last summer. You meant to write, but why not just give them a call? That'd surprise them, all right.

And why is Junior so quiet for the last hour? He's talking to his pen pal in Tokyo?

MISS OWEN WOOSTER of Victoria, Australia, chuckles as she imagines the mayhem that could result from the worldwide dialing she expects to be in effect in major countries within the next decade.

She's a plump woman who looks more housewifely than what she is, which is ground communications superintendent of the government-sponsored Trans Australia Airlines and a 1961 recipient of British Empire Medal for her communications work.

At the recent First International Conference of Women Engineers and Scientists she explained how the worldwide automatic system of direct dialing would work.

"THE WORLD NUMBER is not to exceed 11 digits for 25 years or more. This is to simplify the immediate problems of world-wide operation for countries such as the United States, where there is a large investment in switching equipment, with limited storage capacity," she said.

"There are two components of the world number: the country or continental code and the national, which will be variable in length. A country adequately taken care of by an 8-digit national numbering scheme could have a 3-digit country code. The U.S.S.R. and the United States with 10-digit national schemes—such as New York City's area code 212 plus the local number, say PL 1-0101 — would each be identified by a single digit code."

SHE SAID THAT the technical means of providing the system is already available. "National systems are being mechanized rapidly, generally in forms suitable for inclusion, with little change, in the world system."

For Miss Wooster this will be another link in the chain of telecommunications that she believes will "leap over barriers of of illiteracy and the multiplicity of languages, and bring peoples closer together."

BEDROOM FOR TEEN-AGERS

This gay room prepared on a careful budget has a place for everything the teen-ager cares about. Note the double chest of drawers and the footlocker before the bed. Shelves provide space for records, reading material and items teen-agers love to save. The bedspread is of durable corduroy. Lightweight directors' chairs lend a note of authority, and action. Floor planks in vinyl asbestos create style, durability and easy care. The printed cotton cafe-style window curtains add a chic look. The oval bulletin board is an organizer of teen-age dates and souvenirs.

Emphasize Beauty And Order In Helping Deprived Child

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Educators are experimenting this fall with projects to fill the cultural gap of the "deprived" children —many from homes where there are no pencils or paper, books or magazines.

More than two dozen large cities have, or are planning, pre-school education for these youngsters, reports the National Education Association (NEA).

NEA said that studies show three and four-year-old children from slums or otherwise disadvantaged areas lack the "most ordinary familiarity" with the world which the school takes for granted in the middle class child.

THE NEA publication, "Education U.S.A.," cited a comment of a teacher recently in a Brooklyn, N.Y., slum area, who said, "When people speak about how the children can't learn or won't learn, I don't know how they can expect them to if they just have nothing to relate it (learning) to, nothing in their own lives that's beautiful or imaginative."

NEA said one of the most ambitious pre-school programs is that directed by Martin Duetsch, head of the Institute of Developmental Studies of New York (city) Medical College.

One group of Negro children Leutsch studied dramatized the problem—50 per cent said they did not have pencils or pens at home and almost as many said there were no books or magazines.

When spoken to at all by adults, the children usually heard only, "Get this," or "Bring that."

In public schools and daycare centers, Deutsch is developing a curriculum and teaching techniques to give slum children the skills they need to be able to read and to gain an awareness of themselves.

BEAUTY and order are emphasized in the classrooms. In working with parents, Deutsch is trying to show them how to help their children—to encourage them to talk, to give them toys and books, to show interest in what they are doing.

The association said other pre-school and nursery school programs are "popping up" everywhere. It mentioned an early school admissions project in Baltimore, which started as a three-year experiment in 1962.

"While it is too soon to tell whether or not the program will have any lasting effect, the enthusiastic response of children and parents makes teachers and school administrators hopeful," says the association.

IN THE case of the Baltimore project, the center was housed in schools in the city's most depressed neighborhoods. Children were chosen from these areas where the crime and delinquency rate was so high that teachers found it unwise to make home visits alone or after dark.

Money Gift For Old Prescription

WASHINGTON (UPI) — To rid medicine cabinets of outdated drugs, 16 Baltimore pharmacies give a 25-cent gift certificate for every prescription bottle over three months old.

The plan, designed to prevent injury and even death from the ingestion of old medicines, was described in "Public Health Reports," the journal of the Public Health Service.

Linda Mae Trent To Wed M. L. McClure Of Fairfax

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Trent of Novato are announcing the engagment of their daughter, Linda Mae to Michael Lloyd McClure of Fairfax.

Linda is the sister of Kathy Trent of Novato and Mrs. John Smith of San Francisco, and the granddaughter of Mrs. Rose Trent of San Rafael. She was graduated from Novato High School and is employed at Francis & Murray Inc. in Novato.

The future bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Stevenson of Fairfax and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. McClure of Bellvue Ida. He is employed in San Rafael.

A definite date has not been set for the wedding.

Basic Breakfast Is A Necessity

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (UPI) — Automation in business and industry is changing American breakfast habits, say dietitians at the University of Michigan Medical Center. Many jobs which used to be physically demanding, for example, have become almost sedentary.

Thus, say the dietitians, food intake has had to adjust to the slower pace — and people are cutting down on the quantity of food eaten in the morning.

Miss Hughes Bride Of Ron Denman

St. Brendan's Church in San Francisco was the setting of the Aug. 6 wedding of Bonnie Bryan Hughes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hughes of San Francisco, to Ronald Joseph Denman of San Rafael.

Bonnie wore a full length satin gown which had belonged to her mother. Mrs. George Haskel of Kentfield wore a persimmon street length dress as matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were Linda Danzig of Daly City, Sue Danman and Kathie Flanagan, both of San Francisco. Betsy Hughes served as her sister's flower girl.

Glen Cheetham of San Rafael served as best man and ushering were Jay Danzig of Daly City, Bob Hughes of San Francisco, Gerry Denman of San Rafael and Norman Kushin of Santa Rosa.

After a reception in the Forest Hill Club House in San Francisco, the couple left for a honeymoon in Carmel.

Bonnie attended Lincoln High School and San Francisco State College and will teach this fall.

Ronald, the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Denman of San Rafael, attended Marin Catholic High School and San Francisco State College and is presently employed as a continuity writer for a television station.

The couple are residing in Westlake.

Women In White Treated In Style

Without sacrificing the practical or neat qualities that are so important in uniforms . . . the woman in white is being treated to fashions that are as up-to-the-minute as any daytime dresses to be seen!

The revolution in fabrics that offer wash-wear features is perhaps the most important reason for the big addition of style to the utility in uniforms.

Dacron, used alone or in blends, is still the important fabric . . . but it looks brand new in patterns of white on white plaids, stripes and novelty motifs. Puckered Dacron gives an illusion of texture.

The shirtdress with its many variations still holds the fort, but town dress styling is definitely on the increase.

Scott-Smiley Rite In East

Christopher Louise Smiley was married Aug. 29, to George Winfield Scott Jr. in Our Lady of Fatima Church, Wilton, Conn.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, David Norton Smiley, wore a white silk suit.

A wedding breakfast followed at Fox Hill Inn, Ridgefield, Conn.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Foerster Smiley of Westport, Conn. and Richard H. Smiley of New York City. Mr. Scott is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Winfield Scott of Westport. Mrs. Scott attended Vermont College, Montpelier, Vt., and until her marriage was associated with the New Yorker Magazine in New York City.

She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Bryant Foerster of Los Angles, and the late Roland C. Foerster and the late Mr. and Mrs. Spencer N. Smiley of San Rafael.

Her husband was graduated from Dartmouth College with the class of 1963 where he was a member of Zeta Psi. He will enter his second year at Yale Law School this fall.

The bridegroom is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Christian Steidinger of Williston, L. I. and the late Mr. and Mrs. George P. Scott of Portsmouth, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott are honeymooning in Bermuda and upon their return will reside in New Haven, Conn.

Umbrella Opener

Newest among the mechanical improvements is a touch and go umbrella that can be opened with one hand. The cocktail sized bumbershoot—perhaps for standing under a very small hole in the roof—is also an innovation. Needless to say, there are discotheque styles. These have removable outside covers to enable the carrier to match her costume more suitably.

THE BETTER HALF By Bob Barnes

"I sure do have a license to do this kind of work—a marriage license!"

For Trapped Food

To remove food particles that get caught in the small openings and blades of a food chopper, use a well-lathed percolator brush. After brushign, wash quickly in hot soap or detergent suds and rinses, wipe with a towel, and air dry before reassembling the parts.

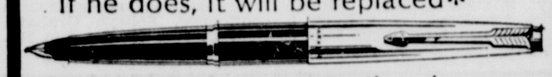
Q. Why give your favorite student a good pen when he'll just lose it?

A. Parker won't let him lose it. If he does, it will be replaced*



* SPECIAL REPLACEMENT OFFER: If you buy your favorite student a Parker 45 (the $5 model) between now and October 17, 1964, he can protect it against loss for one full year at no extra cost. He registers its purchase by mailing one-half of the Parker 45 Registration Certificate to the insurance company listed on the certificate. Then if the pen is lost, the insurance company will replace it at no charge. All he has to do is mail the other half of the certificate, properly notarized before December 31, 1965 and describe how the pen was lost.

Here's why this is such a good pen for a student:

IT'S CONVERTIBLE. Load it with a cartridge or replace the cartridge with the ingenious little "converter" (95 cents extra) and fill it from an ink bottle. The 45 is the only pen that fills two ways. SOLID 14K GOLD POINT. Choice of seven widths from extra-fine to extra-broad. And we can replace points right on the spot.

WHAT MAKES A COMFORT'BLE HOME?

We like to think of comfort as a successful combination of new home convenience in a beautiful location, such as the home we call

THE ATHERTON

Our ATHERTON model is located so you have a commanding view from both step-down family room and living room, through sliding glass doors. Massive white brick, raised hearth fireplace, with wood-paneled book-shelves, extends the full length of the family room. The step-saver GE kitchen adjacent to the dining area (with crystal chandelier) is separated from the family room by a wrought iron balustrade. There are 3 spacious bedrooms, 2 beautifully appointed baths. THE ATHERTON is luxuriously decorated.

If YOU agree that comfort is a combination of many things, you'll enjoy seeing the other furnished models.

DIRECTIONS

OFFICIAL NOTICE OF SALE OF SCHOOL DISTRICT BONDS

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that sealed proposals will be received by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin, State of California, at the office of the County Clerk and Ex-Officio Clerk of said Board of Supervisors in the Civic Center, City of San Rafael, in said County, California, on Tuesday, the 15th day of September, 1964, at the hour of 10:00 o'clock A.M. for the purchase of bonds of KENTFIELD SCHOOL DISTRICT OF MARIN COUNTY, State of California, more particularly described below:

ISSUE: $265,000.00 1963 School Bonds, Series A, consisting of 265 bonds of the denomination of $1,000.00 each, numbered A-1 to A-265, inclusive, all dated September 1, 1964. Said bonds are part of an authorized issue in the aggregate principal amount of $850,000.00. The remaining $585,000.00 principal amount of said authorized issue may be sold when and as determined by said Board of Supervisors, but it is anticipated will not be offered for sale prior to September 1, 1965.

INTEREST RATE: Maximum five percent (5%) per annum, payable annually for the first year on September 1, 1965, and semi-annually thereafter on September 1 and March 1 in each year. Bidders must specify the rate of interest which the bonds hereby offered for sale shall bear. Bidders will be permitted to bid different rates of interest and to split rates irrespective of the maturities of said bonds. The interest rate stated in the bid must be in a multiple of one-eighth or one-twentieth of one percent per annum, payable as aforesaid.

MATURITIES: Said bonds mature serially in consecutive numerical order from lower to higher (without option of prior redemption) as follows:

Principal Amount	1963 Series A Bond Nos.	Maturity Dates (Sept. 1)
$ 5,000.00	1- 35	1965-1971
10,000.00	36- 85	1972-1976
15,000.00	86-100	1977
20,000.00	101-140	1978-1979
25,000.00	141-265	1980-1984

PAYMENT: Both principal and interest payable in lawful money of the United States at the San Francisco Main Office of Bank of America, National Trust and Savings Association in the City and County of San Francisco, State of California, or at the option of the holder at the respective offices of the paying agents of said County in the City of New York, State of New York, or in the City of Chicago, State of Illinois.

REGISTRATION: Coupon bonds will be issued by said Board of Supervisors on behalf of said school district. Such bonds are registrable only as to both principal and interest.

PURPOSE OF ISSUE: Said bonds were authorized by more than two-thirds of the voters voting at an election held in said district on April 16, 1963, and will be issued and sold for the purpose of raising money for authorized school purposes.

SECURITY: The bonds are general obligations of said school district and said Board of Supervisors has power and is obligated to levy ad valorem taxes for the payment of said bonds and the interest thereon upon all property within said school district, subject to taxation by said school district (except certain intangible personal property, which is taxable at limited rates), without limitation of rate or amount.

TAX EXEMPT STATUS: In the event that prior to the delivery of the bonds the income received by private holders from bonds of the same type and character shall be declared to be taxable under any Federal Income Tax laws, either by the terms of such laws or by ruling of a Federal Income Tax authority or official which is followed by the Internal Revenue Service or by the decision of any Federal Court, the successful bidder may at his option, prior to the tender of said bonds by the Board of Supervisors, be relieved of his obligation under the contract to purchase the bonds and, in such case, the deposit accompanying his bid will be returned.

LEGAL OPINION: The legal opinion of the following firm, approving the validity of said bonds, will be furnished to the successful bidder without charge: Orrick, Dahlquist, Herrington & Sutcliffe of San Francisco, California. A copy of the legal opinion, certified by the official in whose office the original is filed, will be printed on each bond without charge to the successful bidder.

TERMS OF SALE

HIGHEST BIDDER: The bonds will be awarded to the highest responsible bidder or bidders considering the interest rate or rates specified and the premium offered, if any. The highest bid will be determined by deducting the amount of the premium bid (if any) from the total amount of interest which the district would be required to pay from the date of said bonds to the respective maturity dates thereof at the coupon rate or rates specified in the bid, and the award will be made on the basis of the lowest net interest cost to the district. The lowest net interest cost shall be computed on a 360-day year basis. The purchaser must pay accrued interest from the date of the bonds to the date of delivery. The cost of printing the bonds will be borne by the district.

RIGHT OF REJECTION: Said Board of Supervisors reserves the right in its discretion to reject any and all bids and to waive any irregularity or informality in any bid.

PROMPT AWARD: The Board of Supervisors will take action awarding the bonds or rejecting all bids not later than 24 hours after the expiration of the time herein prescribed for receipt of proposals; provided, that the award may be made after the expiration of the specified time if the bidder shall not have given the Board of Supervisors notice in writing of the withdrawal of such proposal.

PROMPT DELIVERY: Delivery of said bonds will be made to the successful bidder at the office of the County Treasurer of said County as soon as the bonds can be prepared, which it is estimated will be within 30 days from the day of sale, but not prior to the date of the bond.

RIGHT OF CANCELLATION: The successful bidder shall have the right, at his option, to cancel the contract of purchase if the bonds are not tendered for delivery within 60 days from the date of sale thereof, and in such event, the successful bidder shall be entitled to the return of the deposit accompanying his bid.

FORM OF BID: All bids must be for not less than all of the bonds hereby offered for sale, and for not less than the par value thereof and accrued interest to date of delivery. Such bids, together with bidder's check, must be enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed to the Board of Supervisors of said County and endorsed "Proposal for School Bonds of Kentfield School District of Marin County".

BID CHECK: With each bid must be submitted a certified check or cashier's check for $1,000.00 drawn on a bank or trust company transacting business in the State of California, payable to the order of the County Treasurer, to secure said school district from any loss resulting from the failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of his bid. In addition, bidders are requested (but not required) to supply an estimate of the total net interest cost to the district on the basis of their respective bids, which shall be considered as informative only and not binding on either the bidder or the district. Checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be returned by the County Clerk by mail, upon the award of the bonds. No interest will be paid upon deposit made by the successful bidder.

There is no controversy or litigation pending concerning the validity of the above issue, the corporate existence of said district or the title of the officers to their respective offices and the Board of Supervisors will deliver to the successful bidder a no-litigation certificate certifying to the foregoing as of and at the time of the delivery of the bonds.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Fibroid Growths Complicate But Don't Prevent All Pregnancies

VAN DELLEN

Is it possible for a pregnant woman with a fibroid of the uterus to have a normal delivery? The answer is yes, depending upon the size and location of the tumor. These lesions (myomas) often decrease fertility and increase the chance of premature delivery.

On the other hand, they do not interfere with labor or delivery of the baby unless a large growth near the opening of the uterus is obstructing the passageway. In such instances, caesarean section is required.

FIBROIDS ARE benign growths made up of uterine muscle tissue. At least 20 per cent of women over 35 years of age have one or more, frequently without symptoms or knowledge of their existence. They may be tiny or large enough to fill the abdominal cavity. Some are round, others are oblong or knobbed. They may protrude into the cavity of the uterus, whereas those near the surface bulge outward, giving the organ a nodular appearance.

Fibroids become bigger gradually; it may take five years to grow from the size of an olive to that of an orange. The first warning is likely to be a change in the menstrual pattern; the period becomes prolonged and the flow profuse. Pain seldom occurs unless these tumors press on nearby structures.

A pelvic examination is needed to make the diagnosis. Many physicians also recommend a D and C to determine whether symptoms are due to cancer or other disorders.

REMOVAL OF THE uterus is suggested, especially when the myomas are large and the woman has had her family or is approaching menopause. Only the fibroids are carefully dissected away from the uterine wall when the victim is young and willing to take her chances on getting pregnant and carrying the child to full term.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

CLOSED STOMACH

J. H. W. writes: What can you tell me about a valve that closes, which prevents entry of food to the stomach?

REPLY

Thickening, or spasm, of the cardia (entrance to the stomach) is a troublesome condition. There is no difficulty in swallowing except that the food sticks in the lower part of the esophagus. The victim often learns that drinking liquid will help solids to pass through the narrowed opening. But in time liquids become just as difficult to swallow as solids. Emotional tension and stress usually aggravate cardiospasm. When sedatives fail to control the disorder, a mechanical dilator must be passed.

UMBILICAL HERNIA

Mrs. J. writes: A 1-year-old boy has a protuding navel caused by hernia. Can this be cured without an operation?

REPLY

Umbilical hernias in children usually heal by the second birthday. If they are large and do not heal within 6 to 9 months of continuous strapping, surgery may be indicated.

BROMHIDROSIS

A. M. writes: Is it normal for the perspiration of an 8-year-old girl to have an odor?

REPLY

It is unusual unless the girl is approaching puberty and the apocrine glands are becoming active. Cleanliness goes a long way because most of the odor is due to bacteria on the moist skin.

ADHESIONS

F. M. writes: Could adhesions form 20 years after a gall bladder operation?

REPLY

Yes, but in all probability the scars developed shortly after the operation and remained unnoticed for two decades.

Science Learns Of Creating Monsters

NEW YORK (UPI)—Science has learned a little more about embryonic processes which create monsters, and this is reason for rejoicing. Prevention of such embryonic processes would also prevent much human unhappiness.

Since chicken embryoes are contained in eggs that can be manipulated at will, two scientists used them to add to science's now limited knowledge of what is called technically tetratogenesis. They used also two drugs, one a member of the "sulpha" family — sulphanilamide.

When either is needled into a fertile chicken egg in a relatively large amount, the chances of a monstrous chick developing in that egg are very high. But when either is needled into the egg in a relatively small amount, the chances are quite low.

Whether they serve as "tetratogens" which they reach an embryo is strictly a matter of the size of the dose. The scientists proved it, with sulphanilamide. A small amount needles into 297 fertile eggs caused a departure from perfectly normal chick embryonic development of only three-tenths of 1 per cent.

Walter Landauer and Ellen M. Clark of the University of Connecticut at Storrs, then proceeded to needle these harmless amounts of both drugs into the same eggs. They wanted to find out if they were "synergistic"—if they increased the monster-form potency of one another.

This time there was only 20.7 per cent normality among the chicks which developed in 275 eggs. Almost 80 per cent had malformed and underdeveloped legs and 63.6 per cent had parrot-like beaks which in itself is enough to make a chicken into a monster. Furthermore, the hatching rate was greatly reduced.

This work bears directly on the concern of medical science over the off-hand way human beings resort to drugs, as though chemical compounds were simple and direct in their effects. Dr. Landauer and Miss Clark pointed out how subtle reactions in body chemistry can be.

They can block vitamins away from enzymes and coenzymes which must have those vitamins to initiate essential chemical processes. Or they can lower the available "fuels" of body chemistry, particularly if one drug which is harmless in itself should add to the potency of a second that chances to be present at the same time.

"It is clear that altogether harmless amounts of potentially tetratogenic substances may in combination produce powerful synergism and thereby a high incidence of severe malformations," the scientists said in summarizing their new knowledge.

They then reminded that their earlier experiments demonstrated drugs which do no interfere with embryonic development even in high doses "may act as highly effective synergists" of other drugs.

"The cautionary consequences of these facts should not require emphasis," they added. Their work was supported by the national science foundation and was a part of the scientific research stimulated by the large number of women who took a "harmless" sleeping pill during pregnancy and consequently gave birth to deformed babies

MARIN FILM FARE

'Cleo' Comes To Marin Screen

By LES DARD

Marin movie fans have a notable collection this fine weekend:

FAIRFAX THEATER

Tonight belongs to "Cleopatra," easily the most lavish — and most publicized — film ever made as it opens its Marin run at the Fairfax.

The public must be advised to do a lot of forgetting about this picture. Put aside the notoriety of its top stars, the monumental production problems, the endless stories of the film's financing.

Just come looking for stunning entertainment, and few will be disappointed.

The story of the Egyptian queen, her dependence and influence on Rome, is told through her grand alliances — political and romantic — with Caesar and Antony. The first half of the picture belongs to Caesar, the second to Antony.

It is, without doubt, Elizabeth Taylor's show. In 100 dazzling costumes, she is at her most beautiful.

To Rex Harrison as Caesar go the major plaudits. As the brilliant conqueror of Pompey, the wary recipient of Cleo's charms, the dreamer of world conquest, he gives the role depth and consistency.

Richard Burton as Antony is exciting as a man more lover than hero, more impetuous than is good for him.

The staging is, in a word, colossal. The photography, superlative.

This is one you won't have to tell your grandchildren about. They'll be seeing it themselves on return runs.

LARK THEATER

A captivating Italian tragicomedy, "Seduced and Abandoned," is now on screen. That title may not strike you as very amusing, and indeed there are moments here of both delicious humor and great poignance.

The story is concerned with an angelic Sicilian girl seduced by her sister's fiance, and with her autocratic father's subsequent efforts to avenge her honor.

The struggle begins quietly, but ultimately involves the whole village, bystanders, police, clergy, relatives. And, eventually, it kills the father.

The final shot is of the father's grave, topped by a realistic bust of his head, with the motto: "Family and Honor."

But the girl is not abandoned. She marries her seducer and it looks like it could be a happy merger.

Acting, by performers whose names you wouldn't recognize, is excellent.

The film is the work of Pietro Germi, who gave us "Divorce, Italian Style."

MOTOR MOVIES

"Flipper's New Adventure" now showing is the sequel to "Flipper," story about a boy and an intelligent dolphin. The new story is even more appealing than the original.

Told that he must put his dolphin in an aquarium to make way for a highway, young Luke Halprin sets out in a small boat to find an uninhabited island where he might hide his pet.

Using motor, boy and dolphin power, he finally arrives at a suitable place — or rather the dolphin does because he's pulling the boat.

But soon complications start. Three thugs take over a yacht and set the owner's family adrift near Luke's island. He and the dolphin help them get to shore, but stay under cover for fear of discovery.

Soon he meets one of the two daughters by accident, and arranges to help them get food in secretive ways. After a while though, the criminals change their minds and decide to come back and take the family hostage.

Flipper and his owner won't have this, and take over the boat.

Fine escapism for the younger set.

TAMALPAIS THEATER

The year's biggest musical, "The Unsinkable Molly Brown," is now showing, starring Debbie Reynolds in what could be her top role.

The title heroine was an illiterate Irish-American girl who became the toast of international society. Born Molly Tobin, she became Molly Brown through marriage to Johnny Brown, who made it very big tapping the west's mining riches.

Primed with her Irish obstinacy and her husband's cash, Molly descended on Denver. But the established society there rejected her. So Molly headed for Europe and the polish it could give her.

When she returned to Denver, Molly brought her own court of European nobility. On the next trip she became the heroine of the sinking of the Titanic.

RAFAEL THEATER

Held over is Alfred Hitchcock's newest, "Marnie," which features a strange romance between Tippi Hedren and Sean Connery.

Marnie is a compulsive thief and liar. She steals only money, in large lumps. To facilitate this, she switches identities, jobs and hair coloring.

The girl is tripped up when the same man appears on two of her jobs. But instead of turning her in, Connery falls in love with Marnie and marries her, all the while trying to discover her problem and reform her.

The audience is treated to the sifting of psychological clues as Connery wrestles with his problem. He does a good job.

In case his name is not yet on your tongue tips, Connery is the James Bond of "From Russia With Love" and "Dr. No," Ian Fleming's intrepid hero.

It's in Technicolor.

NOVATO THEATER

Opening Sunday is "The Chalk Garden," a gripping suspense story starring Hayley Mills and Deborah Kerr and featuring John Mills, Hayley's father.

Miss Kerr is engaged as a governess-companion to Hayley, an incorrigible 16-year-old who lives with her doughty grandmother, Edith Evans, in a lovely old house on the chalk cliffs of Dover.

There is mystery about Miss Kerr and although hints are given from time to time, the truth when it comes is a shocker.

John Mills plays the butler. There is a subtle suggestion of romance between him and Miss Kerr which adds to the intrigue.

The co-feature is "Wild and Wonderful," a sort of shaggy dog story, which stars Tony Curtis and Christine Kaufmann and Monsieur Cognac, a film star poodle who tries to foul up their romance.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

Peter Sellers comes forth in "The World of Henry Orient," now showing which is made the more engaging by the pixyish presence of two teen-age girls, Tippy Walker and Merrie Spaeth.

The irresistible adolescents are exploring Manhattan's Central Park when they come upon concert pianist Henry Orient (Sellers) amorously engaged with Paula Prentiss.

From that point on one girl has a crush on Henry.

Sellers is wildly comical and Tom Bosley and Angela Lansbury are amusing as the parents of one girl. But what steals the show is the delightfully fresh talent of Tippy and Merrie.

Jerry Lewis and Jill St. John star in the co-feature, "Who's Minding the Store."

101 DRIVE-IN

Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, Sammy Davis Jr. and Bing Crosby star in "Robin and the Seven Hoods," now showing.

Sinatra plays Robbo, leader of a Chicago gang in the days of bootleg liquor.

His chief henchmen are Martin and Sammy Davis. The head of a rival gang is played by Peter Falk, while the only big female role is that of Barbara Rush who plays the daughter of slain gangleader Edward G. Robinson.

Bing Crosby plays a do-gooder who ends up with both gangs — and Miss Rush as well!

SEQUOIA THEATER

Peter Sellers stars in "Shot in the Dark," held over, as the hilarious Inspector Clouseau of "Pink Panther" fame.

In this story he is investigating the murder of a servant in the home of millionaire George Sanders. As all the facts point to pretty Miss Elke Sommers, the parlor maid, he immediately sets out to prove she didn't do it.

This he does with an absolute shambles of police procedure that is as devastating as it is delightful.

The whole film is riotously funny and loaded with good visual humor.

HELD OVER — Alfred Hitchcock's mystery, "Marnie," is being held over at the Rafael Theater. The film stars Sean Connery and Tippi Hedren. It is the story of a strange romance.

Landmarks Society Benefit Is Planned

Furniture and houseware donated by Tiburon Peninsula residents will be sold Sept. 18, 19 and 20 to benefit the Belvedere-Tiburon Landmarks Society.

The sale sponsored by the society will be held in the old Northwestern Pacific Railroad freight office on the south side of Paradise Drive near the ferry slip. Donations of furniture, books, paintings and other household items are being received by Mrs. H. C. Gathings of Tiburon.

Household Pet, Kitten Show Slated

More than 100 cats will compete Sunday at the Marin County Cat Fanciers' Household Pet and Kitten Show in the Marin Art and Garden Center, Ross.

The king and queen of household pets will receive their cat-size crowns at 4 p.m. Four other cats will also be crowned: a duke and duchess and a prince and princess.

Household pet judge will be Natalie Higgins of San Jose.

More than 50 purebred animals will compete in the kitten portion. They will be judged by Mrs. Paul Springer of San Francisco, Mrs. Robert Ebert of Fremont, and Lois Werckle of San Jose.

The show will be open from 11 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

First Ocean Pier

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Atlantic City's first ocean pier was not an amusement pier in the strict sense. It was erected by the West Jersey and Atlantic Railroad as part of its Excursion House facilities, and was opened the same day the railroad line ran its first train into the resort, July 16, 1880.

Tiburon Sanitation Vote Is Set Tuesday

Voters in the Tiburon Sanitary District on Tuesday will choose among eight candidates to fill three positions on the district board.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. at the district plant, Mar West Street and Paradise Drive.

Candidates are Victor C. Banks, J. P. Eichorn, Edward Goliti Jr., Bruce S. Jacobs, Fred Mantegani, Angelo Mirata, John V. Murray, and Francis J. Ryan.

Commenting on recent allegations that some candidates were not properly registered to vote and so could not run in the election, district secretary Robert A. Sterling, who is retiring from the board, said:

"The district is not in the position to question the qualifications of these candidates. The board is not a court; it is a matter between the candidate and the one who challenges him."

Anne L. Ellinwood, Tiburon city councilman, in a letter to Irving Moulin, as chairman of the board, had said that qualifications of some candidates apparently did not meet election requirements.

Moulin made the letter public Monday and answered the comments with opinions from the sanitary district's attorney which indicated all candidates challenged are qualified to run.

Sterling said Miss Ellinwood's comments should have been made at a sanitary district board meeting, or a city council meeting, or in a letter to the entire board.

Miss Ellinwood said she had written the letter only after hearing comments about candidates from four persons and that she wrote as a private person, not as a council representative.

Sterling said he agreed with making the letter publicly known, since the sanitary district board would have been in an embarrassing position if any election procedure was questioned at a later date and the letter was only then made public.

The Social Security Act was passed in 1935 and has had major amendments in eight of the years since then. The act provides for social insurance, public assistance to the needy and children's services.
